The Art of Brevity Per Winther, Jakob Lothe, Hans H. Skei, 2004 The Art of Brevity gathers fresh ideas about the theory and writing of short fiction from around the globe to produce an international inclusive exploration of the steadily growing field of short story studies Though Anglo American scholars have served as the primary developers of contemporary short story theory since the field's inception in the 1960s this volume adds the contributions of scholars living in other parts of the world Such Anglo American pioneers as Mary Rohrberger Charles May Susan Lohafer and John Gerlach join with short fiction scholars at universities in Norway Denmark Sweden and Canada to build academic bridges and expand the field geographically as well as conceptually Contributors to the volume weave together themes of time space compression mystery reader response and narrative closure They discuss writers as varied as Edgar Allan Poe Nathaniel Hawthorne Herman Melville Sarah Orne Jewett James Joyce Franz Kafka Ernest Hemingway Mavis Gallant Flannery O'Connor Eudora Welty Margaret Atwood Alice Munro and Robert Olen Butler the nineteenth century queer short story and contemporary Danish short shorts

Essentials of the Theory of Fiction Michael J. Hoffman, Patrick D. Murphy, 2005-07-06 A third edition of this anthology of the most influential and comprehensive writing on the theory of fiction from the 19th century through modernism and postmodernism to the present

The Classic Short Story, 1870-1925 Florence Goyet, 2014-01-13 The ability to construct a nuanced narrative or complex character in the constrained form of the short story has sometimes been seen as the ultimate test of an author's creativity Yet during the time when the short story was at its most popular the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries even the greatest writers followed strict generic conventions that were far from subtle This expanded and updated translation of Florence Goyet's influential La Nouvelle 1870 1925 Description d'un genre son apogée Paris 1993 is the only study to focus exclusively on this classic period across different continents Ranging through French English Italian Russian and Japanese writing particularly the stories of Guy de Maupassant Henry James Giovanni Verga Anton Chekhov and Akutagawa Ryunosuke Goyet shows that these authors were able to create brilliant and successful short stories using the very simple tools of brevity of that period In this challenging and far reaching study Goyet looks at classic short stories in the context in which they were read at the time cheap newspapers and higher end periodicals She demonstrates that despite the apparent intention of these stories to question bourgeois ideals they mostly affirmed the prejudices of their readers In doing so her book forces us to rethink our preconceptions about this forgotten genre

Reading Theories in Contemporary Fiction Lisa McNally, 2013-04-25 Even after the upheavals wrought by Theory literary criticism has generally ignored the act and experience of reading itself proceeding as though something so fundamental to our experience of texts could be taken for granted Reading Theories in Contemporary Fiction draws on deconstruction and the thought of Jacques Derrida to explore the ways in which contemporary fiction engages with reading its power the elusive nature of its experience and the failures of understanding inherent in it Along the way the book proceeds through close readings of such authors as J M Coetzee David Mitchell Toni Morrison and Philip Roth

The Short-Short Story José Flávio Nogueira Guimarães, 2012-10-23 This book proposes a study of a new postmodern prose fiction genre the short short story Considerations of generic classifications and boundaries are followed by an historical overview and analysis of short fiction from the nineteenth to twenty first centuries especially under the influence of the Russian Anton Chekhov who is regarded as the father of the modern short story The postmodern short short story is seen as emerging from this trend a hybrid genre with characteristics of the narrative language of her prose genres such as the short story and the journalistic writing The cluster of features such as condensation lack of character development surprise endings etc which is seen as characteristic of the short short story are discussed and ten examples are summarized and analyzed including two traditional short stories for contrast It is seen that the short short story may be further broken into what is called the new sudden fiction and the even shorter and more radical flash fiction

Edinburgh Companion to the Short Story in English Paul Delaney, 2018-11-27 This collection explores the history and development of the anglophone short story since the beginning of the nineteenth century

The British Short Story Emma Liggins, Andrew Maunder, Ruth Robbins, 2017-09-16 The short story remains a crucial if neglected part of British literary heritage This accessible and up to date critical overview maps out the main strands and figures that shaped the British short story and novella from the 1850s to the present It offers new readings of both classic and forgotten texts in a clear jargon free way

Chinese Theories of Fiction Ming Dong Gu,2007-06-01 In this innovative work Ming Dong Gu examines Chinese literature and traditional Chinese criticism to construct a distinctly Chinese theory of fiction and places it within the context of international fiction theory He argues that because Chinese fiction or xiaoshuo was produced in a tradition very different from that of the West it has formed a system of fiction theory that cannot be adequately accounted for by Western fiction theory grounded in mimesis and realism Through an inquiry into the macrocosm of Chinese fiction the art of formative works and theoretical data in fiction commentaries and intellectual thought Gu explores the conceptual and historical conditions of Chinese fiction in relation to European and world fiction In the process Gu critiques and challenges some accepted views of Chinese fiction and provides a theoretical basis for fresh approaches to fiction study in general and Chinese fiction in particular Such masterpieces as the Jin Ping Mei The Plum in the Golden Vase and the Hongloumeng The Story of the Stone are discussed at length to advance his notion of fiction and fiction theory

Theory of the Novel Michael McKeon,2000-12 McKeon and others delve into the significance of the novel as a genre form issues in novel techniques such as displacement the grand theory narrative modes such as subjectivity character and development critical interpretation of the structure of the novel and the novel in historical context

Handbook of the American Short Story Erik Redling,Oliver Scheiding,2022-01-19 The American short story has always been characterized by exciting aesthetic innovations and an immense range of topics This handbook offers students and researchers a comprehensive introduction to the multifaceted genre with a special focus on recent developments due to the rise of new media Part I provides systematic overviews of significant contexts ranging from historical political backgrounds short story theories developed by writers print and digital culture to current theoretical approaches and canon formation Part II consists of 35 paired readings of representative short stories by eminent authors charting major steps in the evolution of the American short story from its beginnings as an art form in the early nineteenth century up to the digital age The handbook examines historically methodologically and theoretically the coming together of the enduring narrative practice of compression and concision in American literature It offers fresh and original readings relevant to studying the American short story and shows how the genre performs American culture

Teaching the Short Story A. Cox,2015-12-04 The short story is moving from relative neglect to a central position in the curriculum as a teaching tool it offers students a route into many complex areas including critical theory gender studies postcolonialism and genre This book offers a practical guide to the short story in the classroom covering all these fields and more

A Companion to the British and Irish Short Story David Malcolm,Cheryl Alexander Malcolm,2009-01-30 A Companion to the British and Irish Short Story provides a comprehensive treatment of short fiction writing and chronicles its development in Britain and Ireland from 1880 to the present Provides a comprehensive treatment of the short story in Britain and Ireland as it developed over the period 1880 to the present Includes essays on topics and genres as well as on individual texts and authors Comprises chapters on women s writing Irish fiction gay and lesbian writing and short fiction by immigrants to Britain A Reader's Companion to the Short Story in English Erin Fallon,R.C.

Feddersen,James Kurtzleben,Maurice A. Lee,Susan Rochette-Crawley,2013-10-31 Although the short story has existed in various forms for centuries it has particularly flourished during the last hundred years Reader s Companion to the Short Story in English includes alphabetically arranged entries for 50 English language short story writers from around the world Most of these writers have been active since 1960 and they reflect a wide range of experiences and perspectives in their works Each entry is written by an expert contributor and includes biography a review of existing criticism a lengthier analysis of specific works and a selected bibliography of primary and secondary sources The volume begins with a detailed introduction to the short story genre and concludes with an annotated bibliography of major works on short story theory

Our Very Own Adventure Carolyne Lee,2011-02-15 Our Very Own Adventure demonstrates the main convention of the short story specifically the heightened reader response that Carolyne Lee terms narratorial presence The intensity of the short story encourages readers to appropriate the fictive world as rendered through one or more represented subjectivities in the narrative Lee argues that this narratorial presence is the enabling effect of the tale s telling Each chapter examines a group of stories by authors such as William Faulkner James Joyce Charlotte Perkins Gilman Ray Bradbury and Alice Munro that share basic similarities but where the narratorial presence differs due to differing techniques Our Very Own Adventure reveals just how a story yields its meanings to a reader Sociological Theory in the Classical Era Laura Desfor
