Elder, 2001 Restoring The Future challenges readers to a deeper Easter faith by opening unexpected treasures in the first lesson lectionary passages from Genesis Exodus Samuel the prophets and the book of Acts Drawing upon thoughtfully mined biblical insights and his alert attention to contemporary culture Rob Elder has crafted sermons that not only disclose some unexpected angles of vision on Lent and Easter but also serve as models for preaching on neglected and overlooked texts These are not the usual texts and these are not the expected words for the seasons of Lent and Easter but it is sometimes what we do not expect to see and hear that delights us the most Thomas G Long Bandy Professor of Preaching Candler School of Theology Emory University Some of the best sermons I have heard are from preachers who are not widely known It is grand to have the opportunity to hear from one of those faithful servants who year in and year out feed their parishioners with God's word Diogenes Allen Princeton Theological Seminary This is the kind of preaching that nourishes the church In this volume Rob Elder serves up a full meal of appetizing stories hearty reflections on scripture serious theological convictions and delicious good humor Rob's passion for the Bread of Life is matched only by his quick wit and engaging style Don't miss this great collection of sermons by a fine preacher William G Carter Pastor First Presbyterian Church Clarks Summit Pennsylvania Robert J Elder is currently the pastor of First Presbyterian Church in Salem Oregon He is a graduate of Trinity University San Antonio Texas Princeton Theological Seminary M Div and Drew University Theological School D Min Prior to his arrival in Salem Elder served parishes in Amarillo Texas Port Arthur Texas and Corvallis Oregon He has been active in his denomination including a term as the moderator of the Cascades Presbytery Elder's sermons have also been widely published in preaching periodicals including Lectionary Homiletics where he served for four years on the editorial team      What's in a Word David Winter, 1996-10 For each day from Ash Wednesday to Easter Sunday David Winter considers a single word of Jesus On each Sunday one of the I am sayings of Jesus is considered culminating with I am the resurrection and the life of Easter Sunday For each day the author includes a prayer and questions for reflection and discussion      Hearers of the Word Kieran J O'Mahony, 2021-08-18 The growing hunger for the Word of God is an unexpected development in our time This book sets out to nourish those who desire something deeper and richer than is possible in the usual setting of worship By exploring the

Short Instructions, Or, Meditations on the Gospels for Each Day in Lent Pacificus Baker, 1904 The Lord Is Risen He Is Risen Indeed! He Really Is Richard Sheffield, 1998 Richard Sheffield s preaching is stimulating and unique Whenever I am burdened or under pressure his pithy insights into the Gospel of our Lord refresh my spirit They sometimes also sting my soul to pay attention to more significant things in life than preoccupying problems He is also a courageous preacher when he says things we all think or doubt and dare not to express He handles life s misgivings kindly and cleanly so that listening to him is a religious experience This comes about because he came to the temple of religion through the corridors of commerce and knows the real world of his laymen Under his gentle manner there is the fire of Peter Thomas and St Paul all of whom also preached with integrity and conviction Bryant Kirkland Minister Emeritus Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church New York New York At first glance the Easter title may seem out of place for a book half full of sermons for Lent But Richard Sheffield argues and preaches that the sermon for Easter Day is really the sermon for every day in the life of a Christian The Lord Is Risen is really the only sermon we have or need to have How we live out our lives in response to that central fact of our faith fills the sermons in Lent as well as Easter with hope Hope in the here and now as well as in the hereafter Rev Sheffield has little patience with those who would turn the good news about God into the bad news about us and it shows He writes Belief is more than just ascertaining the facts and figures of faith Or figuring out the best way to keep God happy long enough to get into heaven Belief is living life now certain of the love of God in Jesus Christ for you and me Living life unafraid even of death itself Richard L Sheffield is senior pastor of Market Street Presbyterian Church Lima Ohio He holds a Master of Divinity degree from Princeton Theological Seminary and an M B A degree from the University of Chicago He is a candidate for the Doctor of Ministry degree at Louisville Presbyterian Theological Seminary

Imaging the Gospels Timothy Ayers, 2017 Imagining the Gospels Cycle B Sermons for Lent and Easter Based on the Gospel Texts is the latest from Rev Timothy W Ayers As a pastor who writes his messages while also writing novels children s books and short dramas Rev Ayers found himself working hard to visually create the picture of what was happening in the gospel accounts. Why? These were people listening to Jesus. They would have had emotions about the topics. They would have had little things they recognized when Jesus spoke about lambs, shepherds, and vines. Much like our congregants, there would be nods of recognition toward experiences in their lives. His goal was to get the listener to imagine themselves with their feelings and their reasons for being in church to better use their cognitive skills inside the stories. At other times, Ayers sought to take them on a week-by-week journey through the Easter season. He didn't assume they have a relationship with Christ. He didn't assume they are vibrant serving members of the congregation. He only assumed that the listener is seeking something they do not have. He was attempting to take them one step further on a journey from week to week. At times, Rev. Ayers brings humor to the scene in order to lighten the mood of the listener. The body relaxes when we laugh, and that helps us to hear the message. Imagining the Gospels hopefully will achieve this. This book will make life easier for any busy pastor during the Lent and Easter season by providing a sermon for each and every Sunday when attendance is likely to be at its highest. This book has several intended uses: Sermon ideas, Inspirational reading, Bible study with individuals or groups. Some Sermon Titles Include: Beginning The Lenten Journey, Matthew 6:1-6, 16-21; Tearing The Sky To Get To You, Mark 1:9-15; Did I Say That Out Loud, Mark 8:31-38; Mark 9:2-9; The Road To The Passover, John 2:13-22; A Nod Of Recognition, John 3:14-21. Rev. Timothy W. Ayers recently pastored a small church in western New York. It was his first time working with a smaller body of Christians. After planting churches and working with several larger congregations, he felt the call to minister in a completely different setting. He learned a lot about the limitations of a small congregation. Tim merged two of his past literary mediums of short plays for contemporary churches and children's literature. He combined the styles of his short plays, Living Parables, written to illustrate the Sunday service messages published by CSS Publishing, and his middle reader series, Spinechillers Mysteries. From these two loves came Five Little Christmas Dramas for Today's Kids. It is Ayers' desire that churches around the world can tell this marvelous story of the birth of our Savior through relevant, fun, and easy-to-produce holiday plays.

Whispering the Lyrics, Thomas Long, 1995. Based on texts from the Revised Common and Catholic lectionaries, Thomas Long provides inspirational messages to motivate and help preachers through their most difficult preaching time of the year, the seasons of Lent and Easter. The road to Easter takes us through the most sacred stretch of the gospel story, and the narratives simply overwhelm us. Congregations who blithely assume that their pastor eagerly relishes the chance to preach the passion and resurrection of Jesus are for the most part mistaken. To be sure, the pews are more crowded as Easter approaches, the choirs are well rehearsed and in full voice, and an electric charge courses through the sanctuary, but the preacher stands there with the obligation to proclaim the truths of Jesus' death and resurrection, and it seems at one and the same time to be a set of claims too little to go on in a secular and cynical age, and a range of mysteries too profound to speak from.
