Crisanta Knight: Into the Gray Geanna Culbertson, 2020-10-01 Maybe the gray was not where people went to get lost Maybe it was the perfect place to be reborn For in that gray was the potential to be anything to become anyone Returning to protagonist school had confronted me with a mixed bag of change Some things were good I was a star athlete on my Twenty Three Skidd team my friends and I were closer than ever I'd made amends with my traditionalist headmistress and the surprisingly kind grandson of King Midas was doing his best to win my affection Other changes however were not so sweet The greater realm now knew about my Pure Magic and an upcoming trial by the realm higher ups and Fairy Godmothers would decide my fate My former princess archenemy was under a sleeping curse which meant we couldn't access the vital memories of a dead Fairy Godmother stored in her brain The commons rebellion in our realm was only growing in strength And I Well I'd taken my first life The antagonist queen's careful planning paired with my hard to control powers of life had caused me to snap and kill someone He'd been a villain yes but that didn't placate my morality Especially given the ongoing internal war I struggled with over my abilities and their potential As I fought to be a strong hero princess and more importantly person I was flogged by the many questions posed by enemies friends and my own conscience about how I was changing and what I was changing into Would my magic inevitably corrupt me like the antagonists wanted and our realm's higher ups feared My personal fate aside would my friends and I be able to stop the antagonists from taking over our realm And finally was I more afraid of not being powerful enough to stop them or being even more powerful than anybody anticipated
