

Microsoft Dynamics 365 – Administration

Scenario

Your HR department manages the personnel information of all the sales people working for your company and wants to integrate it with the CRM.

Problem

Existing customer solutions have been rejected since they don't fit the company's HR requirements. The personnel information is not available for other business.

Exercise 1: Data Model

Your HR department has defined the personnel data model as follows:

The structure of the personnel is as follows:

Field	Requirement
Personnel ID	Primary key
First name	Required
Last name	Required
Address	Optional
Phone number	Optional
E-mail address	Optional

As a technical administrator for Dynamics 365, you need to implement the data model according to the personnel information system. What data model solution should you use?
