Sidewalk Stories Wendy K Gray, Kian Ahmadian, 2018-12-16 Long ago the 1982 hailstorm stole Otis Oaktree's courage Will Otis feel safer if he asks Mother Nature to STOP the rain from raining And what will happen if she agrees to do it Oh no Join Bethany Butterfly and friends at The Magical ABC Sidewalk as the search for Otis's courage takes them places only dreamers could imagine In the second Sidewalk Stories adventure they continue to assess and eliminate ideas and Sidewalk paths through creative problem solving With original songs like Stop Think Act and 1982 they will explore alternate ending options in this magical version of the ordinary world Books coloring books audio books and songs Other Sidewalk Stories are The Lemonade Landing Mat and Meet Moby Mutt Visit SidewalkStoriesLives.com 54 pages of vibrant illustrations perfect for classrooms Wendy K Gray is an American Voiceover Actor Singer Songwriter Author and Creator of Sidewalk Stories illustrated by Kate Shannon How Otis Okatree Opened His Eyes written by Wendy K Gray and Kian Ahmadian sidewalkstorieswkg on FB Insta If you enjoy this please leave us a review Sidewalk Story Sharon Bell Mathis, 1986-10-07 Council on Interracial Books for Children award winner From the award winning author of The Hundred Penny Box comes a sweet story about how one girl can make a difference Lilly Etta didn't know the men but she knew those yellow chairs They were Tanya's and they were being taken out of her building Tanya was being put out Tanya her mother her six brothers and sisters Their things would be piled on the sidewalk and left there to be had for the taking It didn't matter if nobody else in the city cared Lilly Etta did She knew what friendship was and she wasn't going to let her friend be thrown out without a fight An affecting sensitive story Booklist Sidewalk Stories Salvo Galano, 2001 Introduction by Jeff Bridges and Afterword by Patrick Markee Galano's moving testimony to the power of the human spirit showcases some of NYC's most remarkable individuals the homeless and their integrity and courage despite the stigma of homelessness Accompanied by mind boggling up to the minute statistics on this dire situation Sidewalk Stories illustrates that homelessness could happen to any of us But as Galano reminds us Homeless does not necessarily mean hopeless With 59 tritone photos I Am a Sidewalk Matt MacGregor, 2015-05-13 Matt wrote this story in 1977 as a sophomore in high school He picked the topic to get points for creativity and improve his chances for a better grade He got a B For him that was a good grade He kept the story in a folder until the mid 1990s when he started to type it up as a short story to put in a magazine He never finished In the back of his mind he wanted it to be a children's book In 2010 Matt asked his old friend Don Huff to help give him pointers Don gave Matt some good ideas and encouraged him to continue He was going to have his sons Collin Dillon and Trevlan illustrate the story They gave him some great ideas This further inspired him to continue His three boys enjoyed the story when it was read to them Maybe they will read it to their children someday As the final writing was being finished Matt's brother Mike sister in law Kathleen nephew Luke brother in law Paul and good friend Kelly made key contributions to the final effort May Matt's spouse patiently let him finish the project in a supportive manner A goal of Matt's is to deliver a copy of this book to his two high school English teachers who graded his English paper Matt learned a lot during the process of turning the original homework assignment into a children s book With the help of Don and others he learned about the power of friendship with patience and persistence to make progress This story is more than just a sidewalk journal It is a reflection on life and speaks to that through the eyes of a sidewalk This story is for all of us not just our children Read it and see what it tells you The City Record Cleveland (Ohio),1916 Sidewalk Tales Arlene Rogers Wilhite,2020-10-29 Sidewalk Tales is a compilations of seventeen short stories about events that happened in my life and were centered around happening on sidewalks I always wanted to write about my life story because I felt that I could help someone who might have gone through some of the hardships I did and to share the joys I had as a child and student coming up in the streets and schools of Los Angeles California This book could have been called porch tales or school tales and even life s tales but Side walk Tales came about as I walk along the sidewalks of San Bernardino California and stumped my toe on a rock that lie on a sidewalk pane I noticed names carved in the cement and became interested in what those names meant Why would anyone write their names in cement particularly across from the San Bernardino train station And as my mind began to create stories about those names I began to wonder about the many times Something had happened to me on a sidewalk and I remember saying if only sidewalks could talk like if the fly on the walk could talk what stories could be told and hence the title of my book came to life What made this slab of cement even more exciting to me is when I mentioned it to one of my step daughters and found out that she and her sister knew the guys whose names were engraved in that cement I knew then it was a sign for me to sit down and write my book I had found my approach because I didn t want to write an autobiography or a wellness book but I wanted to write about my life in a way that was for anyone to understand and with the hopes that it would heal someone This book has been healing for me as a writer who experienced growth from each story held deep within me but I knew it was only through telling my stories would that my healing would come a self healing with a spiritual guidance of some sort and I hope that it is a portal to someone else s wellness for whatever reason is needed "A Study Guide for Ed McBain's "'On the Sidewalk Bleeding'"' Gale, Cengage,2018-12-13 A Study Guide for Ed McBain s On the Sidewalk Bleeding excerpted from Gale s acclaimed Short Stories for Students This concise study guide includes plot summary character analysis author biography study questions historical context suggestions for further reading and much more For any literature project trust Short Stories for Students for all of your research needs Sidewalk Mitchell Duneier,1999 Presents the lives of poor African American men who make their subsistence wages by selling used goods on the streets of Greenwich Village in New York and discusses how they interact with passing pedestrians police officers and each other Sexuality, Disability, and Aging Jane Gallop,2018-12-13 Drawing on her own experiences with late onset disability and its impact on her sex life along with her expertise as a cultural critic Jane Gallop explores how disability and aging work to undermine one s sense of self She challenges common conceptions that equate the decline of bodily potential and ability with a permanent and irretrievable loss arguing that such a loss can be both temporary and positively transformative With Sexuality Disability and Aging Gallop explores and celebrates how sexuality transforms and becomes more queer in the lives of the no longer young and the no longer able while at the same time demonstrating how disability can generate new forms of sexual fantasy and erotic possibility

A Smarter Toronto Bob Hanke, 2024-02-19 This book bridges media technocultural urban and journalism studies to examine the role of journalism in relation to a smart city project on Toronto's waterfront From the announcement of the public private partnership called Sidewalk Toronto to the project's termination a mediatized controversy unfolded Through an assemblage approach to this project and a case study of The Globe and Mail and the Toronto Star it follows the actors and chronicles the Quayside project story as a conversation about the promise and perils of a future smart neighbourhood In the news of Waterfront Toronto Sidewalk Labs other actors events and developments there were multiple voices and views interpretations and arguments that manifested conflicting interests and values As a locally situated actor journalism produced a porous discourse that expressed a propose and public pushback movement This work of articulating mediation conditioned the project's alteration and dissolution within asymmetrical relations of power In addition to a wave of opposition that inflected the project's enactment a time lag between project time and governmental policymaking made the controversy over this future urban space intractable With their residual symbolic power quality journalism contributed to dialogical urban learning

Sideways Josh O'Kane, 2024-11-12 From the tech reporter who most closely pursued the Sidewalk Labs fiasco in Toronto an uncompromising look into what the Google sister company's failure in urban development reveals about Big Tech data and the monetization of everything When former New York deputy mayor Dan Doctoroff landed in Toronto promising a revolution in better living through technology the locals were starstruck In 2017 a small parcel of land on the city's underdeveloped lakeshore was available for development and with Google co founder Larry Page and chairman Eric Schmidt leaning into Sidewalk Labs pitch for the long forsaken property with Doctoroff as the urban planning company's CEO Sidewalk's bid crushed the competition But as soon as the bid was won cracks appeared in the partnership between Doctoroff's team and Waterfront Toronto the government sponsored organization behind the contest Hundreds more acres of undeveloped former port lands kept creeping into Sidewalk's plans and questions were emerging about how much the public would benefit from the company's vision for a high tech neighbourhood and the data it could harvest from residents The ensuing fight to reel in the power of Sidewalk Labs became a crucible moment for the worldwide battle for digital rights and against the extension of a digital behemoth's corporate might into the physical world In the tradition of boardroom dramas like Bad Blood and Super Pumped Sideways signals to the world that all may not be lost in the effort to contain the rapidly growing power of Big Tech
