Antipodean Antiquities Marguerite Johnson, 2019-03-21 Leading and emerging early career scholars in Classical Reception Studies come together in this volume to explore the under represented area of the Australasian Classical Tradition. They interrogate the interactions between Mediterranean Antiquity and the antipodean worlds of New Zealand and Australia through the lenses of literature, film, theatre and fine art. Of interest to scholars across the globe who research the influence of antiquity on modern literature, film, theatre and fine art, this volume fills a decisive gap in the literature by bringing antipodean research into the spotlight. Following a contextual introduction to the field, the six parts of the volume explore the latest research on subjects that range from the Lord of the Rings and Xena Warrior Princess franchises to important artists such as Sidney Nolan and local authors whose work offers opportunities for cross cultural and interdisciplinary analysis with well known Western authors and artists.

Australia's Empire Deryck Marshall Schreuder, Stuart Ward, 2008-02-07 Australia's Empire is the first collaborative evaluation of Australia's imperial experience in more than a generation. Bringing together political, cultural and aboriginal understandings of the past, it argues that the legacies of empire continue to influence the fabric of modern Australian society.

Cynthia Nolan M. E. McGuire, 2018-11-01 Cynthia Reed, single mother, psychiatric nurse, novelist and connoisseur, married Sidney Nolan in Sydney in 1948. England served as their home base from 1953 till her death in 1976. Territory charted in her four travel books, this biography is drawn from her books in depth and from her intimate letters to her brother John and his wife Sunday Reed between 1927 when she was nineteen and 1944 when their correspondence ceased. Her unpopularity in Australia in the sixties is accounted for, and the stereotypes of the envious sister-in-law, the mad artist's wife and the nihilistic suicide dismantled.

Constructions of Colonialism Ian J. McNiven, 1999-01-01 One of the most famous shipwreck sagas of the 19th century took place on the tropical coast of north east Australia. In 1836 the Stirling Castle was wrecked off the Queensland coast and many of the crew together with the captain's wife Eliza Fraser were marooned on Fraser Island. Early sensationalized accounts represent Mrs Fraser as an innocent white victim of colonialism and her Aboriginal captors as barbarous savages. These first contact narratives of the white woman and her Aboriginal captors impacted significantly on England and the politics of Empire at an early stage in Australia's colonial history. The text critically examines the Eliza Fraser episode by bringing together an interdisciplinary team of authors, artists, members of the Fraser Island Aboriginal community and academics in the areas of cultural and women's studies, literature, history, anthropology, archaeology, the visual and creative arts. This book's essays include feminist analyses of the incident, investigations of textual and visual representations of Aboriginal people and considerations of the role played by Eliza Fraser as creative inspiration for the arts. The text explores the constructions of Empire, colonialism, identity, femininity, savagery, otherness, captivity and survival.

The Temptation of Paul Hindemith Siglind Bruhn, 1998 Focuses on the five tiered representational structure in which the hermit's conflict and vindication present themselves through Hindemith's opera. Bruhn argues that the opera presents something akin to a confession of the composer's inner conflicts and his decision not to become involved in the Nazi confrontation Three sections discuss the dilemma of social responsibility vs the eremitic quest in the lives of Saint Antony of Egypt the fictional painter Mathis and Paul Hindemith hermits anchorites and ascetics as portrayed in literature art and music and the form content and interpretation of Mathis der Maler Appendices include synopses and translations of several operas by Hindemith Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR
