Sieger Tribunal:

Das Sieger-Tribunal: Nürnberg 1945/46 dreissig Jahre danach, 1976 Victors' Justice Danilo Zolo, 2020-01-28

Victors Justice is a potent and articulate polemic against the manipulation of international penal law by the West combining historical detail juridical precision and philosophical analysis Zolo's key thesis is that contemporary international law functions as a two track system a made to measure law for the hegemon and their allies on the one hand and a punitive regime for the losers and the disadvantaged on the other Though it constantly advertised its impartiality and universalism international law served to bolster and legitimize ever since the Tokyo and Nuremberg trials a fundamentally unilateral and unequal international order International Bibliography Of Jewish Affairs, 1976-1977 Elizabeth E. Eppler, 2019-04-03 This bibliography a project of is intended as an aid to research on and cultural aspects of contemporary ship between Jews and the non Jewish material published in 1976 and 1977 the Institute of Jewish Affairs the historical social political Jewish life and on the relationworld The present volume covers The Bibliography includes primarily nonfiction works published outside Israel by both Jewish and non Jewish authors it excludes belles lettres with the exception of documentary novels and memoirs and religious studies Entries are arranged by subject with cross references wherever applicable a cumulative index of names and a list of periodicals are provided at the end of the volume Jews, Germans, Memory Y. Michal Bodemann, 2025-10-01

How was it possible that a new and sizeable Jewish community developed after the Holocaust in Germany of all places Jews Germans Memory undertakes to assess the past present and future of German Jewish relations in the light of recent political changes and the opening up of historical resources This welcome new volume investigates how the groundwork was laid for the new Jewish community in the post war period with different objectives by Jewish leaders and German politicians Its contributors touch upon history literature the media ethnicity politics and social movements and attempt to answer the question of how Jews are socially constructed and how the glorious German Jewish past and the Holocaust have been remembered in the course of recent decades In recent years German Jewry has seen fundamental transformations with the influx from Eastern Europe and a new leadership in the community A new self definition even self assurance and reappraisal in Israel and elsewhere has evolved Historians scholars of cultural studies and those interested in debates on memory and ethnicity will all find something of interest in this diverse volume Jews Germans Memory joins in debate Michael Brenner Micha Brumlik Dan Diner Cilly Kugelmann and Martin L w Beer among the most prominent younger Jewish intellectuals in Germany today with others who have long observed Germany from both inside and outside Y Michal Bodemann John Borneman Andrei Markovits Robin Ostrow Moishe Postone Frank Stern and Jack Zipes Y Michal Bodemann is Professor of Sociology University of Toronto Reassessing the Nuremberg Military Tribunals Kim Christian Priemel, Alexa Stiller, 2012 For decades the history of the US Military Tribunals at Nuremberg NMT has been eclipsed by the first Nuremberg trial the International Military Tribunal or IMT The dominant interpretation neatly summarized in the ubiquitous formula of Subsequent Trials ignores the unique historical and legal character of the NMT trials which differed significantly from that of their predecessor. The NMT trials marked a decisive shift both in terms of analysis of the Third Reich and conceptualization of international criminal law. This volume is the first comprehensive examination of the NMT and brings together diverse perspectives from the fields of law, history and political science exploring the genesis, impact and legacy of the twelve Military Tribunals held at Nuremberg between 1946 and 1949. Trials of War Criminals Before the Nuremberg Military Tribunals Under Control Council Law No. 10, Nuernberg, October 1946-April 1949 International Military Tribunal, 1949. The Execution of Illegal Orders and International Criminal Responsibility Hiromi Sato, 2011-02-16. The legal consequence of the superior orders defense has long been debated as one of the major problems in international criminal law. Several controversial issues such as the immunity of the state, the absolute character of military discipline and immunity on the grounds of mistake of law and or coercion have been complexly interwoven in the debates. The Execution of Illegal Orders and International Criminal Responsibility provides a comprehensive portrait of the relevant debates at the international level up to the present, analyzes the conflicting views and shows the significance of the development of international rules for the superior orders defense as well as the implication of the fact that issues concerning some detailed or related rules have been left unresolved. This study presents to present a new standpoint not only on dealing with the problem of the superior orders defense but also on reconsidering the international stipulation of rulemaking with regard to criminal matters. The Reparation System of the International Criminal Court Eva Dwertmann, 2010-03-02. When the Rome Statute for the International Criminal Court was adopted in 1998 one of its great innovations was that victims were granted an active role in the proceedings. In its early jurisprudence on victims' rights the International Criminal Court stated that the success of the Court is to some extent linked to the success of its reparation system. This book is among the first to focus on the International Criminal Court's power to order reparations to victims. It provides a comprehensive analysis of the legal framework of the reparation system taking into account relevant Court decisions. Possibilities for its implementation are drawn up providing potential solutions for its multiple challenges including the distinct asymmetry between the individualized responsibility to provide reparations and the collective nature of the crimes and its consequences. With its practical approach this book is particularly valuable for practitioners but also for students and researchers. Trials of War Criminals Before the Nuernberg Military Tribunals Under Control Council Law No. 10, Nuremberg, October 1946-April, 1949: Case 5: U.S. v. Flick (Flick case), 1949. Pennsylvania State Reports Pennsylvania. Supreme Court, 1905. Containing cases decided by the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania varies. New York, 2003. The Birth of the New Justice Mark Lewis, 2014-02-13. Until 1919 European wars were settled without post war trials and individuals were not punishable under international law. After World War One European jurists at the Paris Peace Conference developed new concepts of international justice to deal with violations of the laws of war. Though these were not implemented for political reasons later jurists applied these ideas to other problems writing new laws and proposing various types of courts to maintain the post World War One political order They also aimed to enhance internal state security address states failures to respect minority rights or rectify irregularities in war crimes trials after World War Two The Birth of the New Justice shows that legal organizations were not merely interested in ensuring that the guilty were punished or that international peace was assured They hoped to instill particular moral values represent the interests of certain social groups and even pursue national agendas When jurists had to scale back their projects it was not only because state governments opposed them It was also because they lacked political connections and did not build public support for their ideas In some cases they decided that compromises were better than nothing Rather than arguing that new legal projects were spearheaded by state governments motivated by liberal legalism Mark Lewis shows that legal organizations had a broad range of ideological motives liberal conservative utopian humanitarian nationalist and particularist The International Law Association the International Association of Penal Law the World Jewish Congress and the International Committee of the Red Cross transformed the concept of international violation to deal with new political and moral problems They repeatedly altered the purpose of an international criminal court sometimes dropping it altogether when national courts seemed more pragmatic

The Politics of International Criminal Justice Ronen Steinke, 2012-05-25 To anyone setting out to explore the entanglement of international criminal justice with the interests of States Germany is a particularly curious exemplary case Although a liberal democracy since 1949 its political position has altered radically in the last 60 years Starting from a position of harsh scepticism in the years following the Nuremberg Trials and opening up to the rationales of international criminal justice only slowly and then mainly in the context of domestic trials against functionaries of the former East German regime after 1990 Germany is today one of the most active supporters of the International Criminal Court The climax of this is its campaigning to make the ICC independent of the UN Security Council a debate in which Germany took a position in stark contrast to the United States This book offers new insight into the debates leading up to such policy shifts Drawing on government documents and interviews with policymakers it enriches a broader debate on the politics of international criminal justice which has to date often been focused primarily on the United States Democracy, Nazi Trials and Transitional Justice in Germany, 1945-1950 Devin O. Pendas, 2020-09-24 Revising our understanding about how transitional justice works this study analyses and compares Nazi trials in post war East and West Germany from 1945 to 1950 to challenge assumptions about the political outcomes of prosecuting mass atrocities Kriegsverbrechen der alliierten Siegermächte Pit Pietersen, 2006 Truth Claims Mark Bradley, Patrice Petro, 2002 Exhibiting Terror Lindsay French

Jurisprudence générale Victor Alexis Désiré Dalloz, 1869 Field Marshal Von Manstein Marcel Stein, 2007-02 Most military historians are in agreement that Feldmarschall Erich von Manstein was the most outstanding German high commander of the Second World War Many view him as the foremost exponent of large scale mobile operations in any of the Second World War armies Surprisingly no biography of him has yet been written To this day his family refuses to release the papers of his estate to the German military archives at Freiburg Furthermore the contradictions in the personality of von Manstein make it difficult to generate a synthesis On one side there is an extraordinary military talent on the other many political and moral aspects His military achievements stand in sharp contrast to his inhumane policy of occupation in Russia his active participation in the slaughter of Jews in Southern Ukraine and the Crimea and his ambivalent attitude to the military resistance movement These contradictions have led the author to describe Manstein as the Janushead the term chosen for the title of the book He has not written a traditional biography but a portrait A complete account of all phases of Mansteins career is given in one chapter seven more chapters deal extensively with milestones in Mansteins career his successful plan for the battle of France which led to the defeat of the French Army in less than one month his dereliction of duty during the battle for Stalingrad his hubris which led to the disaster of the battle for Kursk his refusal to take part in the military resistance movement his compliance with the Commissar order and his involvement in the Holocaust he author has widened the subject well beyond the personality of its central figure It shows how the Nazi system step by step succeeded in perverting the centuries old traditions of the Prussian and German officer corps Speer Martin Kitchen,2015-10-28 Sets the record straight on Albert Speer s assertions of ignorance of the Final Solution and claims to being the good Nazi Kirkus Reviews In his bestselling autobiography Albert Speer Minister of Armaments and chief architect of Nazi Germany repeatedly insisted he knew nothing of the genocidal crimes of Hitler s Third Reich In this revealing new biography author Martin Kitchen disputes Speer s lifelong assertions of ignorance and innocence portraying a far darker figure who was deeply implicated in the appalling crimes committed by the regime he served so well Kitchen reconstructs Speer s life with what we now know including information from valuable new sources that have come to light only in recent years The result is the first truly serious accounting of the man his beliefs and his actions during one of the darkest epochs in modern history not only countering Speer s claims of non culpability but also disputing the commonly held misconception that it was his unique genius alone that kept the German military armed and fighting long after its defeat was inevitable A devastating portrait of an empty narcissistic and compulsively ambitious personality The Wall Street Journal Kitchen s exhaustively researched detailed book nails one by one the lies of the man who provided a thick coat of whitewash to millions of old Nazis Its fascinating account of how the moral degradation of the chaotic Nazi regime corrupted an entire nation is a timely warning for today Daily Mail Book of the Month An excellent new biography Kitchen has taken a wrecking ball to Speer s mendacious and meticulously created self image And about time too History Today Himmler's Diary 1945: A Calendar of Events Leading to Suicide Stephen Tyas,Peter Witte,2014-03-24 Himmler s Diary 1945 A Calendar of Events Leading to Suicide is an exceptional work with unpublished diary entries made by Himmler that shows in detail how The Third Reich fell to ruin in its final bloody year Reichsfuhrer SS Heinrich Himmler was instigator of the largest programme of racial mass murder in history

1 January 1945 saw Heinrich Himmler at his peak in Nazi Germany controlling the entire German police force including the Gestapo all SS organisations and Nazi Minister of the Interior His powers extended into the German Army and included Commander of the Replacement Army and two Army Groups Two field commands revealed his limitations and failure as army commander Between January and May 1945 Heinrich Himmler vacillated showing a lack of vision action and decision At least he was able to gain control of V 2 rocket production and their launch against Britain He ordered all concentration camp inmates be shot before rescinding the order When his SS generals asked for instructions Himmler ordered them to show backbone as their commands had few bounds The Swedes and Swiss negotiated with Himmler who allowed over 10 000 concentration camp prisoners taken to safety before Hitler intervened Himmler conducted peace feelers via the Swedes before the German surrender in May 1945 while trying to make contact with British Field Marshal Montgomery These contacts went unanswered Himmler was captured by the British and then committed suicide on 23 May 1945
