working at the BBC in wartime at a bookshop in Suffolk at an eccentric stage school in the 1960s while her later books open out into historical worlds that she magically seems to entirely possess Russia before the Revolution postwar Italy Germany in the time of the Romantic writer Novalis Fitzgerald's novels are short spare masterpieces and Hermione Lee unfurls them here as works of genius Expertly researched written out of love and admiration for this wonderful author's work Penelope Fitzgerald is literary biography at its finest an unforgettable story of lateness persistence and survival Myth Making in the Soviet Union and Modern Russia Vicky Davis, 2017-11-30 The 1943 battle to free the Soviet Black Sea port of Novorossiisk from German occupation was fought from the beach head of Malaia zemlia where the young Colonel Leonid Brezhnev saw action Despite widespread scepticism of the state's appropriation and inflation of this historical event the heroes of the campaign are still commemorated in Novorossiisk today by an amalgam of memoir monuments and ritual Through the prism of this provincial Russian town Vicky Davis sheds light on the character of Brezhnev as perceived by his people and on the process of memory for the ordinary Russian citizen Davis analyses the construction and propagation of the local war myth to link the individual citizens of Novorossiisk with evolving state policy since World War II and examines the resultant social and political connotations Her compelling new interdisciplinary evidence reveals the complexity of myth and memory challenging existing assumptions to show that there is still scope for the local community and even the individual in memory construction in an authoritarian environment This book represents a much needed departure from the study of myth and memory in larger cities of the former Soviet Union adding nuance to the existing portrait of Brezhnev and demonstrating the continued importance of war memory in Russia today Paperbound Books in Print, 1991 The Death of Rural England Alun Howkins, 2003-09-02 Alun Howkins panoramic survey is a social history of rural England and Wales in the twentieth century He examines the impact of the First World War the role of agriculture throughout the century and the expectations of the countryside that modern urban people harbour Howkins analyzes the role of rural England as a place for work as well as leisure and the problems caused by these often conflicting roles This overview will be welcomed by anyone interested in agricultural and social history historical geographers and all those interested in rural affairs P.J. & A.E.
