Minority Religions and Fraud Amanda van Eck Duymaer van Twist,2016-04-22 Analysing both fraud and religion as social constructs with different functions and meanings attributed to them this book raises issues that are central to debates about the limits of religious toleration in diverse societies and the possible harm as well as benefits that religious organisations can visit upon society and individuals There has already been a lively debate concerning the structural context in which abuse especially sexual abuse can be perpetrated within religion Contributors to the volume proceed from the premise that similar arguments about ways in which structure and power may be conducive to abuse can be made about fraud and deception Both can contribute to abuse yet they are often less easily demonstrated and proven hence less easily prosecuted With a focus on minority religions the book offers a comparative overview of the concept of religious fraud by bringing together analyses of different types of fraud or deception financial bio medical emotional breach of trust and consent Contributors examine whether fraud is necessarily intentional or whether that is in the eye of the beholder certain structures may be more conducive to fraud

Makley, 2018-07-20 For thousands of years the Washoe people have lived in the shadows of the Sierra Nevada Mountains At the center of their lands sits beautiful Lake Tahoe a name derived from the Washoe word Da ow a ga Perhaps because the Washoe population has always been small or because it has been more peaceful than other tribal communities its history has never been published In The Small Shall Be Strong Matthew S Makley demonstrates that in spite of this lack of scholarly attention Washoe history is replete with broad significance The Washoes for example gained culturally important lands through the 1887 Dawes Act And during the 1990s the tribe sought to ban climbing on one of its most sacred sites Cave Rock a singular instance of Native sacred concerns leading to restrictions The Small Shall Be Strong illustrates a history and raises a broad question How might greater scholarly attention to the numerous lesser studied tribes in the United States compel a rethinking of larger historical narratives The Track in the Forest Bob Burns, 2018-10-02 The 1968 US men s Olympic track and field team won 12 gold medals and set six world records at the Mexico City Games one of the most dominant performances in Olympic history The team featured such legends as Tommie Smith Bob Beamon Al Oerter and Dick Fosbury Fifty years later the team is mostly remembered for embodying the tumultuous social and racial climate of 1968 The Black Power protest of Tommie Smith and John Carlos on the victory stand in Mexico City remains one of the most enduring images of the 1960s Less known is the role that a 400 meter track carved out of the Eldorado National Forest above Lake Tahoe played in molding that juggernaut To acclimate US athletes for the 7 300 foot elevation of Mexico City the US Olympic Committee held a two month training camp and final Olympic selection meet for the ages at Echo Summit near the California Nevada border Never has a sporting event of such consequence been held in such an ethereal setting On a track in which hundreds of trees were left standing on the infield to minimize the environmental impact four world records fell more than have been set at any US meet since including the 1984 and 1996 Olympics But the road to Echo Summit was tortuous the Vietnam War was raging Martin Luther King Jr and Robert Kennedy were assassinated and a group of athletes based out of San Jose State had been threatening to boycott the Mexico City Games to protest racial injustice Informed by dozens of interviews by longtime sports journalist and track enthusiast Bob Burns this is the story of how in one of the most divisive years in American history a California mountaintop provided an incomparable group of Americans shelter from the storm

The Californios Hunt Janin, Ursula Carlson, 2017-12-14 Before the Gold Rush of 1848 1858 Alta Upper California was an isolated cattle frontier and home to a colorful group of Spanish speaking non indigenous people known as Californios Profiting from the forced labor of large numbers of local Indians they carved out an almost feudal way of life raising cattle along the California coast and valleys Visitors described them as a good looking vibrant improvident people Many traces of their culture remain in California Yet their prosperity rested entirely on undisputed ownership of large ranches As they lost control of these in the wake of the Mexican War they lost their high status and many were reduced to subsistence level jobs or fell into abject poverty Drawing on firsthand contemporary
