Looking At Iran:

Iran Looking East Annalisa Perteghella, 2020-01-12 In February 2018 anticipating the US withdrawal from the JCPOA Iran's Supreme Leader Ayatollah Ali Khamenei declared a policy of preferring East over West thus paving the way for deeper cooperation with Asian powers such as China Russia and India Differently from the Look East policy promoted during the presidency of Ahmadinejad 2005-2013 the current Iranian strategy is not only functional to escape the US led isolation but it rather seems devoted to the consolidation of a block of power which can commit to security and economic schemes in alternative to the Western dominated ones This ISPI report aims to answer few crucial questions Which are the major initiatives promoted within Iran's Look East 2020 strategy To what extent will Tehran succeed in creating a solid Eastern block What will be the influence of the wider geopolitical context And finally what role is left for the EU Through the Looking Glass Anu Sharma, 2022-01-31 This book analyses Iran's foreign policy in order to better assess its relations with India and the factors that are propelling the two nations closer In a region susceptible to power plays how far can India Iran partnership go This book will be of interest to scholars of International Relations Iranian Politics and Iranian Foreign Policy Please note Taylor Francis does not sell or distribute the Hardback in India Pakistan Nepal Bhutan Bangladesh and Sri Lanka

Congress. Senate. Committee on Governmental Affairs. Subcommittee on International Security, Proliferation, and Federal Services,2001 Iran and China Shirzad Azad,2017-02-09 Because of their historical roles and politico economic significance in contemporary international politics Iran and China have perpetually been in the crosshairs of both policy circles and interested observers in almost every other part of the world Crucial interactions touching upon any aspect of Tehran Beijing ties from diplomatic and military links to economic and cultural connections have especially been in the limelight of such riveting inquisitiveness which has often given rise to a flurry of rash comments sensational claims and impetuous conclusions But a detached probe into critical developments involving Iran and China however elucidates this rather inconvenient eventuality that the relations between the two important countries are not essentially based on pivotal principles and clear cut commitments nor do their ties really rest on tenuous thoughts and flimsy foundations devoid of any common interests in short term or well conceived objectives in long run In the same way the two political systems in Tehran and Beijing may ultimately end up each contributing to a separate pole of power regionally and internationally rather than moving faithfully and steadfastly in lockstep with what it requires them to truly materialize their more recent aspiration and design to move toward achieving a very close strategic partnership
