Reflections of a Mad, Mad World Michael Jean Nystrom-Schut, 2005-05-23 TRILOGY BOOK FOUR includes three recent books from my twenty years of writing Being a philosophical book writer dealing with world view and value systems I get to take time doing something that is considered the work of men of leisure While it may not be the toughest of jobs I assure you that most days I am worn out from just thinking about it And can I conclude anything yet Sometimes I think I am going in reverse Reflections of a Mad Mad World is the title of the book and it is the headline work followed by two more books Remaking Michael and Forty Songs All three were written with you the reader and fellow life mate in mind If you wonder about the madness and chaos that in the world today and what you can do about it maybe you will benefit from reading Reflections of a Mad Mad World Book One This work addresses the nutty whacky world in which we live and suggests ways to cope If you are trying to turn over a new leaf and need some insight and direction then Remaking Michael Book Two might be for you In my personal travels through life I have been remade over and over again its fun There are always two sides to every coin My book Forty Songs takes on 20 negative points of view and counterbalances them with 20 more points that are positive You be the judge as you weigh the evidence when the matter of Life itself is placed on trial I am hopeful that this three books in one volume will be rewarding and beneficial for you On my web site HowISeeTheWorld.com questions and answers about Life that continue to crop up in the human mind are addressed Come to the site and see what I am talking about

Global Percussion Innovations Louise Devenish, 2018-09-03 First emerging in North America and Europe in the late 1920s contemporary percussion practices have transitioned from the fringes of contemporary music to the forefront over the past 90 years In the 1960s contemporary percussion practices reached Australian shores and a new generation of artists added their voices to this narrative The role of Australian activity is not yet embedded in the wider narrative of international contemporary percussion nor is the significance of developments in contemporary percussion practices fully realised in the context of Australian music history In this monograph political social and cultural influences on this art form will be examined for the first time in a historical survey of contemporary percussion music in Australia over a 50 year period from 1960 to 2010 The rise of the percussion ensemble in the twentieth century to a standard chamber music ensemble is now recognised as one of the major advances in western art music practice internationally A focus will be placed on ensemble activity via definitive documentation and analysis of ensembles that are amongst the most pioneering and longest established of Australian contemporary music organisations including the Australian Percussion Ensemble Synergy Percussion Adelaide Percussions Nova Ensemble Tetrafide Percussion Taikoz Clocked Out and Speak Percussion amongst others Closing with a discussion of influences and identity this historical narrative will expand our understanding of the impact of Australian contributions to the international contemporary music scene while simultaneously examining how developments in contemporary percussion have contributed to Australia's cultural identity
