Muslim Peoples A World Ethnographic Survey V 1:

Muslim peoples : a world ethnographic survey. 1. Acehnese-Lur Richard V. Weekes,1984 The Muslim Majority Robin Hadaway,2021-09-15 More than 70 percent of Muslims worldwide practice folk Islam a syncretistic mix of theologically orthodox Islam and traditional religious beliefs and practices The Muslim Majority is unlike many published works on evangelism to Muslims which argue for either apologetic or contextualized bridge approaches These approaches are often ineffective in reaching adherents of popular Islam Instead author and missiologist Robin Hadaway outlines a contextual approach that addresses the unique perspective of popular Islam Hadaway explains the differences between folk Islam and orthodox Islam and explores best practices for reaching the vast majority of Muslims with the gospel of Jesus Christ

Russia's Muslim Frontiers Dale F. Eickelman,1993-10-22 Readers will find fresh and thought provoking studies the differing approaches of the U S and the former Soviet Union to Middle East policy Central Asia and South Asia provide grounds for self criticism and the exploration of new directions John L Esposito recommended highly for its expert analyses of political Islam Journal of Third World Studies Russian Central Asian and American scholars appraise recent political and religious developments among Russia s Muslim neighbors

Religious Minorities in Iran Eliz Sanasarian,2000-04-13 Eliz Sanasarian s book explores the political and ideological relationship between non Muslim religious minorities in Iran and the state during the formative years of the Islamic Republic to the present day Her analysis is based on a detailed examination of the history and experiences of the Armenians Assyrians Chaldeans Jews Zoroastrians Bahais and Iranian Christians and describes how these communities have responded to state policies regarding minorities Many of her findings are constructed out of personal interviews with members of these communities While the book is essentially an empirical study it also highlights more general questions associated with exclusion and marginalization and the role of the state in defining these boundaries This is an important and original book which will make a significant contribution to the literature on minorities and to the workings of the Islamic Republic

Guests of God Robert Bianchi,2008-03-25 Each year about two million pilgrims from over 100 countries converge on the Islamic holy city of Mecca for the hajj While the hajj is first and foremost a religious festival it is also very much a political event No government can resist the temptation to manipulate the hajj for political and economic gain Every large Muslim state has developed a comprehensive hajj policy and a powerful bureaucracy to enforce it The Muslim world s leading multinational organization the Organization of the Islamic Conference has established the first international regime explicitly devoted to pilgrimage Yet Robert Bianchi argues no secular or religious authority national or international can really control the hajj State sponsored pilgrimage management consistently backfires giving government opponents valuable ammunition and allowing them to manipulate the symbols and controversies of the hajj to their own ends Bianchi has been researching the hajj for over ten years and draws on interviews with and data from hajj directors in five Muslim countries Pakistan Malaysia Turkey Indonesia and Nigeria statistics from Saudi Arabian hajj authorities as well as his personal experience as a pilgrim The result is the most complete picture of the hajj available anywhere and a wide ranging work on Islam politics and power Islamic Family Law in a Changing World ‘Abd Allāh Aḥmad Na‘īm, 2002-08 In Islamic Family Law in a Changing World Abdullahi A An Na im explores the practice of the Shari a commonly known as Islamic Family Law An Na im shows that the practical application of Shari a principles is often modified by theological differences of interpretation a country s particular customary practices and state policy and law Morocco, a Country Study Harold D. The Black Eunuchs of the Ottoman Empire George H. Junne, 2016-06-22 The Chief Black Eunuch appointed personally by the Sultan had both the ear of the leader of a vast Islamic Empire and held power over a network of spies and informers including eunuchs and slaves throughout Constantinople and beyond The story of these remarkable individuals who rose from difficult beginnings to become amongst the most powerful people in the Ottoman Empire is rarely told George Junne places their stories in the context of the wider history of African slavery and places them at the centre of Ottoman history The Black Eunuchs of the Ottoman Empire marks a new direction in the study of courtly politics and power in Constantinople The Languages and Linguistics of Africa Tom Güldemann, 2018-09-10 This innovative handbook takes a fresh look at the currently underestimated linguistic diversity of Africa the continent with the largest number of languages in the world It covers the major domains of linguistics offering both a representative picture of Africa s linguistic landscape as well as new and at times unconventional perspectives The focus is not so much on exhaustiveness as on the fruitful relationship between African and general linguistics and the contributions the two domains can make to each other This volume is thus intended for readers with a specific interest in African languages and also for students and scholars within the greater discipline of linguistics Space, Region & Society: Geographical Essays in Honor of Robert H. Stoddard Michael Hill, 2016-09-20 These geographical essays are dedicated to Dr Robert H Stoddard in honor of his many years of exemplary service to the people of Nebraska the world and the discipline of geography Dr Stoddard has taught at Nebraska Wesleyan University and the University of Nebraska Lincoln and in India Nepal and Sri Lanka Essays in this volume have been contributed by Michael R Hill Carl Ritter Nainie Lenora Robertson Stoddard Thomas Doering Steve Kale Carolyn V Prorok and Surinder M Bhardwaj The book includes Dr Stoddard s essay Regionalization and Regionalism in Sri Lanka as well as a bibliography of his writings and professional papers a chronology of publications and papers presented and a list of dissertations and thesis supervised Religious Perspectives in Modern Muslim and Jewish Literatures Glenda Abramson, Hilary Kilpatrick, 2006 This book brings together fascinating discussions of the way in which Muslim and Jewish beliefs and practices are represented in modern literary texts of poetry fiction and drama The chapters collected here consider elements of the expression of Judaism and Islam in modern literature Key topics such as religious ideas and teachings aspects of mysticism the tenets of religion uses made of sacred texts religion and popular culture and reflections of religious controversies are covered While there is an embodied comparative element to the chapters the essays are not confined by comparisons and cover a wide range of the literary expression of religious issues With contributions from a group of international scholars all of whom are experts in the field and each of whom has brought a particular perspective to the topic this book is a significant contribution to and will stimulate further research on the various literatures treated reflection on comparative work on these two cultural traditions and new interest in literary expressions of religion and religiousness in general

Between Integration and Secession Moshe Yegar, 2002-01-01 Between Integration and Secession asks whether Muslim minorities can co exist with the majority and other cultures within non Muslim states Moshe Yegar s excellent new work examines the radicalization of Muslim communities during the nationalist fervor that swept southeast Asia in the aftermath of World War II The book s grand historical scope traces the theological and political impact of the postwar Islamic renaissance on the creation of Muslim separatist tendencies and heightened religious consciousness Drawing on a wealth of archival and secondary sources Yegar examines three cases of rebellion in Muslim minorities in the Philippines in Thailand and in Burma Myanmar He studies the communities struggle to define their aims be it for communal separation autonomy or independence and the means each has at their disposal to achieve them The Bosnian Muslims Francine Friedman, 2018-10-08 Although their plight now dominates television news worldwide the Bosnian Muslims were until recently virtually unknown outside of Yugoslavia This meticulously researched comprehensive book traces the turbulent history of the Bosnian Muslims and shows how their mixed secular and religious identity has shaped the conflict in which they are now so tragically embroiled Although their plight now dominates television news worldwide the Bosnian Muslims were until recently virtually unknown outside of Yugoslavia Who are these people Why are they the focus of their former neighbors rage What role did they play in Yugoslavia before they became the victims of ethnic cleansing Why has Bosnia Hercegovina once a model of ethnic tolerance and multicultural harmony suddenly exploded into ethnic violence Focusing on these questions Friedman provides a comprehensive study of this national group whose plight has riveted governments the press and the public alike With a name reflecting both their religious and their national identity the Bosnian Muslims are unique in Europe as indigenous Slavic Muslims Descendants of schismatic Christians from the Middle Ages they converted to Islam after the Ottoman conquest of Bosnia The book follows them as they went from victims of crusades during the Middle Ages to members of the ruling elite within the Ottoman Empire from rulers back to subjects under Austria Hungary and later subjects again this time under the Serbs in the interwar Yugoslav Kingdom and the Communists after World War II The Bosnian Muslims have survived through it all even thriving during certain periods most notably when they were recognized by Tito as a nation Meticulously tracing their turbulent history and assessing the issues surrounding Bosnian Muslim nationhood in Yugoslavia Friedman shows us how the mixed secular and religious identity of the Bosnian Muslims has shaped the conflict in which they are now so tragically embroiled Walford's Guide to Reference Material: Science and technology

Albert John Walford, Library Association, 1996 Cultural Anthropology of the Middle East, A Bibliography, Volume 1
Cultural Anthropology of the Middle East 1965-1987 Striip, 2021-12-06 During the last two decades the number of anthropologists conducting research in the Middle East has increased considerably Together they have produced an abundance of valuable studies often based on prolonged periods of ethnographic fieldwork This bibliography offers a comprehensive survey of their results published between 1965 and 1987 It refers to studies published in English French and German Geographically the bibliography covers the area from Mauritania in the West to Afghanistan in the East and from Turkey in the North to the Arab Peninsula and Northern Sudan in the South The majority of studies inserted has been written by anthropologists Besides a considerable number of studies related to anthropology but published by non anthropologists has been integrated as well The majority of the monographs and volumes has been annotated In the Path of God Daniel Pipes, Americans awareness of Islam and Muslims rose to seemingly unprecedented heights in the immediate aftermath of September 11 2001 but this is not the first time they have dominated American public life Once before during the period of the Iranian revolution and hostage crisis of 1979 to 1981 Americans found themselves targeted as a consequence of a militant interpretation of Islam Daniel Pipes wrote In the Path of God in response to those events and the heightened interest in Islam they generated His objective was to present an overview of the connection between Islam and political power through history in a way that would explain the origins of hostility to Americans and the West Its relevance to our understanding of contemporary events is self evident Muslim antagonism toward the West is deeply rooted in historical experience In premodern times the Islamic world enjoyed great success being on the whole more powerful and wealthier than their neighbors About two hundred years ago a crisis developed as Muslims became aware of the West's overwhelming force and economic might While they might have found these elements attractive Muslims found European culture largely alien and distasteful The resulting resistance to Westernization by Muslims has deep roots has been more persistent than that of other peoples and goes far to explain the deep Muslim reluctance to accept modern ways In short Muslims saw what the West had and wanted it too but they rejected the methods necessary to achieve this This the Muslim trauma has only worsened over the years Scholarly far ranging and thoughtful the debate is interesting and Pipes has made a stimulating contribution to it The New Republic Brilliant authoritative demonstrates encyclopedic knowledge of Muslim intellectual history Few other writers have explained so lucidly such complex developments in Muslim history The Washington Post He has resisted a widespread tendency to translate Muslim self expression into social science jargon as unintelligible as any mosque harangue His unadorned interpretation strikes a judicious balance between faithfulness to sources and clarity of presentation The American Spectator Daniel Pipes is director of the Middle East Forum and a columnist for the New York

Post and the Jerusalem Post Among his books are The Long Shadow Culture and Politics in the Middle East published by Transaction Greater Syria The History of an Ambition Friendly Tyrants An American Dilemma and The Rushdie Affair The Novel the Aftermath and the West Africa Today, 1979 War and Migration Alessandro Monsutti, 2005-06-10 Focusing on the case of the Hazaras a population from central Afghanistan this book shows how migration studies and transnationalism are at the heart of theoretical and methodological debates which animate anthropology War and Faith in Sudan Gabriel Meyer, 2005 This account of the tragic civil war in Sudan is more than a skillful journalist's firsthand report Meyer also offers a deeper understanding of the cultural racial and religious fault lines that divide the world at the start of the 21st century Applied Ethics Larry May, 2017-07-05 This best selling text continues to fill an existing gap in the literature taught in applied ethics courses As a growing number of courses that include the perspectives of diverse cultures are being added to the university curriculum texts are needed that represent more multicultural and diverse histories and backgrounds This new edition enhances gender coverage as nearly half of the pieces are now authored by women The new edition also increases the percentage of pieces written by those who come from a non Western background It offers twelve up to date articles not found in previous editions on human rights environmental ethics poverty war and violence gender race euthanasia and abortion all of these topics are addressed from Western and non Western perspectives
