he is doing an unusual kind of philosophy As though he has managed to turn J L Austin into one of the Marx Brothers Reading Jokes makes you feel that being genial is the most profound thing we ever do which is something jokes also make us feel and that doing philosophy is as natural as being amused Adam Phillips London Review of Books A lucid and jargon free study of the remarkable fact that we divert each other with stories meant to make us laugh An illuminating study replete with killer jokes Kevin McCardle The Herald Glasgow Cohen is an ardent joke maker keen to offer us a glimpse of how jokes are crafted and to have us dwell rather longer on their effects Barry C Smith Times Literary Supplement Because Ted Cohen loves jokes we come to appreciate them more and perhaps think further about the quality of good humor and the appropriateness of laughter in our lives Steve Carlson Christian Science Monitor
