Critical Pedagogies in English Language Teaching and Learning in South East Asia Joanna Joseph Jeyaraj, Tamas Kiss, David D. Perrodin, Critical Pedagogies in English Language Teaching and Learning in South East Asia explores the emerging yet dynamic field of critical pedagogies within the region This volume brings together voices from countries like Vietnam the Philippines Singapore Thailand Indonesia and Malaysia offering a unique perspective on critical pedagogies in diverse cultural contexts Although the application of critical pedagogies in English language education in South East Asia remains limited due to certain cultural political and educational traditions it is still important to discuss possible interpretations of critical pedagogies within this context Consequently this volume focuses on understanding barriers to implementation and provides examples of how critical approaches have been adapted to make it culturally and pedagogically acceptable As an important resource for educators researchers and policy makers this volume promotes inclusive and transformative educational practices within English language education It serves as a call to action urging readers to reimagine the potential of critical pedagogies in shaping a more equitable and just educational future The Art of

Facilitation Dale Hunter, 2012-03-01 World renowned facilitation guru explains how to run great meetings Dr Dale Hunter's classic guide includes all the latest findings and research on facilitation Written by an international expert it's the go to sourcebook for people involved in human resources management mediation team leadership performance management and individual and team coaching If you're someone who is responsible for effective group and interpersonal dynamics this is the Bible Interpersonal dynamics can unravel the best of managerial intentions Worse still a little knowledge in untrained hands can lead to managers manufacturing consent and manipulating people to agree to management goals Hunter's book is a sobering reminder of how many managers directors and business leaders are stumbling about in the dark with very few skills when it comes to unlocking individual and group potential The Art of Facilitation will sit comfortably on the bookshelf of anyone wanting to learn more about harnessing group energy to attain a common goal Ruth le Pla Management Magazine May 2007 Wartime Images, Peacetime Wounds Sandra

Lambertus, 2004-01-01 What does the media coverage of a crisis situation reveal about the nature of dominant minority relations locally regionally and nationally Sandra Lambertus asks this question of the media coverage of the largest RCMP operation in Canadian history the 1995 Gustafsen Lake Native Indian standoff Drawing from extensive newspaper television and radio news products legal and law enforcement documents ethnographic interviews with 26 journalists as well as RCMP and Native leaders Lambertus examines the construction and national dissemination of vilifying stereotyped portrayals of Native people The ethnographic component pushes the standard of media analysis bringing to light previously unconsidered aspects of media representations of minorities media and law enforcement processes frameworks of the news makers face presentation strategies information control and exchange relations in news gathering The investigation shows how the values and perspectives of local communities media and law enforcement became overshadowed by outsiders during the course of the event and the serious effects of the media coverage on specific audiences and ultimately Canadian society The study culminates with an assessment of the structural elements that contributed to the damaging media portrayals media bias competition cooperation empowerment and cultural misperceptions Wartime Images Peacetime Wounds opens new avenues for studies of minorities in the news and for the study of news media in general
