Presbyterian Church In The Publication, 2015-07-04 Excerpt from Brief Memoirs of the Pious Vol 1 Julius Charles Rieu was born at Geneva August 11th 1792 Having devoted himself to the service of the Lord in the work of the ministry in the year 1816 he relinquished at the close of 1817 the fairest temporal prospects in order to go and preach the gospel to an humble colony of French refugees who had resided for nearly a century on the shores of the Little Belt in Denmark His deep humility and self diffidence had led him at one time to consider himself as altogether unworthy of the sacred office believing that it required higher talents purer feelings and greater faith than he possessed Wore than once after having become a student in the Theological Hall he was on the point of quitting it But such was not the will of his great Master who intended that he should become a burning and a shining light in his day He remained therefore and continued his studies About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
