It's Not Too Late Dan Dupee,2016-03-08 It has long been said that once kids are in high school and college they are beyond the influence of their parents This pervasive cultural myth is not supported by research biblical teaching or even anecdotal accounts Yet because of it many Christian parents live in silent angst about the faith of their older and adult children thinking they can no longer do anything to shape their kids spiritual and life decisions Drawing on sociological research and Scripture Dan Dupee shows parents that it is not too late and in fact these turbulent years of transitioning into adulthood are a time when their kids may need their guidance the most He shows parents how to make the most out of the opportunities they have to offer guidance wisdom and spiritual support with the goal of seeing their children not just survive college with faith intact but enter adulthood with a faith of their own one that will carry them through all that life brings their way

How Much Is Too Much? [previously published as How Much Is Enough?] Jean Illsley Clarke,Connie Dawson,David Bredehoft,2014-01-07 A down to earth guide to regaining control of your kids and your family Overindulgence is not the badge of a bad parent In fact it comes directly from having a good and generous heart But despite our good intentions the abundance we heap on our kids often becomes more than they need or can handle Family and parenting experts Jean Illsley Clarke Connie Dawson and David Bredehoft help you to understand How damaging overindulgence can be for children When you are overindulging and how to stop Which methods work best to establish firm rules and structure How to instill responsibility and independence in your kids What to do when family and friends are overindulging your kids What grandparents can do to help Based on new research gathered over the past ten years How Much Is Too Much gives you the insight and advice you need to put your children on track for a happy and successful life

Hope in the Age of Addiction Chip Dodd,Stephen James,2020-08-04 Between alcohol illegal drugs prescription drugs pornography gambling and eating disorders fully 25% of the population of the United States is addicted to something Those addictions are taking a massive physical emotional spiritual and financial toll on individuals families and communities The problem can feel insurmountable But there is a solution at once ancient and supported by the latest in neuroscientific research With an honest assessment of the facts yet always reaching out toward hopeful solutions counselors Chip Dodd and Stephen James explain what addiction really is how it works and why it is so damaging to our hearts souls minds and relationships They then take us beyond mere coping techniques that allow us to function to the real solution restoring our broken relationship with our Creator so that we can rediscover how to live fully the way we were created to live Each chapter includes the personal story of a recovering addict told from the addict's point of view The authors also include a list of books organizations workshops and treatment centers people can turn to for help along the road to lasting recovery

Mothering Our Boys Maggie

Dent,2018-11-01 Maggie is earthy and real full of love and knowledge especially on raising sons Steve Biddulph Maggie's perspective on raising boys is spot on She writes with humor and depth providing insight and strategies for many of the most important issues facing moms There is a lovely ease to her writing and a powerful honesty I hope every mother of a son and everyone else will read this book The future of the world to a great extent depends on how we raise our boys Michael Gurian New York Times Bestselling Author of The Wonder of Boys and Saving Our Sons If we can see the world through boys eyes a little better we will make different choices in the way we mother them and we will find them less confusing and love them more deeply Mothers of sons are worried about raising their boys in a world where negative images of masculinity are front and centre of our media almost every day Not only that but statistically our boys are still struggling in many ways Even though we live in a time where we recognise that nothing in gender is fixed it remains a fact that the influence of a mother on her son is massive A mother of four sons herself Maggie Dent draws on her personal experience and over four decades work as a teacher counsellor and now author and speaker to help build understanding empathy and compassion for our boys Maggie shares her five key secrets that every mum needs to know and uses the voices of men she has worked with and surveyed to reveal what really matters in a boy's relationship with his mother and other mother figures Maggie is one of Australia's most popular parenting authors and educators and her seminars about boys have sold out all across Australia and in the UK She is finally sharing her insights her reflections and as always her humour around mothering boys to help you be the mum your son needs you to be
