Reform and Its Complexities in Modern Britain Bruce Kinzer,Molly Baer Kramer,Richard Trainor,2022-05-05 The essays in this volume taken together span the era of British history from 1780 to the present that has engrossed the attention of Brian Harrison in a career of more than fifty years In keeping with his diverse interests they vary widely in subject matter Yet each contributes in some fashion to an appreciation of the complexities of reform in modern Britain Throughout his career Harrison has demonstrated an unwavering interest in social movements and pressure groups He has analysed the organisation of reform movements and their bases of support explored the aspirations and beliefs motivating individuals to start or join such movements and examined the ideas and ideals shaping their conception of human improvement No one has done more to show that the significance of a reform movement s triumphs and disappointments can be grasped only in relation to the forces amassed to resist its claims The essays gathered here on the Harrisonian theme of reform and its complexities form an acknowledgment of the massive mark their honouree has made on the study of modern British history They are preceded by a Foreword composed by Keith Thomas and an editorial Introduction tracing the course of Harrison s scholarship and connecting that scholarship to the substance of the essays The volume encompasses both wide ranging analytical investigations and telling case studies All have new things to say on the subject of reform and its complexities in modern Britain A List of Editions of the Holy Scriptures E.B. O'Callaghan,2022-06-03 Reprint of the original first published in 1861 Black Writers of the Founding Era (LOA #366) James G. Basker,Nicole Seary,2023-12-12 A radical new vision of the nation s founding era and a major act of historical recovery Featuring more than 120 writers this groundbreaking anthology reveals the astonishing richness and diversity of Black experience in the turbulent decades of the American Revolution Black Writers of the Founding Era is the most comprehensive anthology ever published of Black writing from the turbulent decades surrounding the birth of the United States. An unprecedented archive of historical sources including more than 200 poems, letters, sermons, newspaper advertisements, slave narratives, testimonies of faith and religious conversion, criminal confessions, court transcripts, travel accounts, private journals, wills, petitions for freedom, even dreams by over 100 authors, it is a collection that reveals the surprising richness and diversity of Black experience in the new nation. Here are writers both enslaved and free, loyalist and patriot, female and male, northern and southern, soldiers, seamen, and veterans, painters, poets, accountants, orators, scientists, community organizers, preachers, restaurateurs, and cooks, hairdressers, criminals, carpenters, and many more. Along with long famous works like Phillis Wheatley's poems and Benjamin Banneker's astonishing mathematical and scientific puzzles are dozens of first person narratives offering little known Black perspectives on the events of the times like the Boston Massacre and the death of George Washington. From their bold and eloquent contributions to public debates about the meanings of the revolution and the values of the new nation, writings that dramatize the many ways in which protest, activism, and community organizing have been integral to the Black American experience from the beginning to their intimate thoughts preserved in private diaries and letters, some unseen to the present day, the words of the many writers gathered here will indelibly alter our understandings of American history. A foreword by Annette Gordon-Reed and an introduction by James G. Basker, along with introductory headnotes and explanatory notes drawing on cutting edge scholarship, illuminate these writers' works and to situate them in their historical contexts. A 16 page color photo insert presents portraits of some of the writers included and images of the original manuscripts, broadside and books in which their words have been preserved.

Teaching the Animal, Anglo-Jewish Poetry from Isaac Rosenberg to Elaine Feinstein Peter Lawson, 2006. This is the first book-length study to survey the phenomenon of twentieth century Anglo-Jewish poetry. It proceeds by reading established Anglo-Jewish poets against the grain of conventional thinking about English verse. For example, rather than understanding Isaac Rosenberg and Siegfried Sassoon as simply First World War poets, it approaches them as minority Anglo-Jewish poets as well. A similar challenge to the notion of an undifferentiated English literature is made with respect to four other major writers: John Rodker 1894-1955, Jon Silkin 1930-97, Elaine Feinstein 1930- and Karen Gershon 1923-93. All these poets share a peripheral relationship with English and Jewish culture together with a common attachment to the diasporic narrative of exile and deferred return to a textually imagined homeland.

Preaching Christ from Psalms Greidanus, 2016. In this final volume of his series on preaching Christ from the Old Testament, Sidney Greidanus offers expert guidance for busy pastors on preaching Christ from Psalms. Beginning with a general introduction on how pastors can interpret and preach from the biblical psalms and why they should, Greidanus proceeds by discussing twenty-two psalms in the Revised Common Lectionary Year A, supplying the building blocks necessary to preach from Psalms at Christmas, Easter, Pentecost, and other major days and seasons of the church year. In addition to laying out basic homiletical, theological approaches suitable for each selected psalm, these chapters also provide
