Raising Your Child, Not by Force But by Love Sidney D. Craig, 1981-04-15 A clinical psychologist offers advice designed to improve parent child relationships through the application of Judeo Christian teachings Reverence for the Heart of the Child Leander S. Harding, 2011-04-01 Are children little angels or little devils or are they like their parents a little of each Must they go through a definite moment of conversion or can they grow up always knowing themselves to be Christian How do theological ideas about human nature sin and salvation affect how parents see and treat children Starting with Horace Bushnell s classic 19th century study Christian Nurture Leander Harding brings the discussion up to date with the help of insights from contemporary psychoanalytic thought and Family Systems Theory Included are practical suggestions for parents and parishes You Can Postpone Anything But Love Randy C. together attachment parenting principles with child advocacy and homeschooling philosophies offering a consistent approach to raising a loving trusting and confident child The Natural Child dispels the myths of tough love building baby's self reliance by ignoring its cries and the necessity of spanking to enforce discipline Instead the book explains the value of extended breast feeding family co sleeping and minimal child parent separation Homeschooling like attachment parenting nurtures feelings of self worth confidence and trust The author draws on respected leaders of the homeschool movement such as John Taylor Gatto and John Holt guiding the reader through homeschool approaches that support attachment parenting principles Being an ally to children is spontaneous for caring adults but intervening on behalf of a child can be awkward and surrounded by social taboo The Natural Child shows how to stand up for a child's rights effectively and sensitively in many difficult situations The role of caring adults points out Hunt is not to give children lessons in life but to employ a variation of The Golden Rule and treat children as we would like to have been treated in childhood Praise for The Natural Child I had grown jaded with the flood of parenting books but The Natural Child is a rare and splendid exception I can't praise it sufficiently and would place it along with Leidloff's Continuum Concept and my own Magical Child It could make an enormous difference if read widely enough Joseph Chilton Pierce author of The Magical Child In prose that is at the same time eloquent and simple Hunt provides a mix of useful parenting tips that are supported by the philosophy that children reflect the treatment they receive This is no less than an impassioned plea for the future not only our children's future but the future of our way of life on this planet Wendy Priesnitz Editor Natural Life Magazine

Unconditional Parenting
 Alfie Kohn, 2006-03-28 The author of Punished by Rewards and The Schools Our Children Deserve returns with a provocative challenge to the conventional ways of raising children Kohn argues that all children have the need to be loved unconditionally yet conventional approaches to parenting such as punishment and reward teach children that they are loved only when they please and impress parents Kohn cites powerful research detailing the damage this can cause Unconditional Parenting pushes parents to question their ideas of parenting and offers practical solutions to problems

The Christian Looks at Himself Anthony A. Hoekema, 1975 What kind of self image should Christians have Should they see themselves primarily as unworthy sinners before a holy God The biblical view Anthony A Hoekema argues in this readable study is that humanity having been made in God's own image was the capstone of God's creation Even when we fell God considered us of such worth that he gave up his only Son to redeem humanity And in Christ as Paul makes plain we are made into new creatures This does not mean that the redeemed live a life of sinless perfection it does mean that what is most distinctive about them is the new life they have in Christ And this new life entitles Christians to a self image that is essentially positive Accepting the biblical view of our worth can be difficult for Christians burdened with feelings of guilt How can such Christians learn to see themselves in better light And how can others in the Christian community preachers counselors teachers and parents help fellow members to attain the positive self image that is essential to the Christian faith Part Two of The Christian Looks at

Himself offers concrete answers to these questions and in doing so points up the social dimension of being in Christ As Christians accept themselves as creatures made new in Christ so in love they must also fully accept fellow Christians as recreated in that same Christ ANTHONY A HOEKEMA 1913-1988 was former professor emeritus of systematic theology at Calvin Theological Seminary in Grand Rapids Michigan His other books include Created in God's Image Saved by Grace and The Bible and the Future Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1975

Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.), First multi year cumulation covers six years 1965-70 The Living Church, 1979 Reclaiming Religion from the Church Frank Canatella, 2003-02 The first rule of life is survive And since we are necessarily social we must add the corollary together All oughts derive from this two part rule Most of us understand this intuitively if not explicitly The only issue to be resolved is how inclusive is our togetherness Is it just our tribe our nation the northern hemisphere Or must we include the whole human family These are the moral issues we must answer and they are empirical questions Behavior has consequences We have to ask ourselves Will such and such behaviors promote survival The answer can only come from the experience of the community Present demographics will not allow us to elude the question much longer Church rules can be faulted on a number of counts not the least of which is that God gave us the rules so they can't change even when experience indicates that they should Also the church leaders think the purpose of the rules is to save our souls and so our life here has been seriously neglected in many respects especially for the poor and the underclass because everything is supposed to be made right in the hereafter This I regard as backward It affirms those who oppress the poor Scientists make inferences from empirical data and the results are always subject to revision Church officials make inferences from myths and they are set in stone A good example is the doctrine of Original Sin that is presented as an occult event that causes all our problems and about which we can do nothing The church approved of slavery for the better part of two millennia because it was in place when the church was created and St Augustine justified it as one of the punishments resulting from Original Sin Clearly our problem is ignorance the kind we are born with and the kind we acquire through learning falsely I call this Ignorance II after Gregory Bateson's Learning II learning how to learn Ignorance II is a learning dead end learning how not to learn We very obviously do not always know how to act in our own best interests Our best chance of breaking out of this mold is through sharing the best of our communal experience to discover how to act in our own best interests in the long run This is how to develop a proper morality one we can all live with With a superior organization in place the church is positioned to unite us in the task of developing a proper morality However the church as presently structured can only evolve by backing into the future It claims to already know everything that is necessary to know so it has difficulty learning thus denying its human origin and makeup To change the church requires a spin on history that demonstrates a development and continuity with the past instead of just saying We have been wrong The People of God the true Church show signs of reclaiming religion through various dissident groups These groups do not yet recognize the intimate connection between morality and survival My hope is that this book will guide them toward that recognition
