Inventing Authenticity Carrie Helms Tippen, 2018-08-12 In Inventing Authenticity Carrie Helms Tippen examines the rhetorical power of storytelling in cookbooks to fortify notions of southernness Tippen brings to the table her ongoing hunt for recipe cards and evaluates a wealth of cookbooks with titles like Y all Come Over and Bless Your Heart and famous cookbooks such as Sean Brock's Heritage and Edward Lee's Smoke and Pickles She examines her own southern history grounding it all in a thorough understanding of the relevant literature The result is a deft and entertaining dive into the territory of southern cuisine black eyed peas and cornbread fried chicken and fried okra pound cake and peach cobbler and a look at and beyond southern food tropes that reveals much about tradition identity and the yearning for authenticity Tippen discusses the act of cooking as a way to perform and therefore reinforce the identity associated with a recipe and the complexities inherent in attempts to portray the foodways of a region marked by a sometimes distasteful history Inventing Authenticity meets this challenge head on delving into problems of cultural appropriation and representations of race thorny questions about authorship and more The commonplace but deceptively complex southern cookbook can sustain our sense of where we come from and who we are or who we think we are

Ice Amy Brady, 2023-06-06 The unexpected and unexplored ways that ice has transformed a nation from the foods Americans eat to the sports they play to the way they live today and what its future might look like on a swiftly warming planet Ice is everywhere in gas stations in restaurants in hospitals in our homes Americans think nothing of dropping a few ice cubes into tall glasses of tea to ward off the heat of a hot summer day Most refrigerators owned by Americans feature automatic ice machines Ice on demand has so revolutionized modern life that it's easy to forget that it wasn't always this way and to overlook what aspects of society might just melt away as the planet warms In Ice journalist and historian Amy Brady shares the strange and storied two hundred year old history of ice in America from the introduction of mixed drinks on the rocks to the nation's first ever indoor ice rink to how delicacies like ice creams and iced tea revolutionized our palates to the ubiquitous ice machine in every motel across the US But Ice doesn't end in the past Brady also explores the surprising present day uses of ice in sports medicine and sustainable energy including cutting edge cryotherapy breast cancer treatments and new refrigerator technologies that may prove to be more energy efficient underscoring how precious this commodity is especially in an age of climate change

Domestic Negotiations Marci R. McMahon, 2013-07-01. This interdisciplinary study explores how US Mexicana and Chicana authors and artists across different historical periods and regions use domestic space to actively claim their own histories. Through negotiation, a concept that accounts for artistic practices outside the duality of resistance, accommodation, and self-fashioning, Marci R. McMahon demonstrates how the very sites of domesticity are used to engage the many political and recurring debates about race, gender, and immigration affecting Mexicanas and Chicanas from the early twentieth century to today. Domestic Negotiations covers a range of archival sources and cultural productions, including the self-fashioning of the chili queens of San Antonio, Texas; Jovita Gonzales's romance novel Caballero; the home economics career and cookbooks of Fabiola Cabeza de Baca; Sandra Cisneros's Purple House; controversy and her acclaimed text The House on Mango Street; Patssi Valdez's self-fashioning and performance of domestic space in Asco; and as a solo artist, Diane Rodriguez's performance of domesticity in Hollywood television and direction of domestic roles in theater. And Alma Lopez's digital prints of domestic labor in Los Angeles. With intimate close readings, McMahon shows how Mexicanas and Chicanas shape domestic space to construct identities outside of gendered, racialized and xenophobic rhetoric      The United States Catalog ,1928      The United States Catalog Eleanor E. Hawkins,1921
