Ralph Bunche A Most Reluctant Hero:

Ralph Bunche Anne E. Schraff, 1999 In the early years of the United Nations a quiet hardworking man named Ralph Bunche took the spotlight as an extraordinary negotiator for peace around the world As a result of his work in the Middle East Bunche became the first African American to win the Nobel Peace Prize In this volume author Anne Schraff tells the inspiring story of a man born in a world of poverty and prejudice who became a celebrated American diplomat and statesman Over the years Bunche dealt with world crises in Africa Asia and the Middle East Despite serious lifelong health problems Bunche devoted his life to his vision of a better world a world of equality and of peace The 20th Century A-GI Frank N. Magill, 2013-05-13 Each volume of the Dictionary of World Biography contains 250 entries on the lives of the individuals who shaped their times and left their mark on world history This is not a who's who Instead each entry provides an in depth essay on the life and career of the individual concerned Essays commence with a quick reference section that provides basic facts on the individual's life and achievements The extended biography places the life and works of the individual within an historical context and the summary at the end of each essay provides a synopsis of the individual's place in history All entries conclude with a fully annotated bibliography Notable U.S. Ambassadors Since 1775 Cathal J. Nolan, 1997-10-28 This book spans more than 200 years of U S diplomatic history Its geographical scope widens along with the expanding interests of America itself from initial exclusive concern with the empires of Europe to the emerging nations of Latin America to the commercial opportunities and geopolitical concerns of Asia and Africa The ambassadors chosen for inclusion reflect these historical changes in American foreign relations Organized alphabetically the biographies present an implicit account of the evolution of the U S diplomatic service from its founding and early principles through the 20th century evolution of its habits and culture Bernadotte in Palestine Amitzur Ilan, 1989-06-18 This book concerns Bernadotte the Swedish diplomat who was appointed the UN mediator in Palestine in 1948 and initiated the Bernadotte Plans It recounts the main events of his life before he was assassinated including the first and second truces and describes Palestine since his death A Search of African American Life, Achievement and Culture John C. Cothran, 2006 Reviews the accomplishments courage and struggles of African Americans over the past 500 years Ralph Bunche; a Most Reluctant Hero James Haskins, 1974 A biography of the first black American to receive a Ph D in political science the first to hold a high position in the State Department and the first to win the Nobel Peace Prize Masterplots II. Frank Northen Magill, 1993 Black Authors and Illustrators of Books for Children and Young Adults Barbara Thrash Murphy, Deborah L. Murphy, 2006-12-21 Black Authors and Illustrators of Books for Children and Young Adults is a biographical dictionary that provides comprehensive coverage of all major authors and illustrators past and present As the only reference volume of its kind available this book is a valuable research tool that provides quick access for anyone studying black children's literature whether one is a student a librarian charged with maintaining a children's literature collection or a scholar of children's literature The Fourth Edition of this
