West cemeteries became important cultural centers Filled with carved wooden headboards inscribed local stones and Italian marble statues cemeteries functioned as symbols of stability and progress toward a European inspired vision of Manifest Destiny As repositories of art and history these pioneer cemeteries tell the story of communities and visual culture emerging together within the developing landscape of the Old West Annette Stott traces this story through Rocky Mountain towns on the western frontier from the unkempt boot hills of the early mining camps and cattle settlements to the more refined fair mounts She shows how people from Asia Europe and the Americas contributed to the visual character of the mountain cemeteries and how the sepulchral garden functioned as an open air gallery of public sculpture at once a site for relaxation learning and social ritual Here widespread participation in a variety of ceremonies brought mountain communities together with a frequency almost unimaginable today Illustrated with eighty three striking photographs this book shows how the pioneer cemetery emerged as a site of public sculpture and cultural transmission in which each carved or molded monument played dual and sometimes conflicting public and private roles recording the community s history and values while memorializing individuals and events

General Catalogue of Sculpture, Paintings and Other Objects, February, 1907 Art Institute of Chicago, 1907 The Monumental City George Washington Howard, 1873 The Monumental City, Its Past History and Present Resources George Washington Howard, 1873 This historic book may have numerous typos and missing text Purchasers can download a free scanned copy of the original book without typos from the publisher Not indexed Not illustrated 1873 Excerpt Towns and villages have sprung up along the line of railroad and even those sections but remotely connected with the road have felt its wonderful influence A spirit of enterprise has grown up in neighboring districts roads and turn pikes have been opened and vast stretches of country that might have remained primeval forests but for this great work of internal improvement have become productive and the inhabitants cultivated and refined The extension of the road from Oentretion on the Lake Erie Division to Chicago gives the Baltimore and Ohio one continuous line of rail road from Baltimore to the Lake City of the West the granary where is received the exhaustless products of the fertile plains which stretch out through the northwest Thus Baltimore is enabled to compete with the great cities of the East for a share of this immense trade The extension of the road from Pittsburg to Centreton a mere question of time will give another direct route from Chicago to Baltimore The scenery along the line of the Baltimore and Ohio Eailway is picturesque and beautiful but portions of the road merit special notice Harper s Ferry the point at which the peaceful waters of the Shenandoah become lost in the more boisterous Potomac has been described by Jefferson as one of the most stupendous scenes in nature and well worth a voyage across the Atlantic to witness Jefferson s Kock named after that illustrious statesman a great overhanging cliff which looks frowningly down as though it would topple headlong upon the unwary traveler offers an exhaustive view of the wonderful passage of these two rivers through the very heart of the mountains The road from this point to the Ohio Kiver gives to the sight seer a succession of views emb
