Biographical Dictionary of Literary Influences John Powell, 2000-10-30 Over the past two decades the process of cultural development and in particular the role of reading has been of growing interest but recent research has been episodic and idiosyncratic In this biographical dictionary research devoted specifically to the reading habits of 19th century individuals who shaped Western culture is brought together for the first time While giving prominent coverage to literary and political figures the volume's 270 entries also include musicians painters educators and explorers Each entry includes brief biographical information a concise summary of literary influences on the subject and clear direction for further research The book provides a practical tool for scholars wishing to trace the reading experience of important Western cultural figures Subjects were selected from the people most responsible for the cultural development of Europe Britain and the British Empire and the Americas between 1800 and 1914 Although selective the sample of 270 figures is substantial enough to suggest broad cross cultural habits and effects enabling scholars to better understand the relationship between reading and culture In an introductory essay Powell explores the patterns and relationships that can be discerned from the entries The first of three anticipated volumes the book is an important step forward in researching the role of reading in cultural development Randolph Caldecott's Picture Books Randolph Caldecott, 2008 Randolph Caldecott's Picture Books Caldecott's work heralds the beginning of the modern picture book Maurice Sendak Randolph J. Caldecott and the Story of the Caldecott Medal John Bankston, 2004 The story of the famous children's illustrator and the award that was later named for him 1945-1978 Maria Witt, 2013-02-07 No detailed description available for 1945-1978 Children's Book Award

Handbook Diana F. Marks, 2006-03-30 Diana Marks looks at children's and young adult book awards in depth. The history, award criteria, and a biography of the person behind each of the well-known awards is included. Also of interest are lists of the winners in each category, teaching and exploration activities, reproducible teaching aides, and a timeline of events leading up to the establishment of the award. Information about well-known awards is accompanied by information on the lesser-known Pura Belpré, Jane Addams, etc. Information is formatted in quick, easy-to-read tables and charts suitable for classroom duplication. Although some of this information is available online, this is a one-stop handbook that contains lesser-known awards and offers activities for enriching the study of each award, whether well-known or not. The Denslow Picture Book Treasury W. W. Denslow, 2014-03-05 The father of the American Picture Book, W. W. Denslow is best remembered for the distinctive illustrations he created for the original Wonderful Wizard of Oz. This unique compilation features 9 of the best stories from his 18-volume series of picture books from 1903 to 1904, which featured novel retellings of favorite childhood tales. High-quality color reproductions of the artist's drawings accompany stories of Humpty Dumpty, Jack and the Beanstalk, Little Red Riding Hood, and other beloved characters. Denslow rewrote several of these familiar stories, toning down harsher aspects of the original material to provide wholesome entertainment redolent of his era's mood and sensibilities. This new edition includes an Introduction by Oz historian Michael Patrick Hearn.

A Treasury of Bookplates from the Renaissance to the Present Fridolf Johnson, 1977-01-01 Collection of 761 miniature works of art representing 500 years of the bookplate, from the first known example ca. 1450 to a wide range of fascinating 20th-century designs. Introduction.

A de Grummond Primer Carolyn J. Brown, Ellen Hunter Ruffin, Eric L. Tribunella, 2021-03-26 Contributions by Ann Mulloy, Ashmore Rudine, Sims Bishop, Ruth B. Bottigheimer, Jennifer Brannock, Carolyn J. Brown, Ramona Caponegro, Lorinda Cohoon, Carol Edmonston, Paige Gray, Laura Hakala, Andrew Haley, Wm. John Hare, Dee Jones, Allison G. Kaplan, Megan Norcia, Nathalie op de Beeck, Amy Pattee, Deborah Pope, Ellen Hunter Ruffin, Anita Silvey, Danielle Bishop, Stoulig Roger Sutton, Deborah D. Taylor, Eric L. Tribunella, Alexandra Valint, and Laura E. Wasowicz. During the 1960s, a dedicated library science professor named Lena de Grummond initiated a letter-writing campaign to children's authors and illustrators, requesting original manuscripts and artwork to share with her students. Now named after de Grummond, this archive at the University of Southern Mississippi has grown into one of the largest collections of historical and contemporary youth literature in North America, with original contributions from more than 1,400 authors and illustrators, as well as over 185,000 volumes. The first book-length project on the collection, A de Grummond Primer: Highlights of the Children's Literature Collection, provides a history of de Grummond's work and an introduction to major topics in the field of children's literature. With more than ninety full-color images, it highlights particular strengths of the archive, including extensive holdings of fairy tales, series books, nineteenth-century periodicals, Golden Age illustrated books, Mississippi and southern children's literature, nonfiction, African American children's literature, contemporary children's and young adult authors and illustrators, and more.

The book includes contributions from literature and information science scholars historians librarians and archivists all noted experts on children s literature and points to the exciting research possibilities of the archive De Grummond could not have realized when she wrote to luminaries like H A and Margret Rey Berta and Elmer Hader Madeleine L Engle J R R Tolkien Lois Lenski Garth Williams and others that their correspondence and contributions would form the foundation for this extraordinary trove now visited by scholars from around the world Such major authors and illustrators as Ezra Jack Keats Richard Peck Rosemary Wells Angela Johnson and John Green continued to donate content In addition curators past and present have acquired both historical and contemporary volumes of literature and criticism
