Black Bodies and Quantum Cats Jennifer Ouellette, 2005-12-01 Physics once known as natural philosophy is the most basic science explaining the world we live in from the largest scale down to the very very very smallest and our understanding of it has changed over many centuries In Black Bodies and Quantum Cats science writer Jennifer Ouellette traces key developments in the field setting descriptions of the fundamentals of physics in their historical context as well as against a broad cultural backdrop Newton's laws are illustrated via the film Addams Family Values while Back to the Future demonstrates the finer points of special relativity Poe's The Purloined Letter serves to illuminate the mysterious nature of neutrinos and Jeanette Winterson's novel Gut Symmetries provides an elegant metaphorical framework for string theory An enchanting and edifying read Black Bodies and Quantum Cats shows that physics is not an arcane field of study but a profoundly human endeavor and a fundamental part of our everyday world

Defense Mechanisms in the Counseling Process Arthur J. Clark, 1998-03-24 What causes clients in therapy to resist change What mechanisms and devices do they use to defend against therapeutic progress How can a therapist identify and work with such defenses in their clients Understanding defense mechanisms is essential to understanding clients managing resistance clarifying conflicted behavior and engendering more adaptive functioning In Defense Mechanisms in the Counseling Process author Arthur J Clark discusses various specific defense mechanisms that arise in the course of working with a client in counseling He presents each mechanism's theoretical origins psychopathology and definitions and then the methods organized according to the three stage model of the counseling process for processing it through discrete stages Extensive examples throughout the book from diverse populations illustrate the defense mechanisms themselves as well as the therapeutic change that can result in spite of them He also provides an integrative case example demonstrating the changes in clients defenses through the counseling process Combining a theoretical and practical perspective Defense Mechanisms in the Counseling Process is ideally suited for professionals and academics in clinical and counseling psychology psychology social work and group work

Gender Equality and Work-Life Balance Sarah Blithe, 2015-06-05 Pressure to achieve work life balance has recently become a significant part of the cultural fabric of working life in United States A very few privileged employees tout their ability to find balance between their careers and the rest of their lives but most employees face considerable organizational and economic constraints which hamper their ability to maintain a reasonable balance between paid work and other life aspects and it is not only women who struggle Increasingly men find it difficult to do it all Women have long noted the near impossibility of balancing multiple roles but it is only recently that men have been encouraged to see themselves beyond their breadwinner selves Gender Equality and Work Life Balance describes the work life practices of men in the United States The purpose is to increase gender equality at work for all employees With a focus on leave policy inequalities this book argues that men experience a phenomenon called the glass handcuffs which prevents them from leaving work to participate fully in their families homes and other life events highlighting the cultural institutional organizational and occupational conditions which make gender equality in work life policy usage difficult This social justice book ultimately draws conclusions about how to minimize inequalities at work Gender Equality and Work Life Balance is unique as it laces together some theoretical concepts which have little previous association including entrepreneurialism leave policy occupational identity and the economic necessities of families This book will therefore be of particular interest to researchers and academics alike in the disciplines of Gender studies Human Resource Management Employment Relations Sociology and Cultural Studies
