The Rape of the Nile Brian Murray Fagan, 1977 Rape of the Nile: Tomb Robbers, Tourists and Archaeologists in Ancient Egypt, 1975 The Intimate Bond Brian Fagan, 2015-04-14 Animals and our ever changing relationship with them have left an indelible mark on human history From the dawn of our existence animals and humans have been constantly redefining their relationship with one another and entire civilizations have risen and fallen upon this curious bond we share with our fellow fauna Brian Fagan unfolds this fascinating story from the first wolf who wandered into our prehistoric ancestors camp and found companionship to empires built on the backs of horses donkeys and camels to the industrial age when some animals became commodities often brutally exploited and others became pets nurtured and pampered sometimes to absurd extremes Through an in depth analysis of six truly transformative human animal relationships Fagan shows how our habits and our very way of life were considerably and irreversibly altered by our intimate bond with animals Among other stories Fagan explores how herding changed human behavior how the humble donkey helped launch the process of globalization and how the horse carried a hearty band of nomads across the world and toppled the emperor of China With characteristic care and penetrating insight Fagan reveals the profound influence that animals have exercised on human history and how in fact they often drove it

Breaking the Mirror of Heaven Robert Bauval, Ahmed Osman, 2012-07-26 Exposes the many cycles of monument destruction and cultural suppression in Egypt from antiquity to the present day Details the vandalism of Egyptian antiquities and suppression of ancient knowledge under foreign rulers who sought to cleanse Egypt of its pagan past Reveals the real reason behind Napoleon s invasion of Egypt Freemasonry Shows how the censorship of nonofficial Egyptology as well as new archaeological discoveries continued under Antiquities Minister Zahi

Hawass Called the Mirror of Heaven by Hermes Thoth and regarded as the birthplace of civilization science religion and magic Egypt has ignited the imagination of all who come in contact with it since ancient times from Pythagoras and Plato to Alexander the Great and Napoleon to modern Egyptologists the world over Yet despite this preeminence in the collective mind Egypt has suffered considerable destruction over the centuries Even before the burning of the Great Library at Alexandria the land of the pharaohs was pillaged by its own people With the arrival of foreign rulers both Arabic and European the destruction and thievery continued along with suppression of ancient knowledge as some rulers sought to cleanse Egypt of its pagan past Exploring the many cycles of destruction and suppression in Egypt as well as moments of salvation such as the first registered excavations by Auguste Mariette Robert Bauval and Ahmed Osman investigate the many conquerors of Egypt through the millennia as well as what has happened to famous artifacts such as the Rosetta Stone They show how Napoleon through his invasion wanted to revive ancient Egyptian wisdom and art because of its many connections to Freemasonry They reveal how the degradation of monuments theft of relics and censorship of ancient teachings continue to this day Exposing recent cover ups during the tenure of Antiquities Minister Zahi Hawass they explain how new discoveries at Giza were closed to further research Clearing cultural and historical distortions the authors reveal the long hidden and persecuted voice of ancient Egypt and call for the return of Egypt to its rightful place as the Mother of Nations and the Mirror of Heaven

Loot Sharon Waxman, 2003-01-18 A journey across four continents to the heart of the conflict over who should own the great works of ancient art Why are the Elgin Marbles in London and not on the Acropolis Why do there seem to be as many mummies in France as there are in Egypt Why are so many Etruscan masterworks in America For the past two centuries the West has been plundering the treasures of the ancient world to fill its great museums but in recent years the countries where ancient civilizations originated have begun to push back taking museums to court prosecuting curators and threatening to force the return of these priceless objects Where do these treasures rightly belong Sharon Waxman a former culture reporter for The New York Times and a longtime foreign correspondent brings us inside this high stakes conflict examining the implications for the preservation of the objects themselves and for how we understand our shared cultural heritage Her journey takes readers from the great cities of Europe and America to Egypt Turkey Greece and Italy as these countries face down the Louvre the Metropolitan Museum the British Museum and the J Paul Getty Museum She also introduces a cast of determined and implacable characters whose battles may strip these museums of some of their most cherished treasures For readers who are fascinated by antiquity who love to frequent museums and who believe in the value of cultural exchange Loot opens a new window on an enduring conflict
