Improperly Obtained Evidence in Anglo-American and Continental Law Dimitrios Giannouloupoulos, 2019-02-21

This is the first book to offer an extensive cosmopolitan cross cultural insight into the perennial controversy over the use of improperly obtained evidence in criminal trials It challenges the conventional view that exclusionary rules are idiosyncratic of Anglo American law and highlights the constitutionalisation and internationalisation of criminal evidence and procedure as a cause of rapprochement or divergence beyond the Anglo American and Continental law divide Analysis focuses on confessional evidence and evidence obtained by search and seizure telephone interceptions and other means of electronic surveillance The laws of England and Wales France Greece and the United States are systematically compared and contrasted throughout this study but where appropriate analysis extends to other Anglo American and Continental legal systems The book reviews exclusionary rules vis vis the operation of judicial discretion and explores the normative justifications that underpin them. It attempts to reinvigorate the idea of excluding evidence to protect constitutional or human rights, the rights thesis arguing that there is significant scope for Anglo American and Continental legal systems to place a renewed emphasis on it, particularly in relation to confessional evidence obtained in violation of custodial interrogation rights. We can locate an emerging rapprochement and unique potential for European Court of Human Rights jurisprudence to build consensus in this respect. In marked contrast, remaining divergence with regard to evidence obtained by privacy violations means there is little momentum to adopt a reinvigorated rights thesis more widely. The Interaction of Contract Law and Tort and Property Law in Europe

Christian von Bar, Ulrich Drobnig, 2009-04-27 Against the background of the creation of an EU wide frame of reference for private law relevant to the Common Market this study which was requested by the EU Commission analyses the dovetailing between contract and tort law on the one hand and between contract and property law on the other The study examines the legal orders of almost all the Member States of the EU illustrates the differences between contractual and non contractual liability and evaluates the different systems of the transfer of property of movable and immovable securities as well as trust law The study comes to the conclusion that the intensive considerations on the creation of a model law in the area of European private law do not allow these thoughts to be limited to contract law Such a limitation to the scope of the regarding of this area would probably cause more problems than it would solve or at any rate not do justice to the needs of the Common Market art sont susceptibles d'entraîner la responsabilité du médecin. Le droit de la responsabilité civile est donc traité de manière approfondie, notamment la problématique des infections nosocomiales de la naissance d'un enfant, non des conséquences dommageables des vaccinations ou encore de la recherche sur l'être humain. Le volet pénal de ces responsabilités n'est pas oublié. Il est essentiellement axé sur les dispositions relatives à la violation du secret et sur la problématique des faux certificats. La déontologie et le droit disciplinaire de la LPM y sont analysés, présentant nombre de situations auxquelles les médecins peuvent être confrontés et les conséquences de leurs actes. Enfin, le dossier médical, sa constitution, son contenu et les obligations qui y sont liées, font comme les biobanques l'objet d'une large présentation. Le volume III, Raison d'être de toute activité médicale, le patient est largement consacré aux obligations dont le médecin, les soignants et l'état sont débiteurs. Ce troisième Volume est donc axé sur son statut, ses droits et obligations. Il n'existe pas de patient type, celui-ci se différencie notamment par son statut physique et mental, la pathologie dont il souffre et le cadre dans lequel il évolue. Eur. Zeitschrift Des Öffentl.
