Rillington Place:

Streets of Sin Fiona Rule, 2015-08-03 Notting Hill was not always an upmarket residential enclave and celebrity hotspot. Streets of Sin delves into the district's murky past and relates the deplorable scandals and shocking crimes that blighted the area from its development until the late twentieth century. Best-selling London historian Fiona Rule sheds new light on notorious events that took place amid the leafy streets including the horrifying murders at Rillington Place, the nefarious career of slum landlord Peter Rachman, the Profumo affair, and Britain's first race riots. She reveals what life was like in Notting Hill during its dark years when murder, extortion, and disorder were everyday occurrences and explores the price its residents have had to pay to climb up out of the ghetto.

Under Cover of Darkness Amy Helen Bell, 2024-11-05 A gripping new history of London during the Blackout revealing the violent crime that spread across the capital under the cover of darkness. Fear was the unacknowledged spectre haunting the streets of London during the Second World War, fear not only of death from the German bombers circling above but of violence at the hands of fellow Londoners in the streets below. Mass displacement, the anonymity of shelters, and the bomb-scarred landscape offered unprecedented opportunities for violent crime. In this absorbing, sometimes shocking account, Amy Helen Bell uncovers the hidden stories of murder and violence that were rife in wartime London. Bell moves through the city examining the crimes in their various locations, from domestic violence in the home to robberies in the blacked-out streets and fights in pubs and clubs. She reveals the experiences of women, children, and the elderly and focuses on the lives of the victims as well as their deaths. This groundbreaking study transforms our understanding of the ways in which war made people vulnerable, not just to the enemy but to each other.

Ghost Criminology Michael Fiddler, Theo Kindynis, Travis Linnemann, 2022-01-18 The haunting effects of crime, violence, and death in our history, memory, and media spaces. From Abu Ghraib and Holocaust death camps to Marjory Stoneman Douglas High School and slave plantations, spaces where violent crimes have occurred can often become forever changed or haunted in the public imagination. In this volume, Michael Fiddler, Travis Linnemann, and Theo Kindynis bring together an interdisciplinary group of distinguished scholars to study this phenomenon, exploring the origins, theory, and methodology of ghost criminology. Featuring Jeff Ferrell, Michelle Brown, Eamon Carrabine, and other prominent scholars, Ghost Criminology takes us inside spaces where the worst crimes have imprinted themselves on our history, memory, and media spaces. Contributors explore a wide range of these hauntological topics from a criminological perspective, including the excavation of graffiti in the London underground, the phantom of Robert E. Lee in Charlottesville, VA during the 2017 riots, and the ghostly evidentiary traces of crime in motel rooms. Ultimately, Fiddler, Kindynis, and Linnemann offer ghost criminology as another way of seeing and better understanding the lingering impact of violence, oppression, and history in today's world.

Ghost Criminology curates cutting-edge research to break exciting new terrain.
