Michael Patrick MacDonald The reason I write memoir is to be able to see the experience itself I hardly know what I think until I write Writing is a way to organize your life give it a frame give it a structure so that you can really see what it was that happened Sue William Silverman After a while in the process you have some distance and you start thinking of it as a story not as your story It was a personal grief but no longer personal It s something that has not just happened to me and my family but something that s happened in the world Edwidge Danticat Tibetan Buddhists believe that eloquence is the telling of a truth in such a way that it eases suffering The more suffering that is eased by your telling of the truth the more eloquent you are That s all you can really hope for being eloquent in that fashion All you have to do is respond to your story honestly and that s the ideal Kate Bornstein You can never entirely redeem the experience You can t make it not hurt anymore But you can make it beautiful enough so that there s something to balance it in the other scale And if you understand that word beautiful as not necessarily pretty then you re getting close to recognizing the integrative power of restoring the balance which is restoring the truth Richard Hoffman Braving the Fire Jessica Handler,2013-12-10 Braving the Fire is the first book to provide a road map for the journey of writing honestly about mourning grief and loss Created specifically by and for the writer who has experienced illness loss or the death of a loved one Braving the Fire takes the writers perspective in exploring the challenges and rewards for the writer who has chosen with courage and candor to be the memory keeper It will be useful to the memoirist just starting out as well as those already in the throes of coming to terms with complicated emotions and the challenges of shaping a compelling coherent true story Loosely organized around the familiar K bler Ross model of Five Stages of Grief Braving the Fire uses these stages to help the reader and writer through the emotional healing and writing tasks before them incorporating interviews and excerpts from other treasured writers who ve done the same Insightful contributions from Nick Flynn Darin Strauss Kathryn Rhett Natasha Trethewey and Neil White among others are skillfully bended with Handler s own approaches to facing grief a second time to be able to write about it Each section also includes advice and wisdom from leading doctors and therapists about the physical experience of grieving Handler is a compassionate guide who has braved the fire herself and delivers practical and inspirational direction throughout Dog Is My Co-Pilot Bark Editors,2009-02-04 Dogs have been our muses our mentors and our playful and noble co pilots They ve had a profound influence on us as healers and spiritual guides and also as co workers helping to guide hunt herd search and rescue Our bond with dogs is deep and unbreakable and there s no better source a reader can turn to for a richer understanding of that complex and wonderful relationship than The Bark The Bark began as a newsletter in Berkeley California that advocated for an off leash area where dogs could cavort and play Within a few years it had become a full fledged award winning glossy magazine that published work by some of the best writers in America today And as it grew the magazine embraced a much larger canvas to cover the emerging phenomenon of dog culture that has been developing over the past decade as dogs have moved out of the backyard and into our homes communities and indeed the very center of our lives As editor Claudia Kawczynska writes The implications of integrating another species into society s daily fabric go well beyond how we nurture our dogs It calls for a revamping of the standard etiquette respecting the concerns and interests of society at large This new relationship along with an appreciation for our rich and unbounded future comprises what we call dog culture This is what The Bark set out to chronicle Dog Is My Co Pilot is an anthology of essays short stories and expert commentaries that explores every aspect of our life with dogs Fifty percent of the material here has never been published before The book is divided into four sections Beginnings explores that first meeting the initial murmurings when a dog human relationship is formed Pack investigates the theme of togetherness and pays tribute to the dynamic of multiple personalities in the canine human relationship Lessons examines what dogs teach us from love to enlightenment The final section Passages reflects on the themes of true friendship transformation and loss Included are pieces by Lynda Barry Rick Bass Maeve Brennan Margaret Cho Carolyn Chute Alice Elliott Dark Lama Surya Das Pam Houston Erica Jong Tom Junod Caroline Knapp Donald McCaig Nasdijj Ann Patchett Michael Paterniti Charles Siebert Alexandra Styron Elizabeth Marshall Thomas and Alice Walker In selections that are humorous poignant truthful sometimes surprising and frequently uplifting Dog Is My Co Pilot embraces the full experience of the world s oldest friendship For people who love great writing and yes great dogs it s a book to be both shared and treasured
