The History of Modern Korean Fiction (1890-1945) Young Min Kim, 2020-11-09 This book explores the history of modern Korean literature from a sociocultural perspective Rather than focusing solely on specific authors and their works Young Min Kim argues that the development of modern media shifting conceptualizations of the author and a growing mass readership fundamentally shaped the types of narratives that appeared at the turn of the twentieth century In particular Kim follows the trajectory of the sin sosol new fiction as it meshed with the new print and media culture to give rise to innovative and hybrid genres and literary styles In doing so he compellingly illuminates the relationship between literary systems and forms and underscores the necessity of re locating literary texts in their sociohistorical contexts The Waves of Raavi (Short stories) Suresh Babu Mishra, 2025-05-15 Human life and its activities have always been the center of infinite wonders and curiosity Literature is considered to be the most important means of knowing and understanding the activities and actions of any period Through literature we know and experience the living world in our neighbourhood surroundings and the living world spread across the world and its activities These experiences not only enrich us as readers but also make our perspective or viewpoint Story has been the most popular genre of literature since its inception Apart from other genres of literature the most natural quality of a story is that it interests and attracts people of every age group The child's mind steps into adolescence youth adulthood and old age while listening to stories At every stage of life the story stands firmly with us like a companion That is why it is even said that stories are the most efficient guides in our life journey The fundamental analysis of a story has its base points which have been determined and defined by scholars Based on these critics review any story or story collection from their angle But I believe personally that if the story suggests ways of solution in the current circumstances along with looking at social conditions circumstances consistencies inconsistencies and inconsistencies then this step confirms the beneficial sentiment of literature Shri Suresh Babu Mishra is a well known writer of the country who has been associated with teaching work for a long time Naturally his literary and sensitive writer's mind is mixed with the sacred and heavy responsibilities of the education department The result of this is that his works are densely woven with humane sublime aspects The story collection The Waves of RAAVI is the latest story collection of Suresh Babu Mishra The collection has a total of twenty five stories which attract easily due to their thematic diversity The first story of the collection The Last Salute is the story of a brave soldier who completes his military mission while Unique Aura is the story of a patriotic Parvez Rasool who does not fall prey to the threats of terrorists due to his patriotism A Wounded Soldier touches the heart of the reader through Ghaus Khan a devotee of Allah who saves the life of an injured soldier by lying to the terrorist for the sake of the country s security while reading Scattered Blood the reader automatically bows his head in respect to the brave Raghuraj who instead of going home on Diwali sacrifices himself for the country due to tension on the border Similarly The Waves of RAAVI is the story of the elimination of a terrorist who was trying to obtain confidential files related to the country s security by pretending to be in love All the stories in the collection are meaningful and purposeful which strengthen the faith in humanity All these stories have different colors like patriotism humanity compassion companionship and inclusion which unfold in front of the reader simply and easily The language in all the stories of the collection is suitable to the environment circumstances and characters There is no verbosity regarding the language due to which the reader easily flows in the flow of the stories There is no unnecessary elaboration in the stories and the events are interconnected The characters environment plot and events of the stories do not seem to be a part of any imaginary world but seem to be familiar and nearby to you The stories have the struggle of life as well as the intense will to live There are the sad stories of social life as well as the melodious melody of humanity Certainly all the stories of the collection keep the reader engaged and enrich him with their emotions and impact I send my heartfelt best wishes for the publication of the collection I have full faith that all the stories of this collection will be fully desired and appreciated in the world of readers Dr Avneesh Yadav

the eyes of a master storyteller Días de lluvia Montserrat Lunati, 2018 Writers publishers readers and scholars have stopped apologising for the short story the genre is no longer a bad investment a trial exercise for a novel or a minor entertainment as demonstrated by exceptional writers with an almost exclusive dedication to it such as Jorge Luis Borges Alice Munro Quim Monzó or Cristina Fernández Cubas With deep roots in classic and medieval literatures and great achievements in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries the genre of the short story which benefits from the linguistic tightness of poetry and the narrative comforts of the novel has finally been recognised as having a hybrid identity of its own This volume re edits and expands a previous bilingual collection published in 1997 The first edition included stories by twelve writers Pilar Cibreiro Cristina Fernández Cubas Paloma Díaz Mas Adelaida García Morales Lourdes Ortiz Laura Freixas Marina Mayoral Mercedes Abad Rosa Montero Maruja Torres Soledad Puértolas and María Eugenia Salaverri The present edition adds another four Nuria Amat Juana Salabert Luisa Castro and Berta Mars The stories gathered in this second edition were written between 1980 and 2010 and testify to the richness and vitality of women's writing in contemporary Spain With the original texts in Spanish as well as facing page English translations an Introduction notes and bio bibliographical information on each author this volume is a useful tool for students of the Spanish language and culture at all levels It includes a selection of secondary reading on Spanish women writers and a selection of anthologies of Spanish short stories since 1997 The Long Road Home and Other Short Stories from the Silences in the Gospel of Mark James S.

Lowry, 2013-05-17 Borrowing from the ancient rabbinic use of midrash as a means of opening Scripture to students James Lowry has chosen six texts from among those in which he believes Mark deliberately left silences The author is convinced Mark hoped his readers would be encouraged to raise a variety of possibilities as to what the evangelist left unsaid Beginning with Mark choosing not to name the temptations of Jesus Mark 1:12-13 and concluding with Mark choosing to conclude his narrative with the women leaving the tomb of Jesus in stunned silence Mark 16:8 Lowry spins short stories that suggest several alternative ideas as to how the biblical narrative might have played In half of the tales Lowry enters the text and adds fictitious material to Mark's narrative In the other half his stories are set in the small textile town of Great Falls South Carolina where the author grew up in the 1950s The hope is these stories will encourage readers of Mark and groups of his readers to raise other possibilities The Complete Works of Mark Twain: Novels, Short Stories, Memoirs, Travel
