Short Stories From Abruzzo:

Short Stories from Abruzzo George Talbot, Dante Marianacci, 1993 Pescara Tales (1902) Gabriele D'Annunzio, 2017-07 The setting for his collection of eighteen stories by Gabriele D'Annunzio 1863-1938 was the Adriatic seaport of Pescara and its hinterland in the Italian region of Abruzzo the author depicting events and personalities from the time of his youth but also drawing from bygone incidents that were yet memorable in the area's folk history Pescara may not have had the cachet of celebrated cities such as Venice or Florence but sympathetically and wryly revealed here by the pen of one of Italy's great writers it lives and breathes with a vitality probably best compared to that of James Joyce's dear dirty Dublin Indeed Joyce who admired D'Annunzio may well have been inspired by the Italian's cameos of small town life his parade of saints voluptuaries and reprobates their repressions obsessions individual dissolutions collective explosions of anarchy and their aptness for bizarre behavior that extended from the catatonic to the manic D'Annunzio came to recognize just how exotic his native region was after he had left it for Rome where he worked for some years as a journalist and essay writer in the employ of various literary magazines His Abruzzo articles and especially those in which he records examples of extraordinary devotional behavior akin to what Mark Twain was witnessing at that time on the banks of the Ganges became the basis of the stories in this collection D'Annunzio was a published poet at the age of sixteen and his verse has never been absent from the Western Canon since Something of his painterly style the layered brushwork of his descriptions the gorgeous romantic renderings of rural scenes and the moods of the sea his celebrations of sensuality his aesthete's fascination with all the possible bodily conditions from the virginal voluptuous to the decayed and moribund he has been hailed as the body's poet will amaze and delight the reader even in the blandest and most dictionary dependent translation The present one is no such however Vladislav Zhukov is an experienced translator who has rendered works from four languages into English including a substantial book of poetry three volumes of short stories and a novel all available on Amazon.com His knowledge of Italian is that of someone who acquired the language while living in Italy during his youth Her Story! A Tribute to Italian Women Peter Loyson, 2021-03-30 A unique book Italian women at their best What talent This book is a must read for everyone who loves Italian culture and those who appreciate talented women Extensively researched with hundreds of references it is a comprehensive encyclopedic analysis highlighting the length and breadth of Italy's most incredibly talented women including 114 writers 56 opera singers 63 other singers 55 musicians 52 film icons 39 fashion designers 59 medical women 40 chefs 47 artists 23 academics and 114 sportswomen amongst others All discussed in chronological order in each of their fields with many interesting stories including a chapter on the emigration of impressive female Italian talent Italian Literature since 1900 in English Translation 1929-2016 Robin Healey, 2019-03-07 Providing the most complete record possible of texts by Italian writers active after 1900 this annotated bibliography covers over 4 800 distinct editions of writings by some 1 700 Italian authors Many entries are accompanied by useful notes that provide information on the authors

The Pomegranates and Other Modern Italian Fairy Tales Cristina Mazzoni, 2021-09-14 A collection of magical Italian folk and fairy tales most in English for the first time The Pomegranates and Other Modern Italian Fairy Tales presents twenty magical stories published between 1875 and 1914 following Italy's political unification In those decades of political and social change folklorists collected fairy tales from many regions of the country while influential writers invented original narratives in standard Italian drawing on traditional tales in local dialects and translated others from France This collection features a range of these entertaining jewels from such authors as Carlo Collodi most celebrated for the novel Pinocchio and Domenico Comparetti regarded as the Italian Grimm to Grazia Deledda the only Italian woman to have received the Nobel Prize in Literature With one exception all of these tales are appearing in English for the first time The stories in this volume are linked by themes of metamorphosis a man turns into a lion a dove and an ant a handsome youth emerges from a pig's body and three lovely women rise out of the rinds of pomegranates There are also more introspective transformations a self-absorbed princess learns about manners a melancholy prince finds joy again and a complacent young woman discovers gratitude Cristina Mazzoni provides a comprehensive introduction that situates the tales in their cultural and historical context The collection also includes period illustrations and biographical notes about the authors Filled with adventures supernatural and fantastic events and brave and flawed protagonists The Pomegranates and Other Modern Italian Fairy Tales will delight surprise and astonish

The BBC National Short Story Award 2015 Hilary Mantel, Jonathan Buckley, Mark Haddon, Frances Leviston, Jeremy Page, 2015-09-17 I often ask myself what makes a story work wrote the great American author Flannery O'Connor I have decided that it is probably some action some gesture of a character which is both totally right and totally unexpected one that is both in character and beyond character The five stories shortlisted for this year's BBC National Short Story Award with Book Trust all feature people making just such gestures acting in ways that reach beyond themselves a woman takes refuge from a disastrous relationship by caring for a morbidly obese man parents of a missing girl desperately resort to the services of a woman whose talents they barely credit a middle class resident of a leafy corner of Windsor finds herself caught at a crossroads in history a young man attempts to impress his girlfriend's unconventional parents to excruciating comic effect and a young woman attempts to stitch together her own approach to life in the face of love In each case we see an individual endeavouring to stand up to make a difference to be part of something bigger Now in its tenth year the BBC National Short Story Award has witnessed a decade of revival for the form and the stories on this list show just what fine fettle it's in The shortlist was selected by crime writer Ian Rankin novelist Tash Aw previous winner Sarah Hall BBC Books Editor Di Speirs and former BBC correspondent and journalist Allan Little who chaired the panel and introduces this collection
