American Book Publishing Record ,2003 True Lies and Short Takes Eugene L. Stelzig,2022-10-12 This gathering of autobiographical essays focuses on different experiences and periods of the author's life and hybrid identity a childhood spent in Austria teenage years in an American school and then a lycée in France coming to the U S as a young adult and attending college studying in England for two years and then settling permanently in the U S into an academic career The word essay in the title is meant in its original or French sense as an attempt or trial The twenty four items in this gathering are a kaleidoscopic collection of such attempts at different modes of self reflexivity They are arranged not so much in the chronological order of their composition as by way of loosely assembled thematic clusters True lies suggests that by transforming lived experiences into language by way of memory imagination and reflection and often years and decades later we inevitably alter them as we write them down But we also re experience them and in so doing shift them into another register These recollections cover a wide range of experiences Stelzig's early years his absurd encounter with a barber in Salzburg his mysterious Buddha experience in Hong Kong his travel misadventure in Spain his career as an aspiring poet his commitment to teaching Shakespeare's plays his love of dogs and of tennis and the death of a nineteen year old Austrian au pair girl True Lies is divided into three parts Austrian Roots addresses Stelzig's early years including his relationship with his Austrian parents Adult Branchings focuses on his American adult life and identity The final section Falling Leaves is for the most part a set of reflections on the later stages of life and the sense of mortality and of time running out the challenge of being in time and the question of what remains Research in Basic Writing Martin Jacobi,Michael G. Moran,1990-02-15 This reference handbook surveys research on the central issue associated with the teaching of unprepared writers Though basic writing has only been recognized as a distinct area of teaching and research since 1975 the existing bibliographic texts already seem limited due to their age or lack of annotation This volume provides current and extensive bibliographic essays and will help to define this new field of study for teachers and researchers Following an introduction that summarizes the origins and significant texts in basic writing the book is divided into three sections Social Science Perspectives Linguistic Perspectives and Pedagogical Perspectives The first section which contains three essays views the field through the lens of social psychological and political issues The second section also containing three essays examines contributions made from studies of grammar dialects and second language acquisition The third section in its four essays focuses on the design development administration and evaluation of basic writing courses the use of computers in basic writing classrooms the role of the writing lab and the preparation of basic writing teachers An appendix that reviews current textbooks for basic writing courses is also included as well as an index This book will be a valuable resource for teachers of basic writing in education courses and workshops that train teachers and tutors and in fields such as linguistics technical writing and Teaching English

The Cumulative Book Index ,1999 Crossing Borderlands Andrea Lunsford,Lahoucine Ouzgane,2012-01-12 On the surface postcolonial studies and composition studies appear to have little in common However they share a strikingly similar goal to provide power to the words and actions of those who have been marginalized or oppressed Postcolonial studies accomplishes this goal by opening a space for the voices of others in traditional views of history and literature Composition studies strives to empower students by providing equal access to higher education and validation for their writing For two fields that have so much in common very little dialogue exists between them Crossing Borderlands attempts to establish such an exchange in the hopes of creating a productive borderland where they can work together to realize common goals The Centrality of Style Mike Duncan,Star Medzerian Vanguri,2013-04-07 In The Centrality of Style editors Mike Duncan and Star Medzerian Vanguri argue that style is a central concern of composition studies even as they demonstrate that some of the most compelling work in the area has emerged from the margins of the field WPA, Writing Program Administration ,1994
