Show and Tell Dan Roam, 2014-04-10 If I tell you the truth if I tell it with a story and if I tell that story with pictures I can keep you glued to your seat Let me show you how For the vast majority of us giving a presentation is an extremely difficult and nerve wracking process whether we're in a one on one meeting a conference room with a dozen strangers or a lecture hall in front of thousands But according to Dan Roam the visual communications expert and acclaimed author of The Back of the Napkin it doesn't have to be so hard We struggle when we forget the basic steps we learned in kindergarten show and tell In this short but powerful book Roam introduces a new set of tools for making extraordinary presentations in any setting He also draws on ideas he's been honing for more than two decades as an award winning presenter who has brought his whiteboard everywhere from Fortune 500 companies to tiny startups to the White House Even if you're already a good speaker you'll learn more about understanding your audience organizing your content building a clear storyline creating effective visuals and channeling your fear into fun And you'll master three fundamental rules When we tell the truth we connect with our audience we become passionate and we find self confidence When we tell a story we make complex concepts clear we make ideas unforgettable and we include everyone When we use pictures people see exactly what we mean we captivate our audience's mind and we banish boredom From nailing the opening to leaving a lasting impression you'll soon be able to give the performance of a lifetime time after time
