MAA VILI L HTEENM KI AND PAULIINA REMES This book is about consciousness It illuminates the concept in its complexity and richness capturing its theoretical and philosophical significance as well as its problematic aspects By taking a new look into the history of concepts the collection questions several deep seated assumptions about consciousness assumptions both thematic and methodological It argues that even though our predecessors did not formulate their philosophical queries in terms of consciousness they have much to offer to our current disputes concerning its central features such as reflexivity subjectivity and aboutness as well as related themes from selfhood to attention and embodiment At the same time the collection demonstrates that consciousness is not just an issue in the philosophy of mind but is bound to ontology epistemology and moral theory We can find premodern and early modern concepts and arguments that are interesting and even crucial to our own philosophical concerns but we should not assume that these belong or contribute to any theory of mind isolated from metaphysical and ethical discussions an argument that for us provides insightful descriptions of perception or self awareness might to its writer have meant not just a theoretization of the soul or the mind but also and perhaps more importantly a contribution to ethics or ontology

The Road from Damascus Robin Yassin-Kassab, 2008-06-05 It is summer 2001 and Sami Traifi has escaped his fraying marriage and minimal job prospects to visit Damascus In search of his roots and himself he instead finds a forgotten uncle in a gloomy back room and an ugly secret about his beloved father Returning to London Sami finds even more to test him as his young wife Muntaha reveals that she is taking up the hijab Sami embarks on a wilfully ragged journey in the opposite direction away from religion but towards what As Sami struggles to understand Muntaha s newly deepened faith her brother Ammar s hip hop Islamism and his father in law s need to see grandchildren so his emotional and spiritual unraveling begins to accelerate And the more he rebels the closer he comes to betraying those he loves edging ever nearer to the brink of losing everything Set against a powerfully evoked backdrop of multi ethnic multi faith London The Road from Damascus explores themes as big as love faith and hope and as fundamental as our need to believe in something bigger than ourselves whatever that might be The People of the Book and the People of the Dubious Book (Penerbit USM) Muhammad Azizan Sabjan,2008 The question of the People of the Book Ahl al Kit b has long been of central significance to Islam and later to the study of comparative religion It becomes more crucial when Ab al Fath Muhammad Abd al Kar m al Shahrast n d 548 1153 develops another category known as Man Lahu Shubhat Kit b those who possess doubtful sacred scrolls or Ahl Shubhat Kit b the People of a Dubious Book The present book thus is of importance as it highlights the nature of the People of the Book and the People of a Dubious Book as understood in the Qur n and Islamic religious tradition The discussion is carried out both by analyzing Islam as the only genuinely revealed religion as well as by addressing various Muslim scholars attitudes and responses to the reality and nature of the People of the Book and the People of a Dubious Book apropos the Qur n and the Islamic religious tradition Evaluation of the nature of the People of a Dubious Book as exclusively developed by al Shahrast n is also discussed It points out how he identifies these groups and how he treats them accordingly in his magnum opus al Milal wa al Nihal It is hoped that this book will provide a preliminary yet clear understanding of this concept which hopefully can deepen our knowledge and enhance our perspective on the various delineations of the People of the Book and the People of a Dubious Book employed by Muslim scholars This will eventually widen our sphere of the understanding of religious issues and any misunderstanding or narrowed perception of other religious traditions could be avoided Islam, Modernity and a New Millennium Ali Paya,2018-02-02 As the world becomes increasingly globalised Islam faces some important choices Does it seek to modernise in line with the cultures in which it is practised or does it retain its traditions even if they are at odds with the surrounding society This book utilizes a critical rationalist viewpoint to illuminate many of the hotly contended issues in modern Islam and to offer a fresh analysis A variety of issues within Islam are discussed in this book including Muslims and modernity Islam Christianity and Judaism approaches to the understanding of the Quran Muslim identity and civil society doctrinal certainty and violent radicalism In each case the author makes use of Karl Popper s theory of critical rationalism to uncover new aspects of these issues and to challenge post modern relativist literalist and justificationist readings of Islam This is a unique perspective on contemporary Islam and as such will be of significant interest to scholars of Religious Studies Islamic Studies and the Philosophy of Religion

Enlightenment in an Age of Destruction Christopher Britt,Paul Fenn,Eduardo Subirats,2018-01-30 This book is about the ways in which modern enlightenment rather than liberating humanity from tyranny has subjected us to new servitude imposed by systems of mass manipulation electronic vigilance compulsive consumerism and the horrors of a seemingly unending global war on terror The main intellectual aims of this title are the following the analysis of spectacle the criticism of providential enlightenment and the examination of positive dialectics The spectacle in this case is the apotheosis of the culture industries a total inversion of reality and of our existences Providential enlightenment is not only a critique of the failure of enlightenment but of the mutilation of historical enlightenments Positive dialectics signal a new era of intellectual engagement in the construction of our historical future During a time in which national democracies seem an imperial farce it is not enough for intellectuals faced with all this destruction to blithely recommend resistance The book thus ties American British French and German theoretical traditions into a reflexive challenge to the notion of intellectual as critic and argues instead for a trespassive tradition of cultural leadership

The Islamic Context of the Thousand and One Nights

Muḥsin Jāsim Mūsawī, 2009 In this fascinating study Muhsin J al Musawi shows how deeply Islamic heritage and culture is embedded in the tales of The Thousand and One Nights known to many as the Arabian Nights and how this integration invites readers to make an Islamic milieu Conservative Islam dismisses The Thousand and One Nights as facile popular literature and liberal views disregard the rich Islamic context of the text Approaching the text with a fresh and unbiased eye al Musawi reads the tales against Islamic schools of thought and theology and recovers persuasive historical evidence to reveal the cultural and religious struggle over Islam that drives the book's narrative tension and binds its seemingly fragmented stories Written by a number of authors over a stretch of centuries The Thousand and One Nights depicts a burgeoning urban Islamic culture in all its variety and complexity As al Musawi demonstrates the tales document their own places and periods of production reflecting the Islamic individual's growing exposure to a number of entertainments and temptations and their conflict with the obligations of faith Aimed at a diverse audience these stories follow a narrative arc that begins with corruption and ends with redemption conforming to a paradigm that concurs with the sociological and religious concerns of Islam and the Islamic state By emphasizing Islam in his analysis of these entertaining and instructional tales al Musawi not only illuminates the work's consistent equation between art and life but he also sheds light on its underlying narrative power His study offers a brilliant portrait of medieval Islam as well especially its social political and economic institutions and its unique practices of storytelling

Islamic Philosophy and Occidental Phenomenology in Dialogue Anna-Teresa Tymieniecka, Nazif Muhtaroglu, Detlev Quintern, 2014-08-06 The contributions composed in this volume are inspired not only by the necessity but also by the potentialities of a process which continues and deepens cross cultural understanding especially between Islamic and Western philosophy Following the tradition of an East Western symphony of thoughts the authors focus on common horizons and while applying comparative and historical approaches varieties of unity appear on the ways towards a New Enlightenment The creative force orchestrating the harmony in the web of Life communicates in the mean time with the capacities of human beings advancing in deciphering its micro macrocosmic dimensions Here the encounter of the Logos of Life Philosophy A T Tymieniecka and Islamic Philosophy open the space for constructive disputation In the wake of the crisis of postmodern unknowability paths towards a new critique of reason go hand in hand with fundamental issues being reflected newly

Memoirs of a Moth Tosun Bekir Bayraktaroğlu, 2013-12-31

Shaykh Tosun Bayrak's life is so full that it is hard to state it in a few words. When he was young he was a socialist in the West, he was a bohemian and anarchist in Morocco, a rich man and an aristocrat in Istanbul, a dervish, and in New York he becomes a shaykh. In his long and passionate life, Shaykh Tosun has been in a spiritual quest. Through this memoir, we witness not only the life of Tosun Baba but also the republican epoch of Turkey. An incredible journey of transformation from having everything of the World into becoming nothing.

The Story of Reason in Islam Sari Nusseibeh, 2016-11-09

In The Story of Reason in Islam, leading public intellectual and political activist Sari Nusseibeh narrates a sweeping intellectual history, a quest for knowledge inspired by the Qur'an and its language, a quest that employed Reason in the service of Faith. Eschewing the conventional separation of Faith and Reason, he takes a fresh look at why and how Islamic reasoning evolved over time. He surveys the different Islamic schools of thought and how they dealt with major philosophical issues, showing that Reason pervaded all disciplines, from philosophy and science to language, poetry, and law. Along the way, the best-known Muslim philosophers are introduced in a new light. Countering received chronologies, in this story Reason reaches its zenith in the early seventeenth century; it then trails off, its demise as sudden as its appearance. Thereafter, Reason loses out to passive belief, lifeless logic, and a self-contained legalism, in other words, to a less flexible Islam. Nusseibeh's speculations as to why this occurred focus on the fortunes and misfortunes of classical Arabic in the Islamic world. Change, he suggests, may only come from the revivification of language itself.
