Stories from Home Margaret Ponsonby, 2016-04-01 Most homes in the past were not elite wealthy interiors complete with high fashion furnishings designed by well known architects and designers as many domestic histories often seem to have assumed As this book makes clear there were in fact an enormous variety of house interiors in England during the period 1750 1850 reflecting the location status and gender of particular householders as well as their changing attitudes tastes and aspirations By focusing on non metropolitan homes which represented the majority of households in England this study highlights the need for historians to look beyond prevailing attitudes that often reduce interiors to generic descriptions based on high fashions of the decorative arts Instead it shows how numerous social and cultural influences affected the manner in which homes were furnished and decorated Issues such as the availability of goods gender regional taste income the second hand market changing notions of privacy and household hierarchies and print culture could all have a significant impact on domestic furnishing The study ends with a discussion of how domestic interiors of historic properties have been presented and displayed in modern times highlighting how competing notions of the past can cloud as well as illuminate the issue Combining cultural history and qualitative analysis of evidence this book presents a new way of looking at ordinary and provincial homes that enriches our understanding of English domestic life of the late eighteenth and early nineteenth centuries Studies on the History of Papermaking in Britain Alfred H. Shorter, 2024-08-07 The late A H Shorter is widely acknowledged for his pioneering work on the history of the British paper making industry and his books continue to provide the basis for further research The present volume brings together all his many articles hitherto scattered across a variety of specialist publications and often virtually inaccessible In these studies Dr Shorter tackled the subject with a broader scope than was possible in his books in particular they cover the period after 1800 tracing the changing geographical pattern of the industry They also contain a wealth of detailed information on papermaking across Britain notably in the counties of southwest England that is impossible to find elsewhere and is now made accessible through the comprehensive indexes to the volume Le regret A H Shorter est largement reconnu pour ses travaux originaux sur l'histoire de l'industrie papetière britannique et ses ouvrages continuent d'être la base de toutes recherches supplémentaires Le présent volume rassemble la totalité de ses nombreux articles jusqu'à présent dispersés sur tout un éventail de publications spécialisées et bien trop souvent inaccessibles Au travers de ces études l'auteur s'attaque au sujet sur un rayon plus large que cela n'avait été possible dans ses livres couvrant en particulier la période après 1800 et traitant la structure géographique de l'industrie Le recueil contient aussi abondance d'informations détaillées sur la fabrication du papier partout en Grande Bretagne notamment dans les comtés du sud-ouest de l'Angleterre et qu'il est impossible de trouver ailleurs The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 2004 Old Plate, Its Makers & Marks John Henry Buck, 1903 Library of Congress Catalogs Library of Congress, 1979 Peaceful Path Stephen Ward, 2016-03-14 The title of this book is taken from Ebenezer Howard's visionary tract To-morrow A Peaceful Path to Real Reform Published in 1898 as a manifesto for social reform via the creation of Garden Cities it proposed a new way of providing cheap and healthy homes workplaces and green spaces in balance in cohesive new communities underpinned by radical ideas about collective land ownership While Howard's vision had international impact in this book planning historian Stephen Ward largely honors the special place that Hertfordshire occupies on the peaceful path beginning with the development of Letchworth and Welwyn Garden Cities The Cabinet-Maker's Guide ... Fifth Edition, ... Augmented, Etc G. A. SIDDONS, 1830 Albert Einstein Stephanie Sammartino McPherson, 2008-01-01 Part of a series which explores the lives of famous figures in history Each book includes sidebars a timeline and cartoon illustrations Christopher Columbus Susan Bivin Aller, 2009-04
