Sickle and Crescent Michael Charles Williams, 1982 Sickle and Crescent Michael C. Williams, 1982-05 Sickle and Crescent Michael C. Williams, 2009-12 Originally published Ithaca N Y Cornell Modern Indonesia Project Southeast Asia Program Cornell University 1982 The Russian Revolution in Asia Sabine Dullin, Étienne Forestier-Peyrat, Yuexin Rachel Lin, Naoko Shimazu, 2021-12-30 The Russian Revolution in Asia From Baku to Batavia presents a unique and timely global history intervention into the historiography of the Russian Revolution of 1917 marking the centenary of one of the most significant modern revolutions It explores the legacies of the Revolution across the Asian continent and maritime Southeast Asia with a broad geographic sweep including Iran the Caucasus Central Asia China the Philippines Vietnam Indonesia and India It analyses how revolutionary communism intersected with a variety of Asian contexts from the anti colonial movement and ethnic tensions to indigenous cultural frameworks and power structures In so doing this volume privileges Asian actors and perspectives examining how Asian communities reinterpreted the Revolution to serve unexpected ends including national liberation regional autonomy conflict with Russian imperial hegemony Islamic practice and cultural nostalgia Methodologically this volume breaks new ground by incorporating research from a wide range of sources across multiple languages many analysed for the first time in English language scholarship This book will be of use to historians of the Russian Revolution especially those interested in understanding transnational and transregional perspectives of its impact in Central Asia and Southeast Asia as well as historians of Asia more broadly It will also appeal to those interested in the history of Islam Communism, Cold War, and Revolution Matthew Woolgar, 2025-05-22 During the 1950s and first half of the 1960s the Indonesian Communist Party grew from a few thousand members to become the third largest communist party in the world before it was annihilated in a violent purge in 1965-6 that saw perhaps half a million alleged communists killed Whilst a growing body of scholarship has analysed the anti communist violence of 1965-6 much less has been written about the Party's experience and significance in the preceding decade and a half Communism Cold War and Revolution The Indonesian Communist Party in West Java 1949-1966 is the first major study of the Party during that period to be written since the end of the Cold War The book examines the Party's development at the intersection of world communism a global Cold War and Indonesia's revolution It shows that the Party represented both a revolutionary organisation and a vibrant movement which was both linked to international networks and deeply intertwined with Indonesia's social fabric In this book Matthew Woolgar introduces the term archipelagic communism to encapsulate the ability of the Party to achieve impressive growth amid a growing pluralism in global communism and a context of extreme local cultural and social diversity Woolgar takes the case study of West Java a populous and diverse province which had a substantial communist presence as an entry point for examining these developments The study draws on a wide array of sources ranging from interviews and government documents to newly available Party archives to recreate Party life in unprecedented depth The study traces the dialogue that communist leaders engaged in with foreign comrades but also argues that key to the Party's growth were activist energies at the grassroots and the Party's efforts to navigate social cultural and ethnic cleavages within Indonesian society. It shows how the Party became entangled with trade unionism, land conflicts, struggles for women's rights, youth activism and cultural activities. It also delineates how conservative elites backed by Western governments used counter revolutionary violence to destroy the Communist Party and institute a wide ranging reshaping of Indonesian society removing labour rights reversing land reforms enforcing a patriarchal state ideology and reinforcing markers of ethnic and religious difference.

Communication against Capital Rianne Subijanto, 2025-02-15. Communication against Capital explores the revolutionary communication strategies of the pergerakan merah the anticolonial red movement in 1920s Indonesia. Rianne Subijanto tells the story of ordinary lower class women and children and people of diverse races and ethnicities who waged their battles against Dutch colonialism within multiple arenas of communication including political associations, assemblies, printed matter, schools and shipping lines. Existing communication technologies were repurposed into mechanisms of struggle and used as weapons in anticolonial and anticapitalist resistance. In this process communist ideas merged with ideals drawn from the Enlightenment to shape the emancipatory spirit of Indonesians. This red enlightenment motivated the production of revolutionary communication strategies of mobilization. Subijanto's innovative work shows that the novel techniques of the pergerakan merah served to shift anticolonial mobilization in Indonesia from warfare to modern forms of communication.

A Global Radical Waterfront Holger Weiss, 2021-07-05. This volume investigates the ambition of the Red International of Labour Unions to radicalize the global waterfront during the interwar period. The main vehicle was the International Propaganda Committee of Transport Workers replaced in 1930 by the International of Seamen and Harbour Workers as well as their agitation and propaganda centres the International Harbour Bureaus and the International Seamen's Clubs. The book scrutinizes their solidarity campaigns in support of local and national strikes as well as on their agitation against discrimination, segregation and racism within the unions, their demands to organize non white maritime transport workers and their calls for engagement in anti fascist, anti war and anti imperialist actions. Cold War Asia Hajimu

Masuda, 2025-05-13. Conventional narratives of the Cold War revolve around high level diplomats and state leaders in Washington, Beijing and Moscow but this anthology instead reveals how ordinary people across Asia experienced the era. Heavily rooted in oral history, this study takes readers to the villages of rural Java, the jungles of northern Thailand, the indigenous tribal communities of Kerala, India and many other places in this vast region. Masuda Hajimu organizes each chapter around the theme of many Cold Wars or more precisely the many local and social wars that were imagined as part of the global Cold War. These histories raise fundamental questions about standard Cold War narratives encouraging readers to rethink why the Cold War still matters. Print and Power Shawn Frederick McHale, 2008-03-27 In this ambitious and path breaking book Shawn McHale challenges long held views that define modern Vietnamese history in terms of anticolonial nationalism and revolution McHale argues instead for a historiography that does not overstress either the role of politics in general or Communism in particular Using a wide range of sources from Vietnam France and the United States many of them previously unexploited he shows how the use of printed matter soared between 1920 and 1945 and in the process transformed Vietnamese public life and shaped the modern Vietnamese consciousness Print and Power begins with an overview of Vietnam's lively public spheres bringing debates from Europe and the rest of Asia to Vietnamese studies with nuance and sophistication It examines the impact of the French colonial state on Vietnamese society as well as Vietnamese and East Asian understandings of public discourse and public space Popular taste rather than revolutionary or national ideology determined to a large extent what was published with limited intervention by the French authorities A vibrant but hierarchical public realm of debate existed in Vietnam under authoritarian colonial rule The work goes on to contest the impact of Confucianism on premodern and modern Vietnam and based on materials never before used provides a radically new perspective on the rise of Vietnamese communism from 1929 to 1945 Novel interpretations of the Nghe Tinh soviets 1930 1931 the first major communist uprising in Vietnam and Vietnamese communist successes in World War II built an audience for their views and made an extremely alien ideology comprehensible to growing numbers of Vietnamese In what is by far the most thorough examination in English of modern Vietnamese Buddhism and its transformations McHale argues that contrary to received wisdom Buddhism was not in decline during the 1920 1945 period in fact more Buddhist texts were produced in Vietnam at that time than at any other in its history This finding suggests that the heritage of the Vietnamese past played a crucial role in the late colonial period Print and Power makes a significant contribution to Vietnamese and Asian studies and will be of compelling interest to those
