not determinative outline of generic development noting the shifting generic features that emerge in context of a given work s predecessors Drawing heavily on primary sources then contemporary reviews and archival material in the form of extra illustrated or scrapbooked editions of the biographies this text is invested in the ways that the increasing emphasis on materiality was designed to consolidate but often challenged the biographer s authority This turn to materiality also authorized readerly participation allowing readers to co author biographies through the use of material insertions asserting their own presence in the texts about beloved thespians Metabiography Caitríona Ní Dhúill,2020-03-09 This book explores the contradictions of biography It charts shifting approaches to the writing and reading of biographies from post hagiographical attitudes of the Enlightenment heroic biographies of Romanticism and irreverent modernist portraits through to contemporary experiments in politically committed and hybrid forms of life writing The book shows how biographical texts in fact destabilise the models of historical visibility cultural prominence and narrative coherence that the genre itself seems to uphold Addressing the fraught relationships between genre and gender private and public image and text life and narrative that play out in the modern biographical tradition Metabiography suggests new possibilities for reading writing and thinking about this enduringly popular genre From Fighting Napoleon to the Scottish Military Academy Rosslyn Macphail,2024-12-30 Based on Captain John Orr s previously unseen campaign diary and personal documents this is the first biography of the man who would become Superintendent of the Scottish Naval Military Academy SNMA We follow John during his eighteen months in Portugal and Spain informed by his first hand accounts of the Battle of Salamanca the siege of Burgos and fighting in the Pyrenees Later he fought at Quatre Bras and was wounded at Waterloo He was retired on full pension in 1821 Ten years later aged 41 resigning himself that he would no longer be commissioned into a regiment he enrolled as a captain in the Edinburgh Militia Almost immediately he was asked to become the Superintendent of the Scottish Naval Military Academy which was situated in Edinburgh It had been established six years earlier and was struggling after the Directors had made a number of bad decisions John s appointment stabilised the SNMA and the enrolment started to grow He had enthusiasm for his job and managed to mix discipline with affection for the boys In 1832 the Duke of Wellington became President By the mid 1840s it had become a successful military college It sent over a thousand young men into the services including over a hundred who fought in the Crimean War Nearly every British army regiment had at least one officer who had studied at the SNMA Through John s letters the history of the Academy is interwoven with a description of the Orr family John died in 1879 aged 89 years old He was the last surviving member of the Black Watch who had fought at Waterloo The book is brought to life with paintings and photographs of John his family his uniform and pages from his Peninsular War diary It is an intimate portrait of a soldier who served his country on and off the battle field The Cambridge Companion to Byron Drummond Bone,2023-11-16 Expanded and diversified this companion makes vivid Byron s ongoing relevance to myriad issues of politics literature and life today
