Sidur Shir Hadash Siddur Shir Chadash For Youth And Family:

Siddur Shir Chadash ,1994-01-01 Siddur Hadash Jonathan D. Levine (Rabbi.),1997 Siddur Hadash Sidney Greenberg,Jonathan D. Levine (Rabbi.),2000 A First Siddur for Me & My Family Torah Aura Productions,2010 Think of it as consecration gift for the whole family Consider it to be an invitation to each of your families to actualize home celebration This simple hand sized Siddur presents the blessings and rituals for Shabbat the Jewish holidays and family functions such as hanging a mezuzah Here is a way to make building a Jewish life an easy simple thing to do The Voice of Children Sandy Eisenberg Sasso,Jeffrey L. Schein,2005 Journeys through the Siddur ,2005 Introduces the prayers and blessings of Shabbat home ritual Siddur Sha'ar Zahav Sha'ar Zahav,2009-01-01 Congregation Sha ar Zahav s first siddur appeared in 1982 It was revised in 1994and again in 2000 The richness of this siddur like the Sha ar Zahav community is rooted in its integration of Jewish tradition with egalitarian feminist and LGBTQ positive ideas and language With this edition we have sought to continue and expand the Sha ar Zahav tradition of creating liturgy that reflects who we are The compilers of the 2000 edition wrote A Jewish prayer book which had nothing in common with the traditional siddur would lack the wealth of history which connects our worship with Jewish practice around the world and over the centuries On the other hand many of us are uncomfortable with some of the imagery and language found in the prayer books of the major Jewish denominations in the United States With this prayer book we have attempted to capture the spirit of Jewish liturgy while avoiding the objectionable elements When Congregation Sha ar Zahav was founded in 1977 only a handful of synagogues offered full acceptance to bisexual transgender lesbian gay and queer identified Jews From the outset Sha ar Zahav has been a community that is open to all Sha ar Zahav is affiliated with the Union for Reform Judaism URJ and this siddur reflects many of the innovations of the Reform movement as well as the URJ s commitment to an evolving liturgical tradition The members of Congregation Sha ar Zahav the authors of most of the new material in this siddur come from many varied backgrounds movements affiliations traditions and practices Some identify with Ashkenazi Sephardi or Mizrahi traditions Some were born into Jewish families while some chose Judaism We are young and old and every age in between We have sought to reflect both our shared traditions and our differences in our liturgy In order to create a spiritual home for all who choose to enter our gates and in order to develop a siddur which will continue to resonate with the congregation and reflect our community s diversity we have tried to cast a wide liturgical net We have drawn from the traditions we have been handed we have sought out sources that have been hidden and we have tapped the creative gifts of our own community In this edition we have been mindful of and have sought to expand the principles which have distinguished this siddur in the past using non sexist language when referring to both people and God restoring visibility to women throughout Jewish tradition speaking directly to the experience of lesbian gay bisexual transgender and queer identified people understanding the concept of Jewish chosenness as uniqueness envisioning the Messianic time as the fulfillment of tikkun olam the repair of the world and seeing ourselves as participants in the holy work of repair Siddur Sha ar Zahav includes alternative English versions of prayers and alternative Hebrew and Aramaic so that our values can be reflected in all of our languages of prayer Because of the gravity of altering wording that may be hundreds of years old we spent considerable time developing guidelines for Hebrew prayers In keeping with the Sha ar Zahav tradition we decided not to remove customary versions of prayers but to add new versions alongside them We did not alter any passages taken from the Torah except to ensure gender inclusivity which is noted in the text Nor did we alter prayers such as the Mourners Kaddish which serve so powerfully to connect us to the Jewish people across time and space Where we did create new Hebrew versions we followed a set of principles which are discussed in the appendices Siddur Sha ar Zahav endeavors to respect the varied and at times contradictory sensibilities of our people and our congregation Our goal is for all of us progressive Jews within the Reform movement s umbrella regardless of gender identity or sexual orientation to see ourselves reflected in our liturgy so that none of us experience the invisibility and exclusion we have historically encountered Our prayer book attempts to embody the teaching that each of us is created b tzelem Elohim in the image of God While we know that not every reading will speak to each of us we hope that in these pages all of us will find a point of departure for prayer and for dialogue with the Source of creation

Vishny,2005 There is an architecture to the Siddur which is truly a work of splendor It was not created by one hand nor at one time or in one place The Siddur records the Jewish People's joyous searching for God but it also records their longing for redemption even as the text frequently marks suffering and hostile surroundings This work is intended to form the background for a meaningful devotion to prayer during the week and on the major festivals It will help guide the novice through the different prayers and make these prayers more understandable and fulfilling It will also give the daily davener a sense of where these prayers came from how the rabbis developed them and even their deeper purpose and meaning
