Siegfried & the Twilight of the Gods - Illustrated by Arthur Rackham Richard Wagner, 2011-05 In the second part of Margaret Armour's translation of possibly Wagner's best known work The Ring of the Nibelung the last two operas in the cycle Siegfried and The Twilight of the Gods are reproduced with colour plates by Arthur Rackham Rackham's hauntingly dark illustrations are perfectly suited to the drama an epic story that charts the struggles of gods heroes and mythical creatures loosely based on characters from the Norse sagas Many of the earliest children's books particularly those dating back to the 1850s and before are now extremely scarce and increasingly expensive Pook Press are working to republish these classic works in affordable high quality colour editions using the original text and artwork so these works can delight another generation of children About the Illustrator Arthur Rackham 1867-1939 was one of the premier illustrators of the early 20th Century He illustrated many books the first of which was published in 1893 His humour romance and soul made him the leading illustrator of the early twentieth century and his work is to be found in versions of almost every classic from Hansel and Gretel to The Tempest from The Pied Piper to Peer Gynt Characteristic of his work are gloomy forests of sinuous trees nubile fairy maidens and unsightly ogres and trolls Throughout his career he developed a very individual style that was to influence a whole generation of children artists and other illustrators His haunting humour and dreamlike romance adds to the enchantment and fantasy of children's literature
