Imperial Rome, Indian Ocean Regions and

Muziris K.S. Mathew, 2016-11-25 The battle of Actium waged in 31 BC and the annexation of Egypt in 30 BC to the Roman Empire opened up avenues for increased commercial contact between the Roman Empire South Asia in general and India in particular and the port of Muziris was the premier trading post of India In this volume eminent international scholars from the USA Switzerland United Kingdom France Italy as well as India provide detailed analysis of maritime trade in the Indian Ocean region in the early historic period Archaeological and Historical Aspects of West-European Societies Marc

Lodewijckx, 1996 The contents of this volume of essays in his honour gives a good overview of the fields in which Prof Van Doorselaer has been active throughout his academic career This book is especially an Album Amicorum filled with reminiscences and intentions to continue the work The voluminous size of this book may be considered as an adequate measure of the overall sympathy for Prof Van Doorselaer We hope that this publication may encourage him to remain active in the field of archaeology and that the co operation among colleagues stimulated by this project may be continued in the future Materialising the Roman Empire Jeremy Tanner, Andrew Gardner, 2024-03-19

Materialising the Roman Empire defines an innovative research agenda for Roman archaeology highlighting the diverse ways in which the Empire was made materially tangible in the lives of its inhabitants The volume explores how material culture was integral to the processes of imperialism both as the Empire grew and as it fragmented and in doing so provide up to date overviews of major topics in Roman archaeology Each chapter offers a critical overview of a major field within the archaeology of the Roman Empire The book's authors explore the distinctive contribution that archaeology and the study of material culture can make to our understanding of the key institutions and fields of activity in the Roman Empire The initial chapters address major technologies which at first glance appear to be mechanisms of integration across the Roman Empire roads writing and coinage The focus then shifts to analysis of key social structures oriented around material forms and activities found all over the Roman world such as trade urbanism slavery craft production and frontiers Finally the book extends to more abstract dimensions of the Roman world art empire religion and ideology in which the significant themes remain the dynamics of power and influence The whole builds towards a broad exploration of the nature of imperial power and the inter connections that stimulated new community identities and created new social divisions The Collection of Antiquities of the American

Academy in Rome Larissa Bonfante, Helen Nagy, Jacquelyn Collins-Clinton, 2015 A comprehensive presentation of the ancient and diverse artifacts from the American Academy in Rome's collection Innovative Vaulting in the Architecture of the Roman Empire Lynne C. Lancaster, 2015-11-12 This book studies six vaulting techniques employed in architecture outside of Rome and asks why they were invented where they were and how they were disseminated Most of the techniques involve terracotta elements in various forms such as regular flat bricks hollow voussoirs vaulting tubes and armchair voussoirs Each one is traced geographically via GIS mapping the results of which are analysed in relation to chronology geography and historical context The most common building type in which the techniques appear is the bath demonstrating its importance as a catalyst for technological innovation This book also explores trade networks the pottery industry and military movements in relation to building construction revealing how architectural innovation was influenced by wide ranging cultural factors many of which stemmed from local influences rather than imperial intervention Additional resources including extensive searchable databases with bibliographical data and colour illustrations available at www.cambridge.org/vaulting Roman

Crete: New Perspectives Jane E. Francis, Anna Kouremenos, 2016-05-31 The last several decades have seen a dramatic increase in interest in the Roman period on the island of Crete Ongoing and some long standing excavations and investigations of Roman sites and buildings intensive archaeological survey of Roman areas and intensive research on artifacts history and inscriptions of the island now provide abundant data for assessing Crete alongside other Roman provinces New research has also meant a reevaluation of old data in light of new discoveries and the history and archaeology of Crete is now being rewritten The breadth of topics addressed by the papers in this volume is an indication of Crete's vast archaeological potential for contributing to current academic issues such as Romanization acculturation climate and landscape studies regional production and distribution iconographic trends domestic housing economy and trade and the transition to the late Antique era These papers confirm Crete's place as a fully realized participant in the Roman world over the course of many centuries but also position it as a newly discovered source of academic inquiry Rome and the

Classic Maya Rebecca Storey, Glenn R Storey, 2017-01-20 This volume compares two of the most famous cases of civilizational collapse that of the Roman Empire and the Classic Maya world First examining the concept of collapse and how it has been utilized in the historical archaeological and anthropological study of past complex societies Storey and Storey draw on extensive archaeological evidence to consider the ultimate failure of the institutions infrastructure and material culture of both of these complex cultures Detailing the relevant economic political social and environmental factors behind these notable falls Rome and the Classic Maya contends that a phenomenon of slow collapse has repeatedly occurred in the course of human history complex civilizations are shown to eventually come to an end and give way to new cultures Through their analysis of these two ancient case studies the authors also present intriguing parallels to the modern world and offer potential lessons for the future The Roman Empire Colin Michael Wells, 1995 This sweeping history of the Roman Empire from 44 BC to AD 235 has three purposes to describe what was happening in the central administration and in the entourage of the emperor to indicate how life went on in Italy and the provinces in the towns in the countryside and in the army camps and to show how these two different worlds impinged on each other Colin Wells's vivid account is now available in an up to date second edition

Sigillate Pottery Of The Roman Empire : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This heartfelt tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover masterfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can triumph. Sigillate Pottery Of The Roman Empire : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This spellbinding historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids captivating storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This captivating coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens spins a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These top-selling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of engaging stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papan, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a masterful and thrilling novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
