Captaining the Corps d'Afrique John Newton Chamberlin,2016-07-14 I have stood by their side in the grim conflict wrote Union Captain John Chamberlin of the Corps d'Afrique Woe to the nation that long withholds their rights from them Chamberlin spent nearly five years in the South during and after the Civil War A well read observant and articulate writer he recorded his unique perspective as a commander of black soldiers and engineers More than everyday accounts of camp life and battles Chamberlin s letters and diaries here presented in historical context give an insider s view of the Union army s relationship with black troops and of the political and social implications of wartime events Late in the war his correspondence focused on a schoolmate Anna Bullock and their burgeoning relationship
