Urban Encounters Helen Liggett, 2003 In contrast to Walter Benjamin Henri Lefebvre and other European thinkers engaged with the concept of the urban American intellectuals tend to envision the modern city as a dystopia their perception of urban life influenced by negative stereotypes and fictional depictions in popular culture In Urban Encounters Helen Liggett challenges this fatalism by approaching the city as a vibrant lived space Combining a sophisticated critique of the urban with striking street level images Liggett reclaims the human experience of the city Liggett's encounters with the urban are sequences of images and text that combine the joy of observing with the pleasure of making connections For Liggett this entails recognizing both beauty and danger Alternately complementing and complicating her text Liggett's
