Eddie Winston Is Looking for Love

The background is a solid, vibrant red. Overlaid on this are several elements: three birds and a pocket watch. One bird, with brown, yellow, and blue plumage, is perched on the top of the word 'Winston'. Another bird, with brown, white, and yellow plumage, is perched on the word 'Looking'. A third bird, which is dark grey or black with a greenish-yellow throat, is perched on the word 'Love'. A gold-colored pocket watch with a chain is hanging from the left side of the word 'Looking'. Green leaves and branches are scattered around the birds and the watch.

Looking For Love A Novel:

Looking for a Love Story Louise Shaffer, 2010-04-06 In Louise Shaffer's delightfully charming new novel a hopeless romantic and author adrift searches for a happy ending and decides to write her own love story After the success of her first novel Love Max an irresistibly funny look at divorce as seen through a dog's eyes Francesca's fictional saga becomes real when her sexy photographer husband bails on her The good news is that Francesca gets custody of their apartment and their dog an adoring scamp who has mastered the art of unconditional love Still a girl and her dog have to eat so a desperate search for income leads Francesca to Chicky a spunky red haired octogenarian who wants Francesca to write the memoirs of her parents Joe and Ellie who toured the vaudeville circuit in the early 1920s Francesca is reluctant to take the job but Chicky's tales soon lure her into a showbiz era as irresistible and unlikely as the love story that unfolds As she re-creates Joe and Ellie's story Francesca reflects with hilarious honesty on her own childhood and marriage and discovers how to put the pieces of her life back together in a way that redefines herself and the true meaning of family and love Marthe's Search for Love Among Couples of Pine Trees. Hugo Van Bever, 2015-10-23 Mainly out of loneliness a messed up writer falls in love with Marthe his female main character and decides not to let her die as initially planned but to invite her into his life to help him write his next novel He also welcomes popular characters from other successful novels all experts in love In addition he summons Vivian a prostitute like Vivian from the movie Pretty Woman who is an expert in love for sale to spice up the story The characters and their writer embark on an erotic journey of sensuality sex and murder as the writer takes copious notes that turn into an unusual meta novel offering different vistas on life death murder and love The story ends in Vietnam at the lake of Dalat where according to an old legend pine trees formed intimate couples holding each other entwining their roots after a young couple committed suicide The legend renews itself at midnight the day the writer's group arrives Will they find love or will they seek death Looking for Love in the Legal Discourse of Marriage Renata Grossi, 2014-09-01 This book examines the invisibility of romantic love in the legal discourse surrounding modern Australian marriage It looks at how romantic love has become a core part of modernity and a dominant part of the Western marriage discourse and considers how the ideologies of romantic love are or are not replicated in the legal meaning of marriage This examination raises two key issues If love has become central to people's understanding of marriage then it is important for the legitimacy of law that love is reflected in both the content and application of the law More fundamentally it requires us to reconsider how we understand law and to ask whether it is engaged with emotions or separate from them Along the way this book also considers the meaning of love itself in contemporary society and asks whether love is a radical force capable of breaking down conservative meanings embedded in institutions like marriage or whether it simply mirrors them This book will be of interest to everyone working on love marriage and sexuality in the disciplines of law sociology and philosophy Looking for Other Worlds Jean-Charles Régine Michelle, 2022-11-10 What would it mean to reorient the study of Haitian literature toward ethics rather than the themes of politics engagement disaster or catastrophe Looking for Other Worlds engages with this question from a distinct feminist perspective and in the process discovers a revelatory lens through which we can productively read the work of contemporary Haitian writers R gene Michelle Jean Charles explores the ethical imagination of three contemporary Haitian authors Yanick Lahens Kettly Mars and Evelyne Trouillot contending that ethics and aesthetics operate in relation to each other through the writers respective novels and that the turn to ethics has proven essential in the twenty first century Jean Charles presents a useful framework for analyzing contemporary literature that brings together Black feminism literary ethics and Haitian studies in a groundbreaking way Living Up the Road from Laura Ingalls Dan L. White, 2015-01-07 Laura Ingalls and Almanzo Wilder lived in the Missouri Ozarks for over a half century They loved the scenery the mild climate their little Rocky Ridge Farm the people They loved their life in the Ozarks So what s it like to live a life like that just up the road from Laura s place Dan L White and family have done that for over a quarter century During that time they wrote a number of books about Laura and her books and her life Living Up the Road from Laura Ingalls With Excerpts from Seven Books about Her is a sampler of some of those books along with the story of their personal life in the Ozarks They found out that living up the way from Laura s place led to much the same way of life As she so well stated I believe we would be happier to have a personal revolution in our individual lives and go back to simpler living and more direct thinking It is the simple things of life that make living worthwhile the sweet fundamental things such as love and duty work and rest and living close to nature Writers' Handbook 2025 J.
