America's Great Railroad Stations Roger Straus,Hugh Van Dusen,Ed Breslin,2011-11-01 An evocative and stunning photographic tribute to America s railroad stations For much of the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries the railroad station or depot was the communal hub of every American town that could boast of train service There citizens gathered before they sent loved ones off to college marriage or war and where they greeted them on their return Most of these buildings were architectural gems and while many are still in service certain others now house museums banks restaurants and more In fact in cities like Washington D C and Philadelphia renovated stations are destinations unto themselves even for those not boarding the train And in other places whole sections of towns have been remade around these structures restoring their vitality in novel and interesting ways long after the last train has left the station In America s Great Railroad Stations award winning photographer Roger Straus III and two lifelong railroad buffs Ed Breslin and Hugh Van Dusen join forces to tell the astonishing story of these enduring structures and the important role they still play in the country s landscape Journeying from the Pennsylvania Railroad to the Union Pacific to Michigan Central and more readers will be dazzled by the Beaux Arts monuments of New York and the adobe buildings of the Southwest Filled with both new and archival photographs and drawings this volume is a glorious salute to the institution that transformed our nation Mountain Ash Elna Fone Nugent,2008-10-09 Mountain Ash has a double meaning It stands for my grandmothers mountain ash tree in our yard and how she gave me the title of this book It also stands for my breakthrough of consciousness experience when I was thirty seven when I rose from the ashes of a dark period in my mountain home Engineering ,1905 Universalist Union ,1838 I Remember California's Yesterdays Ruth Vivian Orzalli,2014-08-08 The articles in this book are part of a collection produced by my mother Ruth Vivian Greathouse Orzalli while writing a Bi Weekly I REMEMBER Column for the Sierra Booster a Bi Weekly Newspaper published by Hal Wright in Loyalton California Congressional Record United States.
