 Davis,2019-12-02 My spot on the nice list has always been secure As the Oak Creek Claus I've spent years spreading Christmas cheer in my small town But this holiday season there's more than snow clouding my view From skunk attacks to accounting chaos to my sister in law's high risk pregnancy I'm juggling more ornaments than our town square Christmas tree
 And then there's Opal Whittaker Oak Creek's new midwife who's spicier than gingerbread and all I want to find under my tree But Opal's got more walls than Santa's workshop and she seems to think I'm just a holiday fling I'm on a mission to win Opal's heart and show her that Oak Creek and my arms is where she belongs This year Santa's got a new Christmas wish and I'm calling in every favor to make it come true With a sack full of humor a town full of nosy neighbors and enough Christmas

 Frayn,2021-01-14 As finely worked as a Swiss watch and as funny as the human condition permits the zigzag brilliance of the text as the clunky lines of the farce within a farce rub against the sharp dialogue of reality The Guardian A play within a play following a touring theatre company who are rehearsing and performing a comedy called Nothing On results in a riotous double bill of comedic craft and dramatic skill Hurtling along at breakneck speed it shows the backstage antics as they stumble through the dress rehearsal at Weston super Mare then on to a disastrous matinee at Ashton under Lyne followed by a total meltdown in Stockton on Tees Michael Frayn's irresistible multi award winning backstage farce has been enjoyed by millions of people worldwide since it premiered in 1982 and has been hailed as one of the greatest British comedies ever written Winner of both Olivier and Evening Standard Awards for Best Comedy This edition features a new introduction by Michael Blakemore Frayn Plays: 1 Michael Frayn, 2017-01-12 One of theatre's subtlest most sophisticated minds The Times Alphabetical Order A comic essay about two types of woman a very intelligent comedy because of its classic simplicity and unusual in the way that the two types of women do not become stereotypes Daily Telegraph Donkeys Years a satire on the establishment and British Institutions Gorgeous farce all the funnier for emerging from credible aspirations and natural anxieties the play is richer and cannier than we expect farces to be New Statesman Clouds is a satire on government sponsored trips and a portrait of sexual jealousy it is poignantly and unerringly funny Guardian Make and Break is a satirical commentary on British corporate interests abroad Full of pain ruthless observation and a sense of humour which is sardonic lunatic and warm Sunday Times Noises Off the West End hit play about a company of actors stepping from a sex farce into their own nightmarish lives backstage A very intelligent joke about the fragility of all forms of drama a pulverisingly funny play Guardian All of these plays are attempts to show something of the world not to change it or to promote any particular idea of it That's not to say there are no ideas in them In fact what they are all about in one way or another is the way in which we impose our ideas upon the world around us it might be objected that one single theme is a somewhat sparse provision to sustain five separate and dissimilar plays I can only say that it is a theme which has occupied philosophers for over two thousand years and one which is likely to occupy them for at least two thousand more Michael Frayn Dot & Will Fannie Kilbourne, 1929
