the meaning of love in 2002 Life-Destroying Diagrams Eugenie Brinkema, 2022-01-14 In Life Destroying Diagrams Eugenie Brinkema brings the insights of her radical formalism to bear on supremely risky terrain the ethical extremes of horror and love Through close readings of works of film literature and philosophy she explores how diagrams grids charts lists abecedaria toroids tempos patterns colors negative space lengths increments and thresholds attest to formal logics of torture and cruelty violence and finitude friendship and eros debt and care Beginning with a wholesale rethinking of the affect of horror orienting it away from entrenched models of feeling toward impersonal schemes and structures Brinkema moves outward to consider the relation between objects and affects humiliation and metaphysics genre and the general bodily destruction and aesthetic generation geometry and scenography hatred and value love and measurement and ultimately the tensions hazards and speculative promise of formalism itself Replete with etymological meditations performative typography and lyrical digressions Life Destroying Diagrams is at once a model of reading without guarantee and a series of generative experiments in the writing of aesthetic theory Maternal Impressions Cristina Mazzoni, 2002 In an unusual combination of reflection autobiography theory and criticism Cristina Mazzoni looks at childbirth and early maternity from the perspective of an academic mother with three young children Mazzoni draws upon examples ranging from contemporary advice manuals and novels to the work of turn of the century Italian scientists and women writers as well as fairy tales religious texts psychoanalytic accounts and feminist theory Throughout her investigations of the various forces that shape cultural views of pregnancy and childbirth Mazzoni strives to imagine and deploy maternity as a concept and a reality capable of challenging conventional representations of subjectivity The questions she addresses dwell on relationship and interdependence the inseparability of the personal and the political and the connections and interactions between bodies and power Maternal Impressions is far more than a book of literary criticism and theory It reveals the multiple bonds and continuities between the contradictory ways in which pregnancy and childbirth were represented a century ago and the manner in which they still haunt feminist experience today In her conclusion Mazzoni points toward a possible ethics of maternity Engaging the Doctrine of Marriage Matthew Levering, 2020-08-12 This book is the next volume in Levering's Engaging Doctrine series The prior volume of the series examined the doctrine of creation The present volume examines the purpose of creation the marriage of God and humans God created the cosmos for the purpose of the marriage of God and his people and through his people the marriage of God and the entire creation Given that the central meaning or prime analogue of marriage is the marriage of God and humankind the study of human marriage needs to be shaped by this eschatological goal and foregrounded as a dogmatic theme After a first chapter defending and explaining the biblical witness to the marriage of God and his people the book explores various themes marriage as an image of God original sin as the fall of the primordial marriage the cross of Jesus Christ and marital self sacrificial love the procreative and unitive ends of marriage marriage as a sacrament and marriage's importance for social justice and for the upbuilding of the kingdom of God

Sororophobia Helena Michie, 1992 This book looks at how differences among women have been textually represented at a variety of historical moments and in a variety of cultural contexts including Victorian mainstream fiction African American mulatto novels late twentieth century lesbian communities and contemporary country music Sororophobia designates the complex and shifting relations between women's attempts to identify with other women and their often simultaneous desire to establish and retain difference Michie argues for the centrality to feminism of a paradigm that moves beyond celebrations of identity and sisterhood to a more nuanced notion of women's relations with other women which may include such uncomfortable concepts as envy jealousy and competition as well as more institutionalized ideas of difference such as race and class Chapters on literature are interspersed by inter chapters on the choreography of sameness and difference among women in popular culture The American Bible ..., 1902 Love Engineering Seongju Choi, 2019-06-12 Love

BOOK JACKET Kierkegaard M. Jamie Ferreira, 2009-02-23 The first comprehensive introduction to cover the entire span of Kierkegaard's authorship Explores how the two strands of his writing religious discourses and pseudonymous literary creations influenced each other Accompanies the reader chronologically through all the philosopher's major works and integrates his writing into his biography Employs a unique how to approach to help the reader discover individual texts on their own and to help them closely examine Kierkegaard's language Presents the literary strategies employed in Kierkegaard's work to give the reader insight into subtext Luce Irigaray and the Question of the Divine Alison Martin, 2000 This study examines Luce Irigaray's oeuvre through the question of the divine focusing upon her contention that women need a female divine if they are about to become subjects It attempts to demonstrate that the issue of the divine should not be considered as one aspect of her thought but that it is central to her philosophy of sexual difference Hence Irigaray's critique of patriarchy is presented as a critique of the dominance of a religion of masculinity that favours a single universal Her proposal for two sexed universal divines is explored along with her specific suggestions for female divine ideals Particular emphasis is given to her engagements with Marx Nietzsche and Hegelianism and to the mode of her adoption of Christianity The study applauds the radical profundity of Irigaray s philosophy of sexual difference while remaining critical of the universalism in her notion of the divine for the doubt it casts upon the realization of a sexed culture New-York Observer ,1906

Ecstatic Consumption Pavlina Radia,2016-12-14 While modernity aspired to fix radical alienation through aesthetics by assigning an ethical value to narratives contemporary literature and the arts are no longer immune to the impact of commodity culture amplified by globalization In the world of commodity corporate logic and cyborgs the very notion of identity is frequently turned into a spectacle Yet it is also simultaneously mobilized by the search for what Jean Baudrillard describes as the ecstatic form that materializes aesthetics Ecstatic Consumption The Spectacle of Global Dystopia in Contemporary American Literature investigates not only how these transformations affect gender racial and class relations as well as how they impact the representation of historical events Pop culture media and discourses of multiculturalism both important venues of and vehicles for globalization have had an extensive effect on contemporary writers like Don DeLillo Marge Piercy and Jane Smiley as have the discourses of terrorism and assimilation on the works of Diana Abu Jaber Chang Rae Lee Shalom Auslander and Alissa Torres As the works of these authors show the tendency to unify the world as a global village has been frequently complicit in perpetuating oppressive neo colonial ideologies As these writers reveal literature no longer provides a solid cure for the somnambulist culture of instant gratification On the global stage the body becomes the ultimate commodity the fetish of ecstatic consumption as it is persistently mobilized by the search for ecstatic avatar anti forms Whether these forms provide an escape into a utopian space or further enhance the dystopian ecstasy is a crucial query framing this book As it shows the works of DeLillo Smiley Piercy Abu Jaber Lee Auslander and Torres provide important and challenging commentaries on the ecstatic gaze of global dystopia particularly its appetite for alterity and the tragic often disguised as interchangeable metaphors of Otherness fear anxiety terror pain and pleasure titillation exoticism and ecstasy Consequently the book sheds light on the ways in which the culture of spectacle is ever evolving manipulating and affecting the global dependence on the ecstasy of consumption and its many different forms St. Paul's Epistle to the Romans Alexander Maclaren,1909 Plymouth Pulpit ,1871 The Religious Existentialists and the Redemption of Feeling Anthony Malagon,Abi Doukhan,2019-06-27 Traditional philosophizing has generally depended upon reason as its primary access to truth Subjective experiences such as feelings the passions and emotions have typically been viewed as secondary to reason untrustworthy or both The Religious Existentialists and the Redemption of Feeling revisits how the movement of existentialism via the religious existentialists has contributed to a rethinking of the role of subjective experience in contrast to the rationalist and idealist traditions thus reframing the importance of feelings in general for the philosophical enterprise as a whole Through the considerations of a variety of thinkers this collection provides a fresh look at the contributions of twentieth century existentialists thereby re contextualizing the very notion of existentialism offering a powerful and genuine re evaluation of the significance of subjectivity and underscoring the continued relevance of the religious existentialists
