Lovers Of Cinema The First American Film Avant Garde 1919 1945:

Lovers of Cinema Jan-Christopher Horak, 1995 Marshaling his broad cinematic and cultural knowledge editor Jan Christopher Horak has compiled in Lovers of Cinema a groundbreaking group of articles on this neglected film period With one exception all are original to this volume and many are the first to treat comprehensively such early filmmakers as Mary Ellen Bute Theodore Huff and Douglass Crockwell Also included in the book is a listing of all American avant garde films produced in the years before World War II as well as a bibliography of the most relevant criticism literature and news accounts

Adaptation and the Avant-Garde William Verrone, 2011-09-29 Adaptations have occurred regularly since the beginning of cinema but little recognition has been given to avant garde adaptations of literary or other texts This compelling study corrects such omissions by detailing the theory and practice of alternative adaptation practices from major avant garde directors Avant Garde films are often relegated to the margins because they challenge our traditional notions of what film form and style can accomplish Directors who choose to adapt previous material run the risk of severe critical dismay making films that are highly subjective interpretations or representations of existing texts takes courage and foresight An avant garde adaptation provokes spectators by making them re think what they know about film itself just as much as the previous source material Adaptation and the Avant Garde examines films by Peter Greenaway Jean Luc Godard Guy Maddin Jan Svankmajer and many others offering illuminating insights and making us reconsider the nature of adaptation appropriation borrowing and the re imagining of previous sources

Unseen Cinema Bruce Charles Posner, 2001 El proyecto de recuperaci n de pel culas hist ricas Unseen Cinema explora en detalle los logros desconocidos hasta la fecha de los cineastas pioneros que desarrollaron su labor dentro y fuera de las fronteras de Estados Unidos durante el periodo formativo del cine americano Con la colaboraci n de innumerables instituciones desde los archivos de la Academia de Cine de Hollywood el Museo de Arte Moderno de Nueva York MOMA el British Film Institute el Deustchen Film museum hasta el Gosfilmofond de Russia la recuperaci n de estas pel culas y su posterior organizaci n en 7 discos postula una visi n innovadora del cine experimental Un buen n mero de estas pel culas no hab a estado disponible desde su creaci n hace m s de un siglo algunas nunca se hab an proyectado en p blico y en casi todos los casos hasta ahora no se dispon a de una copia pr stina de proyecci n En palabras de su compilador se trata de rectificar una peque a parte de la negligencia con la que se ha tratado a los primeros cineastas y pel culas de vanguardia Pese a la exhaustiva labor de busca y rastreo por parte de Posner y otros historiadores del cine para desenterrar las copias de los filmes incluidos en la colecci n a d a de hoy muchas no han sido recuperadas

The Avant-Garde Feature Film William E.B. Verrone, 2011-11-08 Here is a critical and historical overview of unconventional and aesthetically challenging films all of feature length The author focuses on the particular forms of contemporary avant garde films which often rely on characteristics associated with historical films of the same genre Included are works by such visionary filmmakers as David Lynch Luis Bunuel Jean Cocteau Jean Luc Godard Guy Maddin and

Derek Jarman The first of the two appendices contains a filmography of key avant garde feature films from Haxan Witchcraft Through the Ages 1922 to Maximum Shame 2010 The second appendix offers a brief list of directors who have made significant contributions to films that take alternative approaches to cinematic practice establishing new grounds for analysis and evaluation

A History of Experimental Film and Video A.L. Rees, 2019-07-25 Avant garde film is almost indefinable It is in a constant state of change and redefinition In his highly acclaimed history of experimental film A L Rees tracks the movement of the film avant garde between the cinema and modern art with its postmodern coda But he also reconstitutes the film avant garde as an independent form of art practice with its own internal logic and aesthetic discourse In this revised and updated edition Rees introduces experimental film and video to new readers interested in the wider cinema as well as offering a guide to enthusiasts of avant garde film and new media arts Ranging from C zanne and Dada via Cocteau Brakhage and Le Grice to the new wave of British film and video artists from the 1990s to the present day this expansive study situates avant garde film between the cinema and the gallery with many links to sonic as well as visual arts The new edition includes a review of current scholarship in avant garde film history and includes updated reading and viewing lists It also features a new introduction and concluding chapter which assess the rise of video projection in the gallery since the millennium and describe new work by the latest generation of experimental film makers The new edition is richly illustrated with images of the art works discussed

The Documentary Film Reader Jonathan Kahana, 2016 Bringing together an expansive range of writing by scholars critics historians and filmmakers The Documentary Film Reader presents an international perspective on the most significant developments and debates from several decades of critical writing about documentary Each of the book s seven sections covers a distinct period in the history of documentary collecting both contemporary and retrospective views of filmmaking in the era And each section is prefaced by an introductory essay that explains its design and provides critical context Painstakingly selected from the archives of more than a hundred years of cinema practice and theory the essays reviews interviews manifestos and ephemera gathered in this volume suit the needs and interests of the beginning student the advanced scholar the casual reader and the working documentarian

The Films of Bill Morrison Bernd Herzogenrath, 2025-10-01 Avant garde filmmaker Bill Morrison has been making films that combine archival footage and contemporary music for decades and he has recently begun to receive substantial recognition he was the subject of a retrospective at the Museum of Modern Art and his 2002 film Decasia was selected for the National Film Registry by the Library of Congress This is the first book length study of Morrison s work covering the whole of his career It gathers specialists throughout film studies to explore Morrison s aesthetics of the archive his creative play with archival footage and his focus on the materiality of the medium of film

Shadow Economies of Cinema Ramon Lobato,2012-03-12 How do people access movies today What are the most popular and powerful channels for media distribution on a global scale How are film industries changing in the face of media convergence and digitisation To answer questions such as these argues Ramon Lobato we must shift our gaze away from the legal film business and toward cinema s shadow economies All around the world films are bought from roadside stalls local markets and grocery stores they are illegally downloaded and streamed they are watched in makeshift video clubs on street corners and in restaurants shops and bars International film culture in its actually existing forms is a messy affair and it relies to a great extent on black and grey media markets Examining the industrial dynamics of these subterranean film networks across a number of different sites from Los Angeles to Lagos Melbourne to Mexico City this book shows how they constitute a central rather than marginal part of audiovisual culture and commerce Combining film industry analysis with cultural theory Shadow Economies of Cinema opens up a new area of inquiry for cinema studies putting industry research into dialogue with wider debates about economic informality and commodity circulation Written in an accessible style this book offers an original bottom up perspective on the global cinema industry for researchers and students in film studies cultural studies and media and communications

Amateur Cinema Charles Tepperman,2014-12-24 From the very beginning of cinema there have been amateur filmmakers at work It wasn t until Kodak introduced 16mm film in 1923 however that amateur moviemaking became a widespread reality and by the 1950s over a million Americans had amateur movie cameras In Amateur Cinema Charles Tepperman explores the meaning of the amateur in film history and modern visual culture In the middle decades of the twentieth century the period that saw Hollywood s rise to dominance in the global film industry a movement of amateur filmmakers created an alternative world of small scale movie production and circulation Organized amateur moviemaking was a significant phenomenon that gave rise to dozens of clubs and thousands of participants producing experimental nonfiction or short subject narratives Rooted in an examination of surviving films this book traces the contexts of advanced amateur cinema and articulates the broad aesthetic and stylistic tendencies of amateur films

Exposing the Film Apparatus Giovanna Fossati, Annie Oever, 2025-10-01 Film archives have long been dedicated to preserving movies and they ve been nimble in recent years in adapting to the changing formats and technologies through which cinema is now created and presented This collection makes the case for a further step the need to see media technologies themselves as objects of conservation restoration presentation and research in both film archives and film studies Contributors with a wide range of expertise in the film and media world consider the practical and theoretical challenges posed by such conservation efforts and consider their potential to generate productive new possibilities in research and education in the field Inventing Film Studies Lee Grieveson, Haidee Wasson, 2008-11-24 A collection of institution centered essays comprising a history of film studies as a discipline L.A. Rebellion Allyson Field, 2015-11-13 L.A. Rebellion Creating a New Black Cinema is the first book dedicated to the films and filmmakers of the L A Rebellion a group of African Caribbean and African American independent film and video artists that formed at the University of California Los Angeles in the 1970s and 1980s The group including Charles Burnett Julie Dash Haile Gerima Billy Woodberry Jamaa Fanaka and Zeinabu irene Davis shared a desire to create alternatives to the dominant modes of narrative style and practice in American cinema works that reflected the full complexity of Black experiences This landmark collection of essays and oral histories examines the creative output of the L A Rebellion contextualizing the group s film practices and offering sustained analyses of the wide range of works with particular attention to newly discovered films and lesser known filmmakers Based on extensive archival work and preservation this collection includes a complete filmography of the movement over 100 illustrations most of which are previously unpublished and a bibliography of primary and secondary materials This is an indispensable sourcebook for scholars and enthusiasts establishing the key role played by the L A Rebellion within the histories of cinema Black visual culture and postwar art in Los Angeles Some of These Days James Donald, 2015 With portraits of actors dancers architects poets directors and musicians Some of These Days highlights how the so called New Negro Movement of the 1920s reverberated far beyond Harlem to cities such as London Paris Berlin and Vienna to ignite the global renaissance of modernist culture The SAGE Handbook of Cultural Analysis Tony Bennett, John Frow, 2008-03-26 A genuine one stop reference point for the many many differing strands of cultural analysis This isn't just one contender among many for the title of best multidisciplinary overview this is a true heavyweight Matt Hills Cardiff University An achievement and a delight both compelling and useful Beverley Skeggs Goldsmiths University of London With the cultural turn the concept of culture has assumed enormous importance in our understanding of the interrelations between social political and economic structures patterns of everyday interaction and systems of meaning making In The SAGE Handbook of Cultural Analysis the leading figures in their fields explore the implications of this paradigm shift Part I looks at the major disciplines of knowledge in the humanities and social sciences asking how they have been reshaped by the cultural turn and how they have elaborated distinctive new objects of knowledge Parts II and III examine the questions arising from a practice of analysis in which the researcher is drawn reflexively into the object of study and in which methodological frameworks are rarely given in advance Addressed to academics and advanced students in all fields of the social sciences and humanities The SAGE Handbook of Cultural Analysis is at once a synthesis of advances in the field with a comprehensive coverage of the scholarly literature and a collection of original and provocative essays by some of the brightest intellectuals of our time Found Sculpture and Photography from Surrealism to Contemporary Art Julia Kelly, 2017-07-05 Taking its departure point from the 1933 surrealist photographs of involuntary sculptures by Brassa and Dalí Found Sculpture and Photography from Surrealism to Contemporary Art offers fresh perspectives on the sculptural object by relating it to both surrealist concerns with chance and the crucial role of photography in framing the everyday This collection of essays questions the nature of sculptural practice looking to forms of production and reproduction that blur the boundaries between things that are made and things that are found One of the book's central themes is the interplay of presence and absence in sculpture as it is highlighted disrupted or multiplied through photography's indexical nature The essays examine the surrealist three dimensional object its relation to and transformation through photographs as well as the enduring legacies of such concerns for the artwork's materiality and temporality in performance and conceptual practices from the 1960s through the present Found Sculpture and Photography sheds new light on the shifts in status of the art object challenging the specificity of visual practices pursuing a radical interrogation of agency in modern and contemporary practices and exploring the boundaries between art and everyday life Amateur Movie Making Martha J. McNamara, Karan Sheldon, 2017-06-20 A compelling regional and historical study that transforms our understanding of film history Amateur Movie Making demonstrates how amateur films and home movies stand as testaments to the creative lives of ordinary people enriching our experience of art and the everyday Here we encounter the lyrical and visually expressive qualities of films produced in New England between 1915 and 1960 and held in the collections of Northeast Historic Film a moving image repository and study center that was established to collect preserve and interpret the audiovisual record of northern New England Contributors from diverse backgrounds examine the visual aesthetics of these films while placing them in their social political and historical contexts Each discussion is enhanced by technical notes and the analyses are also juxtaposed with personal reflections by artists who have close connections to particular amateur filmmakers These reflections reanimate the original private contexts of the home movies before they were recast as objects of study and artifacts of public history
