Judaism Is About Love Shai Held, 2024-03-26 A profound startling new understanding of Jewish life illuminating the forgotten heart of Jewish theology and practice love A dramatic misinterpretation of the Jewish tradition has shaped the history of the West Christianity is the religion of love and Judaism the religion of law In the face of centuries of this widespread misrepresentation Rabbi Shai Held one of the most important Jewish thinkers in America today recovers the heart of the Jewish tradition offering the radical and moving argument that love belongs as much to Judaism as it does to Christianity Blending intellectual rigor a respect for tradition and the practices of a living Judaism and a commitment to the full equality of all people Held seeks to reclaim Judaism as it authentically is He shows that love is foundational and constitutive of true Jewish faith animating the singular Jewish perspective on injustice and protest grace family life responsibilities to our neighbors and even our enemies and chosenness Ambitious and revelatory Judaism Is About Love illuminates the true essence of Judaism an act of restoration from within

Loving Creation Gary Chartier, 2022-09-27 Is it true that all we need is love Does love capture the essence of Christian ethics Does a love centered ethic need to be impartial in a way that leaves no room at ground level for relationships and projects What is the place of well being in an ethic of love Loving Creation The Task of Moral Life seeks to answer these questions by showing how a love ethic and an ethic of creation are not at odds but rather reinforce each other Gary Chartier articulates a love centered creation ethic or a creation centered love ethic and applies it to such issues as sex economic life love for enemies and political order In the book Chartier offers a powerful alternative both to natural law theories that seem to lose sight of the welfare of actual people and to the accounts of Christian love that embrace an alienating impartiality He develops an understanding of Christian love as focused on creation that can contribute effectively to enriching both social practices and personal lives Loving Creation is unabashedly theological But the theological considerations it adduces are ones that will allow Christians to engage in the public sphere with adherents of other religious traditions and of none It is a contribution not only to theological understanding but also to personal moral reflection to church practice and to Christian participation in public life

Goicoechea, 2015-02-19 Goicoechea presents his third volume in a series on agape In this book he shows in four ways how the agape of Jesus fulfills the ahava and hesed of the Hebrew Bible First he shows existentially how he learned and lived this for six years in a Benedictine Minor Seminary and then for three years in a Sulpician Major Seminary Second he demonstrates how ahava or our love for God and neighbor and hesed or God's love for us develop through the Hebrew Bible Goicoechea argues that St Matthew's Gospel explains the fulfilment of ahava and hesed with Jesus agape He concludes by drawing attention to how Levinas and Derrida two Jewish postmodern philosophers treat Jewish and Christian love
