King,2020-03-30 2021 Association of Catholic Publishers first place award in theology 2021 Catholic Media Association Award first place award in marriage and family living Six years into the papacy of Pope Francis Catholics are still figuring out how to respond to his image of the church as a field hospital a church that goes into the streets rather than remaining locked up behind closed doors Marriage and family are primary sites of the field hospital called to meet people s need for healing and accompaniment with compassion and love The authors of this collection all lay a mix of single and married traditional and progressive Catholics take up this work They offer practical wisdom from and critical engagement with the Catholic tradition but avoid rehashing decades old theological debates Instead their essays engage with and respond to realities shaping contemporary family life like religious pluralism technology migration racism sex and gender incarceration consumerism and the call to holiness The result is a collection that envisions ways that families can be places of healing and love in and for the world

Billett, Barbara Elisabeth Stalder, Vibe Aarkrog, Sarojni Choy, Steven Hodge, Anh Hai Le, 2022-04-21 This book addresses what is perhaps the single most important issue for vocational education its relatively low standing in an era of high aspiration The work explores the nature extent and consequences for an educational sector that whilst having an increasingly important role in contemporary societies is seen to be of low standing across both countries with developed and developing economies Some of the standing is associated with the occupation it serves and this is highlighted in an era of high aspiration by young people and their parents The consequences are far reaching This includes how governments and community view and support vocational education parents and familiars advise about participation in it and young people s decision making associated with their post school pathways More than describing this problem the focus of this collection is how this issue can be redressed through the actions of supra government agencies governments schools in tertiary education institutions industry and professional bodies and employers It sets out the quality and extent of societal sentiments in shaping how vocational education and the occupation it serves are projected across countries continents and cultures and offers a range of perspectives and contributions from scholars on how this issue might be redressed These contributions are drawn together and synthesised into sets of propositions practices and approaches directed towards governments schooling and tertiary education institutions educators researchers industry and professional bodies and employers In this way the book seeks to provide an authoritative seminal comprehensive and central text to understand and respond to this central issue for vocational education

Resources in Education , 1998-07 Discerning Vocations to the Apostolic Life, the Contemplative Life, and the Eremitic Life Marie Theresa Coombs, Francis Kelly Nemeck OMI, 2018-09-25 Throughout the spiritual journey God s love engenders within every Christian active contemplative and solitary inclinations Consequently each person wants to do some good to have a basic receptivity to God and at times to be alone with God As life unfolds God s love also calls forth within a person an overriding attraction toward one of those three orientations which in due course impels the individual toward a corresponding vocational lifestyle an apostolic life a contemplative life or an eremitic life In this book the authors identify the core features of those three vocational lifestyles In light of each vocational core they then discuss an ensemble of signs and patterns that point to an authentic calling from God This study offers wisdom and insight to those pondering the mystery of their personal vocations to those discerning their vocational direction and to spiritual directors formation personnel ecclesial leadership and Christian educators who accompany them in their quest
