T. Brattston, 2014

Traditional Christian Ethics features two exhaustive alphabetical lists of affirmative commandments and prohibitions from the earliest Christian ethics as found in writers before the mass apostasy of 249-251 AD. The affirmatives or positives list consists of what Christians are were commanded or encouraged to do. The other list is of negatives or prohibitions i.e. what Christians are were discouraged from doing similarly arranged. The source material for the work encompasses far more than the ten volume Ante Nicene Fathers edited by Roberts and Donaldson. It also draws from all writings of the period Christian Jewish and pagan available in English or French translation plus a few Latin translations. Some translations have been published only in scholarly journals and some only in the twenty first century. Volumes Two and Three form a single exhaustive alphabetical list of affirmative commandments or precepts including mental attitudes i.e. what Christian ethics commanded or encouraged according to writers on Christian ethics before 250 AD. Using earlier drafts of this set of books Dr Brattston's articles and booklets synthesizing early and contemporary Christianity have been published by a wide variety of denominations and ministries in every major English speaking country. He hopes readers will use them as a starting point for writing articles papers and sermons of their own.

DO YOU REALLY LOVE GOD? GODSWORD GODSWILL ONU, 2015-03-30 To love God is to cherish and esteem God with your whole being spirit soul and body. It is to keep His Word and Commandments and also to serve Him with your whole heart. To love God is to put God first before any other person or thing and to not offend or displease God because of any person desire or thing. How do we prove that we love God? We show and prove that we love God by keeping His Word and Commands. If we say that we love Him but do not obey what He tells us to do where then is the Love of God in us? Another way by which we prove our love for God and to Him is by serving Him and seeking for the wellbeing of His Kingdom. Next if you love God and really love Him the love that you have for God will keep you from doing certain things saying certain things and behaving certain ways. This is no joke. If your Christian life is the one in which you yourself determine and decide what to obey and what not to obey then you do not love God.

The secret to loving God is trusting in His word and learning from and living through the stories found in the Bible. We can love God through prayer through obedience and through faith. We can even love God when we suffer. Loving God will help you grow in Him and help build the foundation to trusting and loving the Creator of the Love Out Loud Joyce Meyer, 2011-11-24 Jesus said You must love the Lord your God with all your soul mind and strength and love your neighbour as yourself If you had to choose a single verse in the Bible that is a formula for successful living this would be the one to live by says Joyce Meyer Many Christians get mixed up about love They know they should love God they know they should love others but they don't understand what it means to love themselves Joyce believes that this misconception is one of the greatest pitfalls in the Christian journey Loving oneself in a balanced healthy manner is essential in order to have healthy relationships with God and others Through these inspiring and thoughtful devotions readers will learn How to fall in love with God because of who He is rather than what he can give us Why we cannot truly love ourselves until we truly love God Why we must love ourselves in order to love others because it's impossible to give away something you don't possess Practical ways to put these principles into action and enjoy richer relationships This powerful volume combines the trademark practical teaching sound psychology and useful insights that Joyce Meyer is known for and will form a firm basis for devotions for years to come The hidden life of the soul [by J.N.
