Low Countries And The New Worlds:

The Low Countries and the New World(s) Johanna C. Prins, 2000 The Low Countries and the New World s is a collection of specialized studies in the Netherlandic field covering topics in Dutch Literature Linguistics History and Art History This volume focuses on the tradition of travel exploration and discovery of new worlds by the Low Countries throughout history In the process the Low Countries have reflected on their own character expanded their experience by exploring other cultures and built small outposts of that culture in many places Colonization of the New World John Fiske, 1902 Historical research in the Low Countries 1970-1975 Alice C. Carter, 2024-09-16 The five review articles included in this volume were produced by the Dutch History Seminar of the University of London with the assistance of several Belgian and Dutch historians They first appeared in the volumes VI X of the Acta Historiae Neerlandicae in 1978 renamed The Low Countries History Yearbook a periodical published by the Dutch Historical Society with the objective of bringing new pUblications on the history of the Low Countries in the Dutch language to the attention of English speaking historians These articles have been republished and provided with indexes in the hope that in this form they will also prove to be useful to students of Belgian and Dutch history who have not been regular readers of the Acta Should this pUblication be favourably received a subsequent volume covering the years 1976 1981 may be issued THE EDITORS VII Survey of recent Dutch Historiography ALICE C CARTER Editor INTRODUCTION This bibliographical article has been put together by members of the Dutch history seminar held at London University s Institute of Historical Research The article is intended for non Dutch reading scholars and indeed all who are interested in Netherlands history An attempt has been made and will continue to be made to survey important works published in the year previous to that in which the article is drawn up This year we have concerned ourselves with books or in the earlier part of 1971 Colonization of the New world Ferdinand Justi, Sara Yorke Stevenson, Morris Jastrow (Jr.), 1905 Historical research in the Low Countries 1981-1983, 2023-09-29

City and Society in the Low Countries, 1100-1600 Bruno Blondé, Marc Boone, Anne-Laure Van Bruaene, 2018-10-04 A comprehensive dissection of the making of urban society in the Low Countries during the middle ages and the sixteenth century Literary Hispanophobia and Hispanophilia in Britain and the Low Countries (1550-1850) Yolanda Rodríguez Pérez, 2025-10-01 Spain has been a fruitful locus for the European imagination for centuries and it has been most often perceived in black and white oppositions either as a tyrannical and fanatical force in the early modern period or as an imaginary geography of a Romantic Spain in later centuries However the image of Spain its culture and its inhabitants did not evolve inexorably from negative to positive From the early modern period onwards it responded to an ambiguous matrix of conflicting Hispanophobic and Hispanophilic representations Just as in the nineteenth century latent negative stereotypes continued to resurface even in the Romantic heyday in the early modern period appreciation for Spain was equally undeniable When Spain was a political and military superpower it also enjoyed cultural hegemony with a literary Golden Age producing internationally hailed masterpieces Literary Hispanophobia and Hispanophilia in Britain and the Low Countries 1550-1850 explores the protracted interest in Spain and its culture and it exposes the co-existent ambiguity between scorn and fascination that characterizes Western historical perceptions in particular in Britain and the Low Countries two geographical spaces with a shared sense of historical connectedness and an overlapping sometimes complicated history with Spain Discord and Consensus in the Low Countries, 1700-2000 Jane Fenoulhet, Gerdi Quist, Ulrich Tiedau, 2016-05-02 All countries, regions and institutions are ultimately built on a degree of consensus on a collective commitment to a concept, belief or value system. This consensus is continuously rephrased and reinvented through a narrative of cohesion and challenged by expressions of discontent and discord. The history of the Low Countries is characterised by both a striving for consensus and eruptions of discord both internally and from external challenges. This interdisciplinary volume explores consensus and discord in a Low Countries context along broad cultural, linguistic and historical lines. Disciplines represented include early modern and contemporary history, art history, film, literature and translation studies. Scholars from both the Low Countries and beyond Translating Knowledge in the Early Modern Low Countries Harold John Cook, Sven Dupré, 2012 Knowledge of nature may be common to all of humanity yet it is written in many tongues. The story of the Tower of Babel is not only an etiology of the multitude of languages; it also suggests that a confusion of tongues confounds communication. However, as the contributors to this volume show, translation is always a transformation. This book examines how such transformations generate new knowledge and how translations helped to establish a new science. Situated at the border of the Germanic and Romance languages, home to a highly educated population, the Low Countries fostered multilingualism and became one of the chief sites for translation. The World Health Organization between North and South Nitsan Chorev, 2012-05-15 Since 1948 the World Health Organization (WHO) has launched numerous programs aimed at improving health conditions around the globe, ranging from efforts to eradicate smallpox to education programs about the health risks of smoking. In setting global health priorities and carrying out initiatives, the WHO bureaucracy has faced the challenge of reconciling the preferences of a small minority of wealthy nations who fund the organization with the demands of poorer member countries who hold the majority of votes. In The World Health Organization between North and South, Nitsan Chorev shows how the WHO bureaucracy has succeeded not only in avoiding having its agenda co-opted by either coalition of member states but also in reaching a consensus that fits the bureaucracy's own principles and interests. Chorev assesses the response of the WHO bureaucracy to member state pressure in two particularly contentious moments: when during the 1970s and early 1980s developing countries forcefully called for a more equal international economic order and when in the 1990s the United States and other wealthy countries demanded international organizations adopt neoliberal economic reforms. In analyzing these two periods, Chorev demonstrates how strategic maneuvering made it possible for a vulnerable bureaucracy to preserve a relatively autonomous agenda promote a consistent set of values and protect its interests in the face of challenges from developing and developed countries alike The Oxford Companion to Scottish History Michael Lynch,2007 Searchable online reference covers more than 20 centuries of history and interpret history broadly covering areas such as archaeology climate culture languages immigration migration and emigration Multi authored entries analyze key themes such as national identity women and society living standards and religious belief across the centuries in an authoritative yet approachable way The A Z entries are complemented by maps genealogies a glossary a chronology and an extensive guide to further reading From title screen

The Renaissance and Reformation in Northern Europe Kenneth R. Bartlett,Margaret McGlynn,2014-10-20 This updated version of Humanism and the Northern Renaissance now includes over 60 documents exploring humanist and Renaissance ideals the zeal of religion and the wealth of the new world Together the sources illuminate the chaos and brilliance of the historical period as well as its failures and inconsistencies The reader has been thoroughly revised to meet the needs of the undergraduate classroom Over 30 historical documents have been added including material by Martin Luther John Calvin John Knox William Shakespeare Christopher Columbus Miguel de Cervantes and Galileo Galilei In the introduction Bartlett and McGlynn identify humanism as the central expression of the European Renaissance and explain how this idea migrated from Italy to northern Europe The editors also emphasize the role of the church and Christianity in northern Europe and detail the events leading up to the Reformation A short essay on how to read historical documents is included Each reading is preceded by a short introduction and ancillary materials can be found on UTP s History Matters website www.utphistorymatters.com

War in the World Jeremy Black,2017-09-16 War was a central theme in the world history of the late fifteenth and sixteenth centuries with military capability and activity central to its states societies economies and cultures War in the World 1450 1600 provides an account of warfare in the period placing it in global context It offers a corrective to a narrative that has emphasised European developments and obscured the history of non European military systems and cultures of war Highlighting conflict between non Western powers which constituted most of the conflict around the world as well as giving due attention to warfare between Western and non Western powers Black emphasises the breadth and variety of military trajectories and connections This comparative context also provides a framework for considering the idea of a European based Military Revolution A wide ranging account of world military history in a period of substantial development the book will be essential reading for those interested in global history and conflict War in the World 1450 1600 is designed as a companion volume to Jeremy Black s Beyond the Military Revolution Warfare in the Seventeenth Century

World Textual Imitation: Making and Seeing in Literature J. Hart,2012-10-30 Textual Imitation offers a new critique of the space between fiction and truth poetry and philosophy In a nimble yet startlingly wide ranging argument esteemed scholar Jonathan Hart argues that recognition and misrecognition are the keys to understanding texts and contexts from the Old World to the New World The English Historical Review ,1886 Journal of the Military Service Institution of the United States ,1889 God and Gold Walter Russell Mead,2008-10-14 A stunningly insightful account of the global political and economic system sustained first by Britain and now by America that has created the modern world The key to the two countries predominance Mead argues lies in the individualistic ideology inherent in the Anglo American religion Over the years Britain and America s liberal democratic system has been repeatedly challeged by Catholic Spain and Louis XIV the Nazis communists and Al Qaeda and for the most part it has prevailed But the current conflicts in the Middle East threaten to change that record unless we foster a deeper understanding of the conflicts between the liberal world system and its foes

Encyclopedia of the Romantic Era 1760-1850 Christopher John Murray,2013-05-13 In 850 analytical articles this two volume set explores the developments that influenced the profound changes in thought and sensibility during the second half of the eighteenth century and the first half of the nineteenth century The Encyclopedia provides readers with a clear detailed and accurate reference source on the literature thought music and art of the period demonstrating the rich interplay of international influences and cross currents at work and to explore the many issues raised by the very concepts of Romantic and Romanticism

The Picturesque World, Or, Scenes in Many Lands Leo de Colange,1881 The Island at the Center of the World Russell Shorto,2005-04-12 In a riveting groundbreaking narrative Russell Shorto tells the story of New Netherland the Dutch colony which pre dated the Pilgrims and established ideals of tolerance and individual rights that shaped American history UPDATED EDITION WITH A NEW PREFACE AND POSTSCRIPT Astonishing A book that will permanently alter the way we regard our collective past The New York Times When the British wrested New Amsterdam from the Dutch in 1664 the truth about its thriving polyglot society began to disappear into myths about an island purchased for 24 dollars and a cartoonish peg legged governor But the story of the Dutch colony of New Netherland was merely lost not destroyed 12 000 pages of its records recently declared a national treasure are now being translated Russell Shorto draws on this remarkable archive in The Island at the Center of the World which has been hailed by The New York Times as a book that will permanently alter the way we regard our collective past The Dutch colony pre dated the original thirteen colonies yet it seems strikingly familiar Its capital was cosmopolitan and multi ethnic and its citizens valued free trade individual rights and religious freedom Their champion was a progressive young lawyer named Adriaen van der Donck who emerges in these pages as a forgotten American patriot and whose political vision brought him into conflict with Peter Stuyvesant the autocratic director of the Dutch colony The struggle between these two strong willed men laid the foundation for New York City and helped shape American culture The Island at the Center of the World uncovers a lost world and offers a surprising new perspective on our own
