Architecture, Opportunity, and Conflict in Eighteenth-Century Sicily Martin Nixon, 2025-10-01 The catastrophic Sicilian earthquake of 1693 led to the rebuilding of over 60 towns in the island s south west The rebuilding extended into the eighteenth century and gave opportunities for the reassertion and the transformation of power relations Although eight of the towns are now protected by UNESCO the remarkable architecture resulting from this rebuilding is little known outside Sicily This is the first book length study in English of this interesting area of early modern architecture Rather than seek to address all of the towns five case studies discuss key aspects of the rebuilding by approaching the architecture from different scales from that of a whole town to parts of a town or single buildings or parts of buildings and their decoration Each case study also investigates a different theoretical assumption in architecture including ideas of the Baroque rational planning and the relegation of decoration in architectural discourse Cultivated Power Elizabeth Hyde, 2005-04-04 Cultivated Power explores the collection cultivation and display of flowers in early modern France at the historical moment when flowering plants piqued the curiosity of European gardeners and botanists merchants and ministers and dukes and kings alike

God and Enchantment of Place David Brown,2004-10-14 David Brown argues for the importance of experience of God as mediated through place in all its variety He explores the various ways in which such experiences once formed an essential element in making religion integral to human life and argues for their reinstatement at the centre of theological discussions about the existence of God In effect the discussion continues the theme of Brown s two much praised earlier volumes Tradition and Imagination and Discipleship and Imagination in its advocacy of the need for Christian theology to take much more seriously its relationship with the various wider cultures in which it has been set In its challenge to conventional philosophy of religion the book will be of interest to theologians and philosophers and also to historians of art and culture generally The Sublime Timothy M. Costelloe,2012-07-30 This volume offers readers a unique and comprehensive overview of different theoretical and interdisciplinary perspectives on the sublime The English Connoisseur, Containing an Account of Whatever is Curious in Painting, Sculpture (etc.) Thomas Martyn,1766 The Oxford Companion to Italian Food Gillian Riley,2007-11-01 Here is an inspiring wide ranging A Z guide to one of the world s best loved cuisines Designed for cooks and consumers alike The Oxford Companion to Italian Food covers all aspects of the history and culture of Italian gastronomy from dishes ingredients and delicacies to cooking methods and implements regional specialties the universal appeal of Italian cuisine influences from outside Italy and much more Following in the footsteps of princes and popes vagabond artists and cunning peasants austere scholars and generations of unknown unremembered women who shaped pasta moulded cheeses and lovingly tended their cooking pots Gillian Riley celebrates a heritage of amazing richness and delight She brings equal measures of enthusiasm and expertise to her writing and her entries read like mini essays laced with wit and gastronomical erudition marked throughout by descriptive brilliance and entirely free of the pompous tone that afflicts so much writing about food The Companion is attentive to both tradition and innovation in Italian cooking and covers an extraordinary range of information from Anonimo Toscano a medieval cookbook to Bartolomeo Bimbi a Florentine painter commissioned by Cosimo de Medici to paint portraits of vegetables to Paglierina di Rifreddo a young cheese made of

Aesthetic Value Alan Goldman,2018-02-20 This book focuses on the question of aesthetic value using many practical examples from painting music and literature Alan Goldman argues for a non realist view of aesthetic value showing that the personal element can never be factored out of evaluative aesthetic judgments Nabokov and the Art of Painting Gerard Vries,Donald Barton Johnson,2025-10-01 Vladimir Nabokov was one of the greatest novelists of the previous century and his mastery of English and Russian prose is unequalled Nabokov had originally trained to become a painter and shared Marc Chagall s tutor in Paris In Nabokov and the Art of Painting the authors demonstrate how the art of painting is interwoven with the narratives His novels which refer to over a hundred paintings show a brilliance of colours and light and dark are in a permanent dialogue with each other Following the introduction describing the many associations Nabokov made between the literary and visual arts several of his novels are discussed in detail Laughter in the Dark The Real Life of Sebastian Knight Pnin Lolita Pale Fire and Ada Separate chapters are devoted to Leonardo da Vinci and Hieronymus Bosch as Nabokov had a special appreciation for both painters The authors show how the pictorial gave an extra depth to the great themes of love and loss in Nabokov s work

Chopin's Move Jean Echenoz,2004 With his trademark comically wry phrasing and a sure eye for quirky detail Echenoz has produced his oddest and most enjoyable novel to date Chopin s Move interweaves the fates of Chopin entomologist and recalcitrant secret agent Oswald a young foreign affairs employee who vanishes en route to his new home Suzy who gets enmeshed in a tangle of deceit and counterdeceit the mysterious Colonel Seck whose motivations are never quite what they seem and a typically Echenozian supporting cast of neurotic bodyguards disquieting functionaries and crafty double agents As the plot thickens the characters become embroiled in layer upon layer of deception and double dealing leading them further into a world in which nothing can be taken at face value and in which reality hinges on apparently harmless coincidence

The English Connoisseur Thomas Martyn,1766 Vladimir Nabokov and the Art of Painting Gerard de Vries,Donald Barton Johnson,2006 Studie van de verwijzingen naar beeldende kunst in het werk van de Russisch Amerikaanse schrijver 1899 1977

Semiotics of Programming Kumiko Tanaka-Ishii,2010-03-22 Considers what computers can and cannot do analysing how computer sign systems compare to humans through a concept of reflexivity New Approaches to Transcodification Massimo Fusillo, Doriana Legge, Mirko Lino, Mattia Petricola, Gianluigi Rossini, 2025-08-04 This collection aims to renew our perspective on adaptation and intermedial processes by thinking of them in terms of codes rather than media As a result the notion of transcodification emerges as a crucial tool in order to study the circulation of semiotic and aesthetic resources across disciplines knowledge systems and cultures Defined as the transfer of meaning making potential from one semiotic domain to another transcodification both includes and transcends intermediality thus dramatically expanding the scope and research potential of adaptation and intermedial studies The essays collected here apply this framework to an incredibly wide variety of objects and issues from the relationship between art and historiography to the visual culture of finance from contemporary approaches to ekphrasis to the hidden labor of screenwriters from modern surveillance to digital comics from fansubbing to the reception of the classical world in the digital age from medieval theater to the role of videogames in the war on terror By fostering dialogue between radically different disciplines the book offers a unique approach to the study of semiotic interrelations across the most diverse aspects of human culture
